Local Governance in Transition Mary Louise McAllister, 2024-08-01 The early 2020s unleashed a perfect storm on governments worldwide Logistical challenges never before anticipated left some communities flailing while others thrived Epidemics natural disasters and economic collapses inspired innovation and creativity in many resourceful civic teams In Local Governance in Transition Mary Louise McAllister argues that communities wanting to thrive tomorrow must reimagine local governance today She begins with an overview of how government evolved in Canada then examines how interdisciplinary initiatives and policies can nudge cities toward a more sustainable future From coast to coast to coast environmental change brings existential challenges for Canadian communities Global awareness and collaboration are key in finding creative solutions for local governance and sustainability Local Governance in Transition examines systems thinking environmental studies and the mechanics of government Through the adoption of collaborative urban planning and policymaking and adaptive learning systems those working in local governance can foster healthier more resilient communities This text is for students leaders civil servants and anyone working toward sustainable cities

Urban Resilience to the Climate Emergency Isabel Ruiz-Mallén, Hug March, Mar Satorras, 2022-09-30 This volume sheds light on urban resilience strategies in times of climate emergency and social and economic crisis by reflecting on related social vulnerabilities and inequalities within cities and showing the potential of participatory governance approaches for socio environmental transformation The book compiles critical research documenting the articulation of urban resilience strategies dealing with climatic changes as well as the understanding of the unexpected implications of top down resilience plans to address the impacts of climate change in cities especially on the most vulnerable urban populations and the transformative capacities of bottom up and socially innovative resilience strategies The book especially focuses on co produced and grassroots transformative processes that are concerned with social equity in urban planning for climate change Although several publications cover the topic of urban resilience this book provides a more nuanced exploration of urban climate governance and citizen engagement in urban climate resilience policies through the lenses of political ecology environmental justice and co production In this regard the volume moves beyond the approach of multilevel urban climate governance by critically addressing the unexpected impacts of top down strategies of urban resilience with the goal of expanding the reflection on citizen engagement The book also explores the emerging possibilities behind the co production of urban resilience as well as the critical role of grassroots and citizens in promoting such alternative strategies While the primary target audience is scholars from different disciplines e g geography urban studies planning political ecology architecture urban sociology environmental studies focusing on urban resilience the editors also aim to reach urban resilience practitioners from local national and international organisations as well as environmental grassroots and climate activists

Solidarity and the 'Refugee Crisis' in Europe Óscar García Agustín,Martin Bak Jørgensen,2018-07-19 New forms of solidarity are being shaped as a response to the European refugee crisis The state in the form of national governments has not been able to implement any viable or sustainable solution to the crisis but the solidarity movement has been very visible and active in European countries This book offers a conceptualization of three types of solidarity autonomous civic and institutional solidarity This framework is applied to three case studies illustrating the emergence of different forms of solidarity the City Plaza Hotel in Athens the Danish friendly neighbors and Barcelona as refuge city

Competences in Education for Sustainable Development Paul Vare,Nadia Laussetlet,Marco Rieckmann,2022-02-02 This volume highlights key moments and movements in this competence turn in Education for Sustainable Development ESD and explores the different ways in which competences have been conceptualized and implemented By marshaling a dialogue between chapters and sections the book provides a coherent whole that will become a key source on ESD competences The contributors develop a conceptual map against which to chart existing and future ESD competence frameworks offer new critical case studies that explore the implementation of educator competences in ESD at different structural levels in different European contexts explore the link between pedagogy and educator competence through hitherto unpublished case studies based on current practices across Europe and consider the impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on ESD and educator competence The book comprises 23 chapters divided into four sections with an introduction and concluding chapter Section One introduces concepts and models related to ESD competences while the following two sections focus on implementation and pedagogy In light of the foregoing material the shorter Section Four is both reflective and forward looking The primary audience for this book will be academics and students working in the fields of Education Sustainability Science and related disciplines

Green Cities, Governance and the Law Andrés Boix Palop,Giorgia Pavani,2024-08-30 This book focusses on the developing role that the city currently plays in dealing with the effects of climate change and the instruments that can be utilised to make them truly green Cities are at the centre of European directives aimed at tackling climate change representing a key part of the European Green Deal and the National Recovery and Resilience Plans As such they provide valuable case studies for other countries grappling with how to address sustainability issues This book is divided into three parts with the first analysing Green urban planning and local governments in the European framework The second examines various thematic aspects relating to this intersection looking at the National Recovery and Resilience Plans the right of the city and environmental issues The third and final part presents case studies from four European cities showing how they are facing this transformation These include Bologna Paris Barcelona and Valencia each chosen by the Mission climate neutral and smart cities by 2030 Bringing together leading experts some of whom have been directly involved in developments the book presents invaluable comparisons that will be of interest to a wider international readership The book will be of interest to academics researchers and policymakers working in the areas of Public Law Environmental Law Urban Law and Governance Platform-Mediated Tourism Paola Minoia,Salla Jokela,2022-11-10 This book presents theoretical and empirical perspectives on platform mediated tourism with a special focus on Airbnb The case studies included in this volume show that the impacts of short term renting on neighbourhoods residents and tourism operators are uneven but increasingly significant During the past decade digital platforms for short term rental transport social dining etc have enabled the development of a new generation of entrepreneurs in tourism and mobility The mediation of services through digital platforms was initially presented as a form of a sharing economy led by non professional providers but it has grown into a new form of capitalist speculation The inadequacy of existing legal frameworks in regulating platform mediated activities has generated reactions by social movements especially for the protection of housing rights With the outbreak of Covid 19 the downfall in the mobility and tourism economy has revealed the acuteness of the structural crisis of cities and of labour based on platform mediated activities In Europe networks of cities are taking action against platforms to regain their control over data that is needed to regulate platform mediated tourism services and the rights of residents in tourism cities The authors in this edited volume explore issues of social justice in terms of residents quality of life working conditions the housing market urban structure the morality of operators who navigate through normative loopholes and the responsibility issues of platform companies holding data on short term rentals The chapters in this book were originally published in the Journal of Sustainable Tourism

Commons, Citizenship and Power Filippo Barbera,Emma Bell,2025-01-10 Since the 2010s populism and illiberal politics have been on the rise Demagogue leaders preach simplified rhetoric to vilify the powerless polarising city and rural areas and sparking such shocking events as the US insurrection on 6th January 2021 This interdisciplinary book argues for a politics of representativity and accountability to help transform people s experiences showing that where they live matters and therefore so do they This book demonstrates how place based politics can draw on and benefit from collective local knowledge rather than deferring to a nameless central government Analysing democratic theory and using rich case studies from protest movements to citizens assemblies it shows how it can return a sense of control to the people Between Realism and Revolt Jonathan S Davies,2021-03-24 Leading governance theorist Jonathan S Davies develops a rich comparative analysis of austerity governance and resistance in eight cities to establish a conjunctural perspective on the rolling crises of neoliberal globalism Drawing on a major international study of eight cities Davies employs Gramscian regime analysis to consider the consolidation weakening and transformation of urban governance regimes through the age of austerity He explores how urban governance shapes variations in austere neoliberalism tackling themes including collaboration dominance resistance and counter hegemony The book is a significant addition to thinking about how the era of austerity politics influences urban governance today and the potential for alternative urban futures SDGs in Africa and the Middle East Region Ismaila Rimi Abubakar,Izael da Silva,Rudi Pretorius,Khaled Tarabieh,2024-09-01 Africa is one of the most vulnerable regions and one where the implementation of the SDGs is particularly urgent Underinvestments in natural conservation are increasing the vulnerability of people across many African countries whose well being is endangered by deteriorating socio economic and environmental conditions This volume provides a contribution towards showcasing how natural resources may be more efficiently used and investments may be mobilised to augment the limited public sector funds available to achieve the SDGs This book is part of the 100 papers to accelerate the implementation of the UN Sustainable Development Goals initiative Handbook of Research on Migration, COVID-19 and Cities S. Irudaya Rajan,2025-07-15 This incisive Handbook explores the multifaceted impact of the COVID 19 pandemic on migrant populations such as international students refugees undocumented migrants and informal urban workers It examines how migration and urbanization have been reshaped by the pandemic and emphasizes the pivotal role of governments and cities in crisis management

Barcelona: An Urban History of Science and Modernity, 1888-1929 Oliver Hochadel,Agustí Nieto-Galan,2016-04-14 The four decades between the two Universal Exhibitions of 1888 and 1929 were formative in the creation of modern Barcelona Architecture and art blossomed in the work of Antoni Gaudi and many others At the same time social unrest tore the city apart Topics such as art nouveau and anarchism have attracted the attention of numerous historians Yet the crucial role of science technology and medicine in the cultural makeup of the city has been largely ignored The ten articles of this book recover the richness and complexity of the scientific culture of end of the century Barcelona The authors explore a broad range of topics zoological gardens natural history museums amusement parks new medical specialties the scientific practices of anarchists and spiritists the medical geography of the urban underworld early mass media domestic electricity and astronomical observatories They pay attention to the agenda of the bourgeois elites but also to hitherto neglected actors users of electric technologies and radio amateurs patients in clinics and dispensaries collectors and visitors of museums working class audiences of public talks and female mediums Science technology and medicine served to exert social control but also to voice social critique Barcelona An urban history of science and modernity 1888 1929 shows that the city around 1900 was both a creator and facilitator of knowledge but also a space substantially transformed by the appropriation of this knowledge by its unruly citizens Programme and The Book of Abstracts / Nineteenth Annual Conference YUCOMAT 2017, Herceg Novi, September 4-8, 2017 Dragan P.
