Aesthetics of Change Bradford P. Keeney, 2017-02-13 The fundamental concern of psychotherapy is change While practitioners are constantly greeted with new strategies techniques programs and interventions this book argues that the full benefits of the therapeutic process cannot be realized without fundamental revision of the concept of change itself Applying cybernetic thought to family therapy Bradford P Keeney demonstrates that conventional epistemology in which cause and effect have a linear relationship does not sufficiently accommodate the reciprocal nature of causation in experience Written in an unconventional style that includes stories case examples and imagined dialogues between an epistemologist and a skeptical therapist the volume presents a philosophically grounded ecological framework for contemporary clinical practice

Thun-Hohenstein, Elisabeth Schmuttermeyer, Patrick Werkner, Peter Weibel, 2017 Post-Communist Aesthetics Anca Pusca, 2015-11-06 In this book Anca Pusca seeks to extend the aesthetic and cultural turn in international relations to an analysis of post communist transitions in Central and Eastern Europe Building on the philosophy of Walter Benjamin and Jacques Ranciere the work investigates how post communist film photography theatre art museumization and architecture have creatively re engaged with ideas of revolution communism capitalism and ethnic violence and how this in turn has helped people survive and reinvent themselves amongst the material and ideological ruins of communism The work illustrates how popular culture has effectively targeted and re interpreted the classical representations of the transition in order to question The origin focusing on practices of re staging memorializing and questioning the 1989 revolutions The unfolding focusing on the human and material consequences of significant changes in processes of production and consumption The potential end focusing on the illusions and disillusion surrounding the transition process A unique take on the influence that popular culture has had and continues to have on how we understand the post communist transitions this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of cultural and visual studies eastern European politics and international relations The Aesthetic Economy of Fashion Joanne Entwistle, 2009-11-15 Fashion is bound up with promoting the new concerned with constantly changing aesthetics The favored styles or looks of a season arise out of the work of a vast range of different actors who collectively produce select distribute and promote the new ideals before moving on next season If fashion is defined in part by the incessant requirement to be new this requirement means aesthetic qualities are always in motion and therefore unstable How then are fashionable commodities stabilized long enough for them to be calculated i e selected distributed and sold by those critically placed inside the fashion system Since there are few studies that actually examine the work that goes on inside the world of fashion we know little about these processes Fashion and the Cultural Economy addresses this gap in our knowledge by examining how aesthetic products are defined distributed and valued It focuses attention on the work of some of the market agents in particular model agents or bookers and fashion buyers shaping the aesthetics inside their markets In analyzing their work Entwistle develops a theoretical framework for understanding the distinctive features of aesthetic marketplaces and the aesthetic calculations within them AESTHETICS OF ACTION Kris L. Hardin,1993-04-17 In this study of aesthetics and change among the Kono of Sierra Leone Kris L Hardin addresses the issue of Western bias in aesthetic critique She proposes an anthropology of aesthetics in which the analysis of value and preference can be made in indigenous terms within any particular setting Hardin s fascinating ethnography of the Kono reveals how a people s categories of experience and evaluation their aesthetics are applied to such varied activities as agricultural production dancing and pottery making In her fieldwork among the Kono Hardin observed the interplay of individual preference and social value looking not only for categories of experience but also for cues that signal the categories appreciation or displeasure The author describes the ways in which traditional structures both influence and are influenced by people s actions and how evaluations of action allow for changes at the level of structure over time Most aesthetic research begins with the Western notion of art as a category that separates objects and forms from their social context Maintaining that an anthropology of aesthetics should focus on exploring the conditions under which evaluation occurs and the consequences of that evaluation rather than specific sets of forms or activities Hardin moves away from the art as a reflection of culture model and locates aesthetics more centrally within social theory As a result the author is able to consider the role aesthetic criticism plays in the construction of social and cultural identity to examine the mechanisms through which aesthetic criticism shapes social and cultural processes to view the relationship between aesthetic evaluation and change and to acknowledge the social and political consequences of the question whether aesthetic systems explored in this way can be compared BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

An Introduction to Contemporary Aesthetics Emmie Malone,Elizabeth Scarbrough,2025-10-27 An Introduction to Contemporary Aesthetics Art Community and Experience gives students and other readers a comprehensive sense of the dynamic issues and problems in aesthetics and philosophy of art today Each of the 14 chapters is written by a different expert in the field and together they cover a wide range of methodological approaches and perspectives including those from analytic and Continental philosophy non Eurocentric global traditions and critical stances taken up by feminist philosophers and philosophers of race In addition the volume makes use of recent empirical work on art and beauty as well as examples of artistic expressions from cultures from around the world In contrast to other coursebooks which are often structured entirely around artforms this volume frames much of its contents around core aesthetic concepts like good or bad taste interpretation or authenticity with each chapter devoted to a different concept Within each chapter the reader will find a range of engaging artforms and experiences The contents of the volume are laid out in four parts the first focuses on foundational questions in aesthetics and the second on key aesthetic concepts The third part focuses on applied questions relating to particular artforms and genres e g horror comedy AI art games Finally the last part of the volume takes a wider but still practical view focusing on why aesthetic life matters to us both as a society and as individuals

Key Features Written in a non technical style for readers new to aesthetics and with little or no background in philosophy or the study of the arts Draws on examples readers encounter in everyday life and popular culture from Drake to Philly cheesesteaks Deals with questions that concern many college students today Does authenticity even matter and if so why What s wrong with enjoying the work of an immoral artist How are our homes and schools important places of aesthetic meaning Each chapter is written as a biased survey with clear coverage of the historical and contemporary literature on the topic but also from a distinct subjective point of view Non Eurocentric philosophies or examples are included throughout the book highlighting the rich and diverse philosophical work from around the globe Discussion Questions offer student readers opportunities to engage more fully with the problems raised in the text Suggestions for Further Reading at the end of each chapter identify the most promising avenues for further research on the topic

Ghandhian Aesthetics , Studies in Eighteenth-Century British Art and Aesthetics Ralph Cohen,2023-04-28 Emerging Visions of the Aesthetic Process Gerald C. Cupchik,Janos László,1992-09-25 Emerging Visions of the Aesthetic Process explores the processes underlying aesthetics and play from the perspectives of psychologists philosophers and semiologists It reveals the different ways in which scholars think about the following questions 1 What is the origin of the creative process 2 How do biological social and cognitive processes shape the activities of artists and the responses of viewers 3 How does literary activity draw on our experiences of everyday life and how is it tied to other kinds of media 4 How does play affect the process of growth from childhood to adulthood The contributors consider artistic literary and play activity from its most biological roots through individual cognitive and emotional processing to its expression at the social level Emerging Visions of the Aesthetic Process offers a stimulating basis for the discussion of aesthetic processes and will serve as an integrative comprehensive treatise on the topic for researchers and students

The Aesthetic and Political Practices of Trans Women in Peru Paola Patiño Rabines,2023-12-27 This book explores the political aesthetic practices of transgender women in Lima Peru and how they use these to survive and fight for recognition and full citizenship through drawing on ethnographic research and on decolonial feminist and aesthetic theories Chapters analyze how the vulnerability and precariousness of trans women coexist with modes of feminist agency resistance and resilience as well as with proposals for political action to transform a heteropatriarchal society toward a more diverse and accepting one Finally the author draws on the Viennese artist Friedensreich Hundertwasser s metaphor of the five skins whereby the first skin is the epidermis the second is the clothes the third is the house the fourth is identity which refers to primary socialization spaces such as the neighbourhood and the fifth is the world environment The author uses this metaphor to analyze the corporal practices of trans women in a cumulative way paying special attention to the different stages of their lives to those skins that embody and accompany them from childhood to adulthood This book will be of interest to scholars of transgender studies decolonial feminist studies and aesthetic particularly those with a focus on gender and sexuality in Latin America

Walter Benjamin and the Aesthetics of Change A. M. Pusca,2010-01-20 Following the spirit of Benjamin s Arcades Project this book acts as a kaleidoscope of change in the 21st century tracing its different reflections in the international contemporary while seeking to understand individual collective reactions to change through a series of creative methodologies

Aesthetics and the City Joe Blakey,Amy Barron,2025-07-25 Aesthetics and the City engages aesthetics to explore the role of the city in urban experience Drawing on diverse theories and global case studies this edited collection examines how aesthetics relates to how cities and urban spaces are perceived organised and transformed This book celebrates and ponders the wide diversity of aesthetic approaches within urban studies noting that the way aesthetics is understood impacts what can be understood about cities and the urban order more generally In its most general sense aesthetics refers to our sensuous relation to the world It invariably figures in how we make sense of the city and ourselves bound to how urban life is experienced imaginatively materially socially culturally and politically In an era where scholars have expressed concern at epistemological city centrism aesthetics is proposed as a versatile concept through which the centrality of the city to urban thought can be assessed The book also explores how aesthetics intersects with a range of tangential concepts including power the political art and affect Ultimately it makes the case that this diverse ensemble of approaches to aesthetics can enable scholars to understand the city and its enduring relevance to urban thought This book focuses on the concepts of aesthetics and the city and will appeal to scholars and students in urban studies human geography planning politics and sociology

Japanese Fashion Toby Slade,2009-12-15 This book examines the entire sweep of Japanese clothing history from the sophisticated fashion systems of late Edo period kimonos to the present day providing possible theories of how Japan made this fashion journey and linking current theories of fashion to the Japanese example The book is unique in that it provides the first full history of the last two hundred years of Japanese clothing It is also the first book to include Asian fashion as part of global fashion as well as fashion theory It adds a hitherto absent continuity to the understanding of historical and current fashion in Japan and is pioneering in offering possible theories to account for that entire history By providing an analysis of how that entire history changes our understanding of the way fashion works this book will be an essential text for all students of fashion and design

Gandhian Socio-Aesthetics Mohit Chakrabarti,1997

The world of socio aesthetics is the serene world of human ascent and excellence To Mahatma Gandhi a poignant aesthetic visionary par excellence the orbit of socio aesthetics incorporates careful and cautions cultivation of nobler sentiments and finer sensibilities like Truth Goodness Beauty and so on for endless advancement of man in the efforescence of myticism The fusion of Sarvodaya Non violence religion education and symbolism for the desirable end in view of socio aesthetics as Gandhi advocates and translates till the last day of his life bears ample testimony to the socio aesthetic fullness of vision of humankind

Aesthetics and the Sciences of Mind Gregory Currie,Matthew Kieran,Aaron Meskin,Jon Robson,2014 How far should philosophical accounts of the value and interpretation of art be sensitive to the scientific approaches used by psychologists sociologists and evolutionary thinkers A team of experts urge different answers to this question and explore how empirical inquiry can shed light on problems traditionally regarded as philosophical Constructing a Sociology of the Arts Vera L. Zolberg,1990-02-23 At a time when a pile of bricks is displayed in a museum when music is composed for performance underwater and the boundaries between popular and fine art are fluid conventional understandings of art are strained in describing what art is what it includes or excludes whether and how it should be evaluated and what importance should be assigned the arts in society In this book Vera Zolberg examines diverse theoretical approaches to the study of the arts Ranging over humanistic and social scientific views representing a variety of scholarly traditions American and European she then develops a sociological approach that evaluates the institutional economic and political influences on the creation of art while also affirming the importance of the question of artistic quality The author examines the arts in the social contexts in which they are created and appreciated focusing on the ways in which people become artists the institutions in which their careers develop the supports and pressures they face the publics they need to please and the political forces with which they must contend Particular subjects covered include the process by which works are created and re created at different times with changed meanings and for new social uses the role of the audience in the realization of artistic experiences the social consequences of taste preferences the reasons for change in artistic styles and for the coexistence of many art forms and styles     EPA-600/7 ,1979
