Brilliant Effects Marcia R. Pointon, 2009 Pointon examines how small scale and valuable artefacts have figured in systems of belief and in political and social practice in Europe since the Renaissance Female Gothic Histories Diana Wallace, 2013-03-30 Female Gothic Histories traces the development of women's Gothic historical fiction from Sophia Lee's The Recess in the late eighteenth century through the work of Elizabeth Gaskell Vernon Lee Daphne du Maurier and Victoria Holt to the bestselling novels of Sarah Waters in the twenty first century Often left out of traditional historical narratives women writers have turned to Gothic historical fiction as a mode of writing which can both reinsert them into history and symbolise their exclusion This study breaks new ground in bringing together thinking about the Gothic and the historical novel and in combining psychoanalytic theory with historical contextualisation Exploited, Empowered, Ephemeral Denise Burkhard, 2023-07-10 Childhood in neo Victorian fiction for both child and adult readers is an extremely multifaceted and fascinating field This book argues that neo Victorian fiction projects multiple competing visions of childhood and suggests that they can be analysed by means of a typology the childhood scale which provides different categories along the lines of power relations and literary possible worlds theory The usefulness of both is exemplified by detailed discussions of Philippa Pearce's Tom's Midnight Garden 1958 Eva Ibbotson's Journey to the River Sea 2001 Sarah Waters' Fingersmith 2002 and Dianne Setterfield's The Thirteenth Tale 2006 Growing Up a Woman Milena Kaličanin, Soňa Šnircová, 2015-10-13 This book explores contemporary transformations of the female Bildungsroman showing that the intersection of the genre and gender brought to critical attention in the context of second wave feminism remains of equal importance in the era of postfeminism The female Bildung narrative has acquired an important position in twentieth and twenty first century literature through its continuing depiction of female self discovery and emancipation as a process of negotiating the traditional divisions of female and male roles in relation to the private and public spaces Recognizing the seminal contribution of feminist criticism to the definition of the genre and the role of feminist cultural processes in its thematic developments this volume investigates more recent influences on the female Bildung narrative and the influence of the classic female Bildungsroman on contemporary cultural texts As a collection of fifteen essays written by international scholars the book offers a representative sample of the narratives of female development presenting a variety of genres including the novel the short story autobiography TV series and Internet video blogs and theoretical frameworks adopting hermeneutic postcolonial feminist and postfeminist perspectives In its diversity this volume reveals that despite the ongoing process of women's emancipation the heroine's struggle with the private/public divide has remained throughout the twentieth century and in the first decades of the new millennium a central issue in stories about the female quest for self-definition. The book will be of interest to scholars and students in the fields of literary women and gender studies particularly those interested in the narratives of female development that represent American and British cultural contexts.
