Culture, Religion and Conflict in Muslim Southeast Asia Joseph A. Camilleri, Sven Schottmann, 2013 By examining the sometimes surprising and unexpected roles that culture and religion have played in mitigating or exacerbating conflicts this book explores the cultural repertoires from which Southeast Asian political actors have drawn to negotiate the pluralism that has so long been characteristic of the region Focusing on the dynamics of identity politics and the range of responses to the socio political challenges of religious and ethnic pluralism the authors assembled in this book illuminate the principal regional discourses that attempt to make sense of conflict and tensions They examine local notions of dialogue reconciliation civility and conflict resolution and show how varying interpretations of these terms have informed the responses of different social actors across Southeast Asia to the challenges of conflict culture and religion The book demonstrates how stumbling blocks to dialogue and reconciliation can and have been overcome in different parts of Southeast Asia and identifies a range of actors who might be well placed to make useful contributions propose remedies and initiate action towards negotiating the region's pluralism This book provides a much needed regional and comparative analysis that makes a significant contribution to a better understanding of the interfaces between region and politics in Southeast Asia

Discourses, Agency and Identity in Malaysia Zawawi Ibrahim, Gareth Richards, Victor T. King, 2021-10-23

This book seeks to break new ground both empirically and conceptually in examining discourses of identity formation and the agency of critical social practices in Malaysia Taking an inclusive cultural studies perspective it questions the ideological narrative of race and ethnicity that dominates explanations of conflicts and cleavages in the Malaysian context The contributions are organised in three broad themes Identities in Contestation Borders Complexities and Hybridities takes a range of empirical studies literary translation religion gender ethnicity indigeneity and sexual orientation to break down preconceived notions of fixed identities This then opens up an examination of Identities and Movements Agency and Alternative Discourses in which contributors deal with counter hegemonic social movements of anti racism young people environmentalism and independent publishing that explicitly seek to open up greater critical democratic space within the Malaysian polity The third section Identities and Narratives Culture and the Media then provides a close textual reading of some exemplars of new cultural and media practices found in oral testimonies popular music film radio programming and storytelling who have consciously created bodies of work that question the dominant national narrative This book is a valuable interdisciplinary work for advanced students and researchers interested in representations of identity and nationhood in Malaysia and for those with wider interests in the fields of critical cultural studies and discourse analysis Here is a fresh startling book to aid the task of unbinding the straitjackets of Malay Chinese and Indian with which colonialism bound Malaysia's plural inheritance and on which the postcolonial state continues to rely In it a panoply of unlikely identities Bajau liminality Kelabit philosophy Islamic feminism refugee hybridity and more finds expression and offers hope for liberation Rachel Leow University of Cambridge This book shakes the foundations of race thinking in Malaysian studies by expanding the range of cases perspectives and outcomes of identity It offers students of Malaysia an examination of identity and agency that is expansive critical and engaging and its interdisciplinary depth brings Malaysian studies into conversation with scholarship across the world Sumit Mandal University of Nottingham Malaysia This is a much needed work that helps us to take apart the colonial inherited categories of race which informed the notion of the plural society the idea of plurality without multiculturalism It complicates the picture of identity by bringing in religion gender indigeneity and sexual orientation and helps us to imagine what a truly multiculturalist Malaysia might look like Syed Farid Alatas National University of Singapore

Politics of Preferential Development Steven Ratuva,2013-07-01 While affirmative action has helped lessen inequality it has not removed ethnic tension as initially envisaged The ultimate question is whether affirmative action has led to a fairer more just and peaceful society or whether it has simply worsened the existing situation The book takes the view that the answer is a mixed one and reflects the complexity of the situation rather than one which is simply positive or negative The State, Development and Identity in Multi-Ethnic Societies Nicholas Tarling, Terence

Gomez,2008-03-03 This book examines ethnic communities identity economy society and state and the links between them in a range of countries across Asia challenging the widely held belief that an authoritarian political system is necessary to ensure communal co existence in developing countries where ethnic minorities have a considerable economic presence

Political Economy of Malaysia's Industrial Policy Firdausi Suffian,2021-02-22 This book examines the national automotive policy in Malaysia to help readers gain an understanding of the country s industrial policy making processes Addressing a gap in analysis of the political economy of the national automotive policy the research presented combines the new institutional theory and the developmental state approach to provide new insights into elite policymakers measures to shield domestic automotive enterprises from pro market reforms The formation of the national car project marks a turning point for Malaysia s industrial development as a country which it envisions will lead to it becoming a major player in the global automotive market However the domestic institutional factors embedded in ethno economic interests and patronage constrain national car makers limiting their potential to grow and instead causing a slowdown in the industry Allowing readers to understand the background to Malaysia s heavy industrialisation programme and the birth of its national car projects this book critically discusses the significance of institutional context in policy outcomes and highlights how institutions and policies have impact growth or decline It is a valuable resource relevant to analysts researchers and students who are interested in the political economy of the national industrial policy and automotive industry in Malaysia and beyond

David Brown,2003-09-02 Ethnic tensions in Southeast Asia represent a clear threat to the future stability of the region David Brown s clear and systematic study outlines the patterns of ethnic politics in Burma Singapore Indonesia Malaysia Thailand The study considers the influence of the State on the formation of ethnic groups and investigates why some countries are more successful in managing their ethnic politics than others Democratization and Ethnic Minorities Jacques Bertrand,Oded Haklai,2013-10-23 Many new democracies are characterized by majority dominance and ethnocentrism Varying paths or transitions toward democracy create very different outcomes for how ethnic identities communities and politics are recognized This book illustrates the varied consequences of democratization from ethnic violence new forms of accommodation to improve minorities status or sometimes only minor improvements to life for ethnic minorities The book treads a nuanced path between conflicting myths of democratization illustrating that there are a variety of outcomes ranging from violence or stability to the extension of rights representation and new resources for ethnic minorities Contributors discuss the complex mechanisms that determine the impact of democratization of ethnic minorities through five factors inherited legacies from the pre transition period institutional configurations elite strategies societal organization and international influences Global in scope this book features a broad range of case studies both country specific and regional including chapters on Nigeria Kenya Turkey and Taiwan Eastern Europe the former Soviet Union Southeast and East Asia This book provides new insights and makes an important contribution to existing debates Democratization and Ethnic Minorities will be essential reading for students and scholars of democratization nationalism ethnic conflict and ethnic politics political science history and sociology 政治学,2017 1957 1990 Personalized Politics In-Won Hwang,2003-10-13 This book is an innovative analysis of regime maintenance and transformation in Malaysia It goes beyond familiar approaches centred on communal politics or the corporate workings of Malaysia Inc to stress the importance of power maintenance tracing a path from consociational bargaining to authoritarian UMNO dominance to Dr Mahathir s personal dominance Encyclopedia of Race and Ethnic Studies Ellis Cashmore,2004-03 The book comprises essays each highlighting a particular word or term germane to the study of race and ethnic studies Embedded Entrepreneurship: Market, Culture, and Micro-Business in Insular Southeast Asia ,2013-07-04 Embedded Entrepreneurship examines the importance of cultural meaning in the creation and utilization of economic value Based on case studies from Thailand Malaysia Singapore and Indonesia the authors demonstrate that micro scale entrepreneurship is intertwined with prevailing conceptions moralities and habituations in the entrepreneurs social milieu More specifically the volume argues that meaning making is integral to economic opportunity that economic actors market agency is shaped by cultural experiences that entrepreneurs prototypical individualism is socially contingent and that cultural meanings channel economic value among economic and social domains Addressing core questions about embedding the authors suggest theoretical convergences between economic anthropology and economic sociology Contributors include Signe Howell Ingrid

Rudie Leif Manger Olaf H Smedal Frode F Jacobsen Kristianne Ervik Anette Fagertun Lars Gjelstad Nils Hidle Anja Lillegraven Solgunn Olsen and Ingvild Solvang Education and Social Mobility Phillip Brown,Diane Reay,Carol Vincent,2017-10-02 The study of education and social mobility has been a key area of sociological research since the 1950s The importance of this research derives from the systematic analysis of functionalist theories of industrialism Functionalist theories assume that the complementary demands of efficiency and justice result in more meritocratic societies characterized by high rates of social mobility Much of the sociological evidence has cast doubt on this optimistic if not utopian claim that reform of the education system could eliminate the influence of class gender and ethnicity on academic performance and occupational destinations This book brings together sixteen cutting edge articles on education and social mobility It also includes an introductory essay offering a guide to the main issues and controversies addressed by authors from several countries This comprehensive volume makes an important contribution to our theoretical and empirical understanding of the changing relationship between origins education and destinations This timely collection is also relevant to policy makers as education and social mobility are firmly back on both national and global political agendas viewed as key to creating fairer societies and more competitive economies This book was originally published as a special issue of the British Journal of Sociology of Education Transforming the Developmental Welfare State in East Asia H. Kwon,2016-04-19 Since the economic crisis of 1997 there have been significant social policy reforms in East Asia Using the concept of the developmental welfare state this book seeks to answer whether the welfare reforms in East Asia have extended social rights while maintaining its developmental credentials Transforming the Developmental Welfare State in East Asia explains the way in which the shift in economic strategy has influenced social policy reform in East Asia It also analyzes the political dynamics of social policy in which economic imperatives for social reform were transformed into social policy reform Historical Dictionary of Malaysia Ooi Keat Gin,2017-12-18 Malaysia is one of the most intriguing countries in Asia in many respects It consists of several distinct areas not only geographically but ethnically as well along with Malays and related groups the country has a very large Indian and Chinese population The spoken languages obviously vary at home although Bahasa Malaysia is the official language and nearly everyone speaks English There is also a mixture of religions with Islam predominating among the Malays and others Hinduism and Sikhism among the Indians mainly Daoism and Confucianism among the Chinese but also some Christians as well as older indigenous beliefs in certain places This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Malaysia contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 500 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Malaysia Ethnic Diversity and Public Policy C. Young,2016-07-27 In recent years the saliency of conflicts pitting different ethnic racial and religious groups against one another has increased dramatically The world of nation states is much more diverse than previously realized only a small number of the 185 independent countries are truly homogeneous With the end of the cold war the relative importance of ethnic conflicts as a threat to international peace and stability is far greater An international set of scholars collaborate in this volume to explore policy alternatives which can contribute towards the accommodation of cultural diversity The Portuguese in the Creole Indian Ocean Fernando Rosa, 2015-10-14 This monograph is an exploration of the historical legacy of the Portuguese in the Indian Ocean in particular in Goa Macau Melaka and Malabar Instead of fixing the gaze on either the colonial or the indigenous it attempts to scrutinise a creole space that is rooted in Indian Ocean cosmopolitanism
