African Christianity Paul Gifford, 1998 This text analyzes African Christianity in the mid 1990s against the background of the continent's current social economic and political circumstances Paul Gifford employs concepts taken from political economy to shed light on the current dynamics of African churches and churchgoers and assesses their different contributions in political developments since 1989 He also evaluates the Churches role in promoting a civil society in Africa Four detailed case studies Ghana Uganda Zambia and Cameroon cover all strands of Christianity Catholic Evangelical mainline Protestant Pentecostal and Independent These serve as detailed analyses of the state of the churches in each country and suggest more general patterns operating widely across sub Saharan Africa African Christianity Paul Gifford, 2001 Christianity and Public Culture in Africa Harri Englund, 2011-04-26 Christianity and Public Culture in Africa takes the reader beyond Africa's apparent exceptionalism African Christians have created new publics often in ways that offer fresh insights into the symbolic and practical boundaries separating the secular and the sacred the private and the public and the liberal and the illiberal Critical reason and Christian convictions have combined in surprising ways when African Christians have engaged with vital public issues such as national constitutions and gender relations and with literary imaginings and controversies over tradition and HIV AIDS The contributors demonstrate how the public significance of Christianity varies across time and place They explore rural Africa and the continent's major cities and colonial and missionary situations as well as mass mediated ideas and images in the twenty first century They also reveal the plurality of Pentecostalism in Africa and keep in view the continent's continuing denominational diversity Students and scholars will find these topical studies to be impressive in scope Contributors Barbara M Cooper Harri Englund Marja Hinfelaar Nicholas Kamau Goro Birgit Meyer Michael Perry Kweku Okyerefo Damaris Parsitau Ruth Prince James A Pritchett Ilana van Wyk

Forster, H. Jurgens Hendriks, 2020-04-30 Africa needs leaders and Christians from every walk of life to rediscover their identity and purpose in all spheres of society African Public Theology sounds a clarion call to accomplish this vital task God created all humans equally intending for us to live in community and take responsibility for the world around us a mandate we need to act on Through faithful application of Scripture to contexts common in the continent today contributors from across Africa join as one to present a vision for the Africa that God intended No simplistic solutions are offered instead African Public Theology challenges every reader to think through the application of biblical principles in their own community place of work and sphere of influence If we heed the principles and lessons that God's word has for society culture and public life then countries across Africa can have hope of a future that is free from corruption and self promotion and is instead characterized by collective stewardship and servant hearted leadership

Christianity and Controversies over Homosexuality in Contemporary Africa Ezra Chitando, Adriaan van Klinken, 2016-05-12 Issues of homosexuality are the subject of public and political controversy in many African societies today Frequently these controversies receive widespread attention both locally and globally such as with the Anti Homosexuality Bill in Uganda In the international media these cases tend to be presented as revealing a deeply rooted homophobia in Africa fuelled by religious and cultural traditions But so far little energy is expended in understanding these controversies in all their complexity and the critical role religion plays in them Complementing the companion volume Public Religion and the Politics of Homosexuality in Africa this book investigates Christian politics and discourses on homosexuality in sub Saharan Africa The contributors present case studies from various African countries from Nigeria to South Africa and from Cameroon to Uganda focusing on Pentecostal Catholic and mainline Protestant churches They critically examine popular Christian theologies that perpetuate homophobia and discrimination but they also discuss contestations of such discourses and emerging alternative Christian perspectives that contribute to the recognition of sexual diversity social justice and human rights in contemporary Africa

Re-Imaging Modernity Gregg A. Okesson, 2012-10-03 This is a book about Christianity in one particular region in Kenya It walks into churches listens to sermons dances to music and interviews the people sitting in the pews all with the aim of understanding how spiritual power enables these churches to function as agents within their contemporary society Ecclesiastical communities in Africa draw upon divine power in order to engage in modernity related topics Humans are not unresponsive to global flows of meaning they are integrative agents who fashion their world by living in it The kind of modernity arising from these churches does not blindly follow Western forms but flows from its own internal logic in which spiritual power occupies central hermeneutical function Theological resources contribute to the formation of sociological expressions Divine power pertains directly to human constructs which then allows the churches to actively image God for the development of unique forms of modernity arising on the continent

The Changing Face of Christianity Lamin Sanneh, Joel A. Carpenter, 2005-03-10 Over the past century Christianity's place and role in the world have changed dramatically In 1900 80 percent of the world's Christians lived in Europe and North America Today more than 60 percent of the world's Christians live outside of that region This change calls for a reexamination of the way the story of Christianity is told the methodological tools for its analysis and its modes of expression Perhaps most significant is the role of Africa as the new Christian heartland The questions and answers about Christianity and its contemporary mission now being developed in the African churches will have enormous influence in the years to come This volume offers nine new essays addressing this sea change and its importance for the future of Christianity Some contributions consider the development of non Western forms of Christianity others look at the impact of these new Christianities in the West The authors cover a wide range of topics from the integration of witchcraft and Christianity in Nigeria and the peacemaking role of churches in Mozambique to the American Baptist reception of Asian Christianity The Changing Face of Christianity shows the striking cultural differences between the new world Christianity and its western counterpart But with so many new immigrants in Europe and North America the faith's fault lines are not purely geographical The new Christianity now thrives in American and European settings and northerners need to know this faith better At stake is their ability to be good neighbors and perhaps to be good Christian citizens of the world

African Pentecostalism Ogbu Kalu,2008-03-31 Across Africa Christianity is thriving in all shapes and sizes But one particular strain of Christianity prospers more than most Pentecostalism Pentecostals believe that everyone can personally receive the gifts of the Holy Spirit such as prophecy or the ability to speak in tongues In Africa this kind of faith in which the supernatural is a daily presence is sweeping the continent Today about 107 million Africans are Pentecostals and the numbers continue to rise In this book Ogbu Kalu provides the first ever overview of Pentecostalism in Africa He shows the amazing diversity of the faith which flourishes in many different forms in diverse local contexts While most people believe that Pentecostalism was brought to Africa and imposed on its people by missionaries Kalu argues emphatically that this is not the case Throughout the book he demonstrates that African Pentecostalism is distinctly African in character not imported from the West With an even handed approach Kalu presents the religion s many functions in African life Rather than shying away from controversial issues like the role of money and prosperity in the movement Kalu describes malpractice when he sees it The only book to offer a comprehensive look at African Pentecostalism this study touches upon the movement s identity the role of missionaries media and popular culture women ethics Islam and immigration The resulting work will prove invaluable to anyone interested in Christianity outside the West

Christian Churches and Nigeria's Political Economy of Oil and Conflict Nkem Emerald Osuigwe,2014-09-18 The received account on African evangelical Christianity regarding social witness in a section of Western scholarship is that it is anti development and a political Such an account heavily draws from an instrumentalist and functionalist assessment of such Christianity without recourse to its emic perspective Using the case study method this book presents an ethnographic examination of this functionalist reading by investigating describing and analysing evangelical Christian theological and socio political consciousness within the context of oil and conflict in Nigeria s Niger Delta region Adopting approaches from practical theology congregational studies and anthropology of religion the author challenges such a reading using data gathered from three congregations in the region His discourse revolves around answers to the following four critical questions What are the underlying theological issues and beliefs of Nigerian evangelical Christians within the context of oil and conflict What is their prevalent praxis within the context of Nigeria s political economy of oil and conflict How accurate is the received account that African evangelical and fundamentalist Christianity lacks social responsibility and is a political and anti development What would a contextual political theology for Nigeria s political economy of oil look like The theological issues are varied and the prevalent praxis nuanced which then serves as a veritable critique of the claim that African evangelical Christianity lacks social responsibility due to its preoccupation with soul winning Whereas such Christianity places much emphasis on the winning of souls as an expression of its spirituality it is neither oblivious nor indifferent to its socio political milieu Rather it sees such spirituality as a form of political praxis Some of the trajectories of the spirituality include a theology of conversion a theology of prayer and an ethics of crude oil with Total Freedom as the nomenclature for the specific theological perspective offered for Nigeria s political economy of oil While locating this theological perspective within the taxonomy of Liberation Theology the affinity and dissonance between the two are identified
