Aftershock The Ethics Of Contemporary Transgressive Art:

Aftershock Kieran Cashell, 2009-08-30 Accused by the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand The Visual Dynamics of Art, Black

Care, and Ethics in South African Art Raél Jero Salley, 2025-02-18 This book interprets relationships between art and ethics in the context of contemporary South African art Nearly three decades after inaugurating political freedom in a democratic form the infrastructure of South Africa faces palpable issues and challenges to the social fabric The social tension involves painful struggles for decolonization and violent debates about the removal of colonial statues change of colonial names transformation of universities and curriculum change This book does critical work in art history theory criticism and visual culture by looking from and looking after social differences to interpret the potential impact of contemporary media and mediation Artists examined include Zanele Muholi Mohau Modisekeng Dineo Seshee Bopape Hasan and Husain Essop and Kemang Wa Lehulere This book will be of interest to scholars working in art history contemporary art visual culture art theory ethics aesthetics philosophy of art and African studies Entering the Moral Middle Ground Hubert J. M.

Hermans, 2024-03-28 Introduces the concept of a moral middle ground to combat the effects of toxic polarization and divisive identity politics Sociocultural Otherness and Minority Justice: A Study on China Hanna H. Wei, 2022-02-17 This book draws attention to the nonlegal sociocultural aspects of justice for minorities in China The primary objectives are threefold The first is to present a tentative analysis of the lived realities of being the other in China with the aim of presenting a critical picture of the complex national context and identifying main concerns and key challenges Six topics are covered gender roles health class intimacy ethnicity and religion and expression The second objective is to explore the interaction between a wide range of factors and myriad systems that enable or hinder protection and justice for these groups be they historical political social or cultural hoping to open up a rich domain of inquiry for those interested in to what extent and in what ways otherness may or may not survive in China The third objective is to bring attention to new trends and developments some are easily identifiable whereas others are less detectable some are interrelated while others are relatively isolated some are straightforward and others remain easily misinterpreted Ethics of Contemporary Art Theo Reeves-Everson, 2020-11-26

What happens when the shock of artistic transgression wears off when scandal dissipates when outrage becomes a tired routine In this original new book Theo Reeves Evison argues that transgressive art no longer succeeds on its own terms in societies where language prohibition and morality have become increasingly malleable This compels us to rethink the relationship between contemporary art and ethics and focus our attention on the potential of artworks to propose new values rather than simply challenge pre existing moral codes Assembling a novel theoretical framework from the writings of Félix Guattari Jacques Lacan and others Ethics of Contemporary Art narrates a journey away from transgression towards a new critical paradigm for the relationship between ethics and aesthetics that places questions of subjectivity centre stage Along the way artworks by Kader Attia Artur Zmijewski Dora Garcia and others serve as springboards launching discussions of the varied pathways along which a renewed ethics of contemporary art might develop Aftershock Kieran Cashell,2009-08-30 Accused by the tabloid press of setting out to shock controversial artworks are vigorously defended by art critics who frequently downplay their disturbing emotional impact This is the first book to subject contemporary art to a rigorous ethical exploration It argues that in favouring conceptual rather than emotional reactions commentators actually fail to engage with the work they promote Scrutinising notorious works by artists including Damien Hirst Jake and Dinos Chapman Richard Billingham Marc Quinn Sally Mann Marcus Harvey Hans Bellmer Paul McCarthy Tierney Gearon and Tracey Emin Aftershock insists on the importance of visceral emotional and ethical responses Far from clouding our judgement Cashell argues shame outrage or revulsion are the very emotions that such works set out to evoke While also questioning the catch all notion of transgression this illuminating and controversial book neither jumps indiscriminately to the defence of shocking artworks nor dismisses them out of hand Disability and Art History Ann Millett-Gallant,Elizabeth Howie,2016-10-26 This is the first book of its kind to feature interdisciplinary art history and disability studies Moving away from the medical model of disability that is often scrutinized in art history the book considers the social model and representations of disabled figures Topics addressed include visible versus invisible impairments scientific anthropological and vernacular images of disability and the implications of looking staring versus gazing Disability and Art History explores ways in which art responds to envisions and at times stereotypes and pathologizes disability and aims to contextualize disability historically as well as in terms of medicine literature and visual culture Oral History in the Visual Arts Linda Sandino,Matthew Partington,2013-04-25 The first book to explore the theory and practice of oral history as a methodology across a wide range fields including art design fashion textiles museum studies history and craft The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies Linda Kalof,2017 The Oxford Handbook of Animal Studies tackles the infamous animal question how can humans rethink and reconfigure their relationships with other animals Over the course of five sections and thirty chapters the contributors investigate issues and concepts central to understanding our current relationship with other animals and the potential for coexistence in an ecological community of living beings Spinoza Beyond Philosophy Beth Lord,2015-04-08 This book of 10

engaging and original essays brings Spinoza outside the realm of academic philosophy and presents him as a thinker who is relevant to contemporary problems and questions across a variety of disciplines

Ways of Seeing in the Neoliberal State Asbjørn Skarsvåg Grønstad, 2021-09-30 This book focuses on the theme of counter surveillance in art through a multi faceted engagement with the highly controversial Norwegian play Ways of Seeing Denounced by the prime minister and subject to a police investigation the play gained notoriety when it featured footage showing the homes of the country s financial and political elite as part of its scenography The book provides a thorough consideration of the work s reception context before elucidating its relation to the politics of neoliberalism What is foregrounded in this analysis are first the use of an aesthetics of sousveillance to visualize the material infrastructure of racism and right wing populism second the tangled interrelations of art and law third questions of censorship and artistic freedom and fourth the promotion of an alternative mode of political governance grounded in feminism and ecological awareness through the example of the Rojava experiment

Shock and the Senseless in Dada and Fluxus Dorothée Brill, 2010 A groundbreaking analysis of two movements of the historical avant garde

Screening the Unwatchable A. Grønstad, 2011-11-20 Tracing the rise of extreme art cinema across films from Lars von Trier s The Idiots to Michael Haneke s Caché Asbjørn Grønstad revives the debate about the role of negation and aesthetics and reframes the concept of spectatorship in ethical terms gallery staff everywhere for whom English is a non native language Unwatchable Nicholas Baer,Maggie Hennefeld,Laura Horak,Gunnar Iversen,2019-01-14 We all have images that we find unwatchable whether for ethical political or sensory affective reasons From news coverage of terror attacks to viral videos of police brutality and from graphic horror films to incendiary artworks that provoke mass boycotts many of the images in our media culture strike as beyond the pale of consumption Yet what does it mean to proclaim a media object unwatchable disturbing revolting poor tedious or literally inaccessible Appealing to a broad academic and general readership Unwatchable offers multidisciplinary approaches to the vast array of troubling images that circulate in our global visual culture from cinema television and video games through museums and classrooms to laptops smart phones and social media platforms This anthology assembles 60 original essays by scholars theorists critics archivists curators artists and filmmakers who offer their own responses to the broadly suggestive question What do you find unwatchable The diverse answers include iconoclastic artworks that have been hidden from view dystopian images from the political sphere horror movies TV advertisements classic films and recent award winners The Paradox of Transgression in Games Torill Mortensen,Kristine Jørgensen,2020-02-24 The Paradox of Transgression in Games looks at transgressive games as an aesthetic experience tackling how players respond to game content that shocks disturbs and distresses and how contemporary video games can evoke intense emotional reactions The book delves into the commercial success of many controversial videogames although such games may appear shocking for the observing bystander playing them is experienced as deeply rewarding for the player Drawing on qualitative player studies and approaches from media aesthetics theory the book challenges the perception of games as innocent entertainment and examines the range of emotional moral and intellectual experiences of players As they explore what players consider transgressive the authors ask whether there is something about the gameplay situation that works to mitigate the sense of transgression stressing gameplay as an aesthetic experience Anchoring the aesthetic game experience both in play studies as well as in aesthetic theory this book will be an essential resource for scholars and students of game studies aesthetics media studies philosophy of art and emotions The Meeting of Aesthetics and Ethics in the Academy Kate MacNeill,Barbara Bolt,2019-09-16 The Meeting of Aesthetics and Ethics in the Academy provides a deep understanding of the nuances of ethics in the creative environment and contributes to the critical exploration of the nature of research ethics in higher education Written by world renown academics with a wealth of experience in this field this volume explores ethical challenges and responses across a range of creative practices and disciplines including design documentary film making journalism socially engaged arts and the visual arts It addresses the complex negotiations that creative practice researchers in higher education undertake to ensure that the ethical compliance required does not undermine the research integrity and artistic aspirations By presenting carefully considered challenges to accepted models of research this book illustrates critical analysis through a variety of case studies and anecdotal examples that provide an insight into improved ethics practices and policies in higher education This book is perfect for academics ethics administrators higher degree research candidates and supervisors looking to engage further in creative practice research and wanting to explore and understand its ethical oversight

Allanah, Buck, Catman, Chelsea, Michael, Pamela, and Thomas Marc Quinn, 2010 Marc Quinn has always been interested in the public's obsession with the body its perfections and flaws and how this obsession has led some people to alter their bodies in increasingly extreme ways This exhibition brought together new sculptures executed in marble bronze and silver depicting people who have undergone extreme levels of plastic surgery and transformation including hormone therapy tattoos piercing skin bleaching and hair dying as well as implants and transplants The people depicted included cartoon characters minor porn stars and celebrities OCLC Aesthetics, Disinterestedness, and Effectiveness in Political Art Maria-Alina Asavei, 2018-09-15 Should politically concerned and engaged artistic production disregard questions or and requirements of aesthetic reception and value Whether art should be aesthetic or political is not a new question Therefore in spite of those several contemporary approaches of this issue the answer is not set in stone and the debate is still going on This volume aims to broaden these debates and it stems from numerous conversations with politically engaged artists and artist collectives on issues related to the aesthetization of politics versus the politicization of art as well as the phenomenon of the so called unhealthy aestheticism in political art Thus this study has three interrelated aims Firstly it aims to offer an interdisciplinary account of the relationship between art and politics and between aesthetics and the political Secondly it attempts to explore what exactly makes artistic production a strong yet neglected field of political critique when democratic political agency history from below and identity politics are threatened Finally to illuminate the relationship between critical political theory on the one hand and the philosophy of art on the other by highlighting artworks moral political and epistemic abilities to reveal criticize problematize and intervene politically in our political reality
