How to Think About the Great Ideas Mortimer Adler, 2000-03-01 Time magazine called Mortimer J. Adler a philosopher for everyman. In this guide to considering the big questions, Adler addresses the topics all men and women ponder in the course of life, such as: What is love? How do we decide the right thing to do? and What does it mean to be good? Drawing on his extensive knowledge of Western literature, history, and philosophy, the author considers what is meant by democracy, law, emotion, language, truth, and other abstract concepts in light of more than two millennia of Western civilization and discourse. Adler's essays offer a remarkable and contemplative distillation of the Great Ideas of Western Thought. The Nature of

Love Thomas Jay Oord, 2010-04-01 God is love Consequently shouldn't love exist at the center of Christian theology When love is at the center theology is understood differently than it has typically been understood Some theologians have placed faith at the center others God's sovereignty still others the Church but Dr Oord places the emphasis on love God's love for us revealed in Christ in the Church and in creation and our love for God and others as ourselves must be afforded its rightful place Beginning with the foundation of love is what differentiates the Christian faith from others a loving God Dr Oord defines love as To love is to act intentionally in sympathetic empathetic response to God and others to promote overall well being Is this not what has defined Christians throughout history Alphatopbetics: Volume One:: Ideas We Live with and Live by Every Day of Our Life Jerry Dampier, 2017-04-17 Alphatopbetics Ideas We Live With and Live by Every Day of Our Life is a book inspired by the study of psychology theology history science and especially philosophy Influenced by the Greek philosophers Socrates Plato and Aristotle Jerry Dampier has combined life experience and informal discussions to arrive at the basis of Alphatopbetics The ideas written about in this book are not just research based although I have done extensive research over four or five years the ideas I have written about are ideas in which I have had many conversations the discussions or conversations were held with family and relatives friends and acquaintances academicians or college professors and classmates They along with the research I have put into this book have helped me to write it A study of the Christian idea of love Anders Nygren, 1932 Evolutionary Love and the Ravages of Greed Adam Crabtree, 2017-09-14 The widespread turmoil in the human community today is a symptom of the dominance of unchecked desire or Greed This book distinguishes two ancient concepts of love the Greek ideas of agape and eros and explores how agape the driver of evolution when put into play through the harmonious action of eros displays the true essence of love Evolutionary Love that alone is the antidote to the ravages of Greed The Distinctive Ideas of the Old Testament Norman Henry Snaith, 1946

Love and Justice as Competences Luc Boltanski, 2012-07-16 People care a great deal about justice They protest and engage in confrontations with others when their sense of justice is affronted or disturbed When they do this they don't generally act in a strategic or calculating way but use arguments that claim a general validity Disputes are commonly regulated by these regimes of justice implicit in everyday social life But justice is not the only regime that governs action There are some actions that are selfless and gratuitous and that belong to what might be called a regime of peace or love In the course of their everyday lives people constantly move back and forth between these two regimes that of justice and that of love And everyone also has the capacity for violence which arises when the regulation of action within either of these regimes breaks down In Love and Justice as Competences Boltanski lays out this highly original framework for analysing the action of individuals as they pursue their day to day lives The framework outlined in this important book is the basis for the path breaking work that he has developed over the last twenty years work that has examined the moral foundations of society in and through the forms of everyday conflict For anyone who wants to understand what a critical sociology might mean today this book is an essential text The Secret Battle of Ideas about God Participant's Guide Jeff Myers, 2017-08-01 This seven week participant's guide helps readers dig deeper and strengthen their faith as they learn how ideas from the five fatal worldviews can infect their faith. Readers will understand more about Secularism, Marxism, Islam, New Spirituality, and Postmodernism and how their faith can be affected by the ideas these worldviews spread. Designed to be used alongside the book and DVD, this interactive guide gives readers tools to establish a strong biblical worldview W. H. Auden, a Poet of Ideas Narsingh Srivastava, 1978 The Ultimate Evidence Larry Vern Newman, 2009-01-01 It is quite an assertion to claim that one is filled with the Spirit of God. What does a person offer as proof that this is actually true? Pentecostals at the turn of the twentieth century read the Bible, debated the issue, and then proposed an evidence they thought the scriptures indicated was the primary verification of Spirit baptism. It was determined that the evidence to prove one had been baptized with the Holy Spirit was that the person had spoken in an unknown language as prompted by the Holy Spirit. The primary evidence of Spirit baptism, it was concluded, was the expression of a charism. It was charismatic. In The Ultimate Evidence, Larry Newman argues that the initial evidence doctrine as it stands is inadequate and needs to be revisited and adjusted. Without discrediting or devaluing speaking in tongues, Newman points the reader to the ultimate evidence of Spirit baptism: the more excellent way. Gathering from historical, cultural, and biblical sources, Dr. Newman argues that the biblical evidential paradigm is ethical and issues forth from the agape of the Cross. It is the ethical dimension of the Christian life that is primary. In 1 Cor 13:1, Paul wrote, "If I speak in the tongues of men and of angels but have not love, I am only a resounding gong or a clanging cymbal." Research in the Social Scientific Study of Religion, Volume 32, 2022-05-16 The present volume brings together scholars from all over the world in an open section and three special sections that explore how lesser heard and unheard voices may be studied. Special section 1: Religion in Higher Education interrogates lived experiences of religion in higher education contexts and how certain voices are marginalised and minoritised. Special section 2: Cultural Blindness in Psychology explores how culture as a lived experience, especially in its religious dimension, is rendered invisible in psychological science. Finally, special section 3, entitled Religious Authority in Practice in Contemporary Evangelical Charismatic and Pentecostal Christianity, outlines evangelicalism and introduces authority as a sociological concept from various theoretical perspectives.
