The Pashtun Tribes in Afghanistan Ben Acheson, 2023-06-30

The Pashtun Tribes of Afghanistan is a tour de force combining erudite analysis, historical research, atmospheric story telling, page turning prose, and above all, profound passion. Sir Nicholas Kay, NATO Senior Civilian Representative in Afghanistan, 2019-2020, British Ambassador to Afghanistan, 2017-2019. The abrupt withdrawal of US and NATO forces in 2021 ushered in a new era for Afghanistan. The subsequent Taliban takeover facilitated a reversion to some of the worst hallmarks of Afghanistan's past, including bans on women's education and other rights-related rollbacks. Navigating this new reality necessitates that more constructive relationships are built between Westerners and Afghans, particularly with the majority ethnicity, the Pashtun tribes. The Pashtun Tribes in Afghanistan: Wolves Among Men is the toolkit for doing so. It provides the knowledge needed to navigate a complex tribal environment. Framed by first-hand experience and balancing in-depth analysis with engaging anecdotes, it sheds light on the Pashtun way of life still enshrined in the ancient Pashtunwali honor code. It explains the tribal structure, tribal territories, historic battles, prominent figures, and even Pashtun proverbs and poets. It also highlights how recent wars are destroying the tribal arena. Focusing on people rather than politics, this book unveils the layers, paradoxes, and subtleties of the world's largest tribal society. On turning the final page, readers will understand the Pashtun brand of tribalism and how it influences Afghanistan today. They will be aware that tribal life has been permanently challenged, but that the Pashtun identity remains intact in psychology, if not always in practice. They will recognize why Pashtuns are not a single entity and should not be treated as one. The need to understand the tribes as they understand themselves will also be clear, particularly their concept of honor. This book illuminates why, from Alexander the Great to Winston Churchill and even with the Taliban today, Pashtuns are still stereotyped as primitive, violence-prone barbarians. But were men like Rudyard Kipling right to characterize tribesmen as being as unaccountable as the grey Wolf, who is his blood brother? This book has the answer.

Encyclopaedia of Afghanistan: Afghanistan: customs and traditions S. Ram, 2002 Afghanistan Declassified Brian Glyn Williams, 2011-09-22

Nearly 100,000 US soldiers were deployed to Afghanistan at the height of the campaign fighting the longest war in the nation's history. But what do Americans know about the land where this conflict is taking place? Many have come to have a grasp of the people, history, and geography of Iraq, but Afghanistan remains a mystery. Originally published by the US Army to provide an overview of the country's terrain, ethnic groups, and history for American troops, and now updated and expanded for the general public, Afghanistan Declassified fills in these gaps. Historian Brian Glyn Williams, who has traveled to Afghanistan frequently over the past decade, provides essential background to the war, tracing the rise fall and reemergence of the Taliban Special sections deal with topics such as the CIA s Predator drone campaign in the Pakistani tribal zones the spread of suicide bombing from Iraq to the Afghan theater of operations and comparisons between the Soviet and U S experiences in Afghanistan To Williams a historian of Central Asia Afghanistan is not merely a theater in the war on terror It is a primeval exciting and beautiful land not only a place of danger and turmoil but also one of hospitable villagers and stunning landscapes of great cultural diversity and richness Williams brings the country to life through his own travel experiences from living with Northern Alliance Uzbek warlords to working on a major NATO base National heroes are introduced Afghanistan s varied ethnic groups are explored key battles both ancient and current are retold and this land that many see as only a frightening setting for prolonged war emerges in three dimensions Blood on the Lens Jim Burroughs,2007-10 A personal journey from naivete to awareness in an ancient land of stark beauty and wartime devastation Revolutions and Rebellions in Afghanistan M. Nazif Shahrani,Robert L. Canfield,2022-11-01 When originally published in 1984 Revolutions and Rebellions in Afghanistan provided the first focused consideration of the 1978 Saur Revolution and the subsequent Soviet invasion and occupation of the country Nearly four decades later its conclusions remain crucial to understanding Afghanistan today In this much anticipated re release Revolutions and Rebellions in Afghanistan offers an opportunity for fresh insight into the antecedents of the nation s enduring conflicts A new foreword by editors M Nazif Shahrani and Robert L Canfield contextualizes this collection which relies on extensive fieldwork in the years leading up to the Soviet invasion Specific tribal ethnic and gender groups are considered within the context of their region and contributors discuss local responses to government decrees Islamic inspired grassroots activism and interpretations of jihad outside of Kabul Long recognized as a vital ethnographic text in Afghan studies Revolutions and Rebellions in Afghanistan provides an extraordinary chance to experience the diversity of the Afghan people on the cusp of irrevocable change and to understand what they expected of the years ahead Chasing Tales Corinne Fowler,2007-01-01 Chasing Tales is the first exclusive study of journalism travel writing and the history of British ideas about Afghanistan It offers a timely investigation of the notional Afghanistan s that have prevailed in the popular British imagination Casting its net deep into the nineteenth century the study investigates the country s mythologisation by scrutinising travel narratives literary fiction and British news media coverage of the recent conflict in Afghanistan This highly topical book explores the legacy of nineteenth century paranoias and prejudices to contemporary travellers and journalists and seeks to explain why Afghans continue to be depicted as medieval murderous warlike and unruly Its title Chasing Tales conveys the circulation and indeed the circularity of ideas commonly found in British travel writing and journalism The tales component stresses the pivotal role played by fictionalised sources especially the writing of Rudyard Kipling in perpetuating traumatic nineteenth century memories of Afghan British encounter The subject matter is compelling and its foci of interest profoundly relevant both to current political debates and to scholarly enquiry about the ethics of travel Afghanistan 101 Ehsan M.

Entezar,2008-01-04 Afghanistan 101 is an introduction to Afghan culture More specifically this dimensional analysis discusses Power Distance PD Uncertainty Avoidance UA Individualism IND and Masculinity MAS in the Afghan national culture These dimensions are based on the work of the well known Dutch anthropologist Geert Hofstede The manifestations of these cultural dimensions explain the attitudes and actions of Afghans Each chapter on dimensions also includes a section where the implications of a particular dimension are pointed out to the Westerner working in Afghanistan Power Distance the first dimension of culture describes the relationship between a less powerful person and a more powerful one As Afghanistan is on the high side of PD social power is coercive in Afghanistan One comes to power by force and is ousted by force wealth and power are inseparable decision making is autocratic and consultative expert power does not carry much weight age and charisma are important and in Afghanistan it is the authority of the person rather than the authority of position or rule that counts most Uncertainty avoidance the second dimension involves dealing with fear and ambiguity fear of nature fear of other men and fear of the supernatural UA is negatively related to PD A high PD society is on the low side of UA Cultures use three methods to deal with fear and ambiguity law technology and religion Being on the low side of UA Afghans rely heavily on Islam to reduce fear and uncertainty because they cannot rely on technology or the rule of law The fundamental religious beliefs that help Afghans cope with fear and uncertainty are 1 life in this world temporary 2 the source of both good and evil is God and 3 God is just and will punish the oppressors and evil doers in this world and in the next Individualism versus collectivism the third dimension of culture relates to the relationship of an individual to a collectivity In nonindividualistic societies such as Afghanistan one's loyalty and devotion is first and foremost to the family ethnic or other collectivity rather than to the country as a whole Such loyalties are characteristic of nonnation states and are best explained as Afghan nationalism that is based on ethnicity sect region and ideology Afghanistan is not and has never been a nation state In a nation state people rally around the constitution the flag the national anthem and other such symbols instead of their ethnicity sect region ideology and so on Furthermore a nation state is based on the rule of law checks and balances human rights freedom of the press political parties free and fair elections accountability and transparency The concept of a nation state is a Western phenomenon although the roots of a nation state are deep in some Islamic countries shallow in others and nonexistent in others Turkey the first Islamic country to have become a nation state falls into the first category whereas Afghanistan into the last For Afghanistan to move in the direction of becoming a nation state some type of federalism may be the only way to prevent further ethnic conflict and another civil war Masculinity the fourth dimension of culture describes the degree to which there is a gender gap within a culture Afghanistan is on the high side of MAS As such sex roles are set in the family and are reinforced in the schools workplace and other social organizations In general males are taught to be assertive and females nurturing In Afghan society male assertiveness generally involves aggressiveness bravery endurance leadership power dominance and independence Female nurturance on the other hand is characterized by submissiveness patience tenderness and affection It is Islamic fundamentalism and Afghan cultural tradition rather than mainstream Islam that limits the rights

Female Narratives of Protest Nabanita Sengupta, Samrita Sengupta Sinha, 2023-12-01 This book explores the complex assemblage of biopolitics citizenship ethics and human rights concerns in South Asia focusing specifically on women poets writers and artists and their explorations on marginalisation violence and protest The book traces the origins varied historiographies and socio political consequences of women s protests and feminist discourses Bringing together narratives of the Landais from Afghanistan voices from Pakistan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Miya women poets writing from Assam and stories of Dalit and queer women across the region it analyses the diverse modes of women s protests and their ethical and humanitarian cartographies The volume highlights the reconfiguration of female voices of protest in contemporary literature and popular culture in South Asia and the formation of closely knit female communities of solidarity cooperation and collective political action The book will be of interest to students and researchers of gender studies literature cultural studies sociology minority and indigenous studies and South Asian studies

Blood Revenge in Irregular Warfare Roberto Colombo, Emil Souleimanov, 2023-03-15 This book offers an original assessment of the ways in which the sociocultural code of blood revenge and its modern remnants shape irregular warfare Despite being a common driver of communal violence blood revenge has received little attention from scholars With many civil wars and insurgencies occurring in areas where the custom lingers strengthening our understanding of blood revenge is essential for discerning how conflicts change and evolve Drawing upon extensive multidisciplinary evidence this book is the first in the literature on civil war and insurgency to analyse the impact of blood revenge and its modern remnants on irregular warfare Even when blood revenge undergoes erosion its unregulated version still shapes the social fabric of insurgency although in different ways than its institutionalised counterpart At times of political instability the presence of a culture of retaliation weighs heavily on the dynamics of violent mobilisation target selection recruitment and disengagement This book brings in evidence from dozens of conflicts providing unprecedented insights into how a better understanding of blood revenge can improve military blueprints for irregular warfare This book will be of much interest to students of insurgency terrorism military and strategic studies anthropology and sociology as well as to decision makers and irregular warfare professionals

Islam in Tribal Societies Akbar S. Ahmed, 2013-10-16 A lively debate is currently being conducted in the social sciences around the concepts of tribe segmentary societies and Islam in society This wide ranging collection by thirteen distinguished anthropologists contributes to the debate by examining various segmentary Islamic tribal societies from Morocco to Pakistan

The Hungry World Nick Cullather, 2011-04-01 Food was a critical front in the Cold War battle for Asia Where Communism goes hunger follows was the slogan of American nation builders who fanned out into the countryside to divert rivers remodel villages and introduce tractors chemicals and genes to multiply the crops consumed by millions This green revolution has been credited with averting Malthusian famines saving billions of lives and jump starting Asia s economic revival Bono and Bill Gates hail it as a model for revitalizing Africa's economy But this tale of science triumphant conceals a half century of political struggle from the Afghan highlands to the rice paddies of the Mekong Delta a campaign to transform rural societies by changing the way people eat and grow food The ambition to lead Asia into an age of plenty grew alongside development theories that targeted hunger as a root cause of war Scientific agriculture was an instrument for molding peasants into citizens with modern attitudes loyalties and reproductive habits But food policies were as contested then as they are today While Kennedy and Johnson envisioned Kansas style agribusiness guarded by strategic hamlets Indira Gandhi Marcos and Suharto inscribed their own visions of progress onto the land Out of this campaign the costliest and most sustained effort for development ever undertaken emerged the struggles for resources and identity that define the region today As Obama revives the lost arts of Keynesianism and counter insurgency the history of these colossal projects reveals bitter and important lessons for today's missions to feed a hungry world
