News from Moscow Simon Huxtable,2022-04-14 News from Moscow is a social and cultural history of Soviet journalism after World War II Focusing on the youth newspaper Komsomol'skaya Pravda the study draws on transcripts of behind the scenes editorial meetings to chart the changing professional ethos of the Soviet journalist Simon Huxtable shows how journalists viewed themselves both as propagandists bringing the Party's ideas to the wider public but also as reformers who tried to implement new ideas that would help usher the country towards Communism The volume focuses on both aspects of the journalists role from propaganda editorials in praise of Comrade Stalin and articles lauding young heroes exploits in the Virgin Lands to revolutionary new initiatives such as the country's first ever polling institute and clubs promoting the virtues of unfettered public debate Soviet journalism argues Huxtable was riven with an unresolvable tension between innovation and conservatism the more journalists tried to promote new innovations to perfect Soviet society the more officials grew anxious about the disruptive consequences of reform By demonstrating the day to day conflicts that characterised the press's activity and by showing that the production of Soviet propaganda involved much more than redrafting orders from above News from Moscow offers a new perspective on Soviet propaganda that expands our understanding of the possibilities and limits of reform in a period of rapid change A Critical Cinema 3 Scott MacDonald,1998 This sequel to A Critical Cinema offers a new collection of interviews with independent filmmakers that is a feast for film fans and film historians Scott MacDonald reveals the sophisticated thinking of these artists regarding film politics and contemporary gender issues The interviews explore the careers of Robert Breer Trinh T Minh ha James Benning Su Friedrich and Godfrey Reggio Yoko Ono discusses her cinematic collaboration with John Lennon Michael Snow talks about his music and films Anne Robertson describes her cinematic diaries Jonas Mekas and Bruce Baillie recall the New York and California avant garde film culture The selection has a particularly strong group of women filmmakers including Yvonne Rainer Laura Mulvey and Lizzie Borden Other notable artists are Anthony McCall Andrew Noren Ross McElwee Anne Severson and Peter Watkins Retail Space Europe Yearbook 2008 ,2008 Rockin' the Classics and Classicizin' the Rock: Janell R. Duxbury,2001-02-05 Rock music of all varieties has been influenced by classical music and vice versa both in the form of direct quotes and in the form of borrowings of style composition and instrumentation The average listener may be unaware of the many links between rock music and the classics One might remember a few examples such as Walter Murphy's chart topping A Fifth of Beethoven or Eric Carmen's All by Myself but pass them off as interesting anomalies However the influence of the classics on rock music is pervasive and grows from a long line of precedents This second supplement to Janell R Duxbury's original 1985 discography Rockin the Classics and Classicizin the Rock brings the earlier work and first supplement up to date with hundreds of new entries documenting recently released or newly discovered examples of the interconnection between these musical genres

Duxbury details nearly 700 new examples of recorded rock instrumentals and songs that borrow musical themes from the classics. Variations range from contemporary renditions of complete classical works to brief classical quotes or phrases subtly incorporated into rock compositions. Duxbury also gives additional examples of recorded orchestral versions of songs originally composed and/or written by rock artists. In these examples the musical style varies from strict classical interpretations to pop style orchestral renditions. The second supplement then expands Duxbury's original compilation of sound recordings and live performances of rock groups performing with established orchestras and choruses. Selected samples of recorded rock music that simulate baroque or classical sound structure examples of the manifest influence of rock on classical music and instances of rock artists and classical artists switching roles. Lastly, this discography updates the 1985 version and the first supplement with new information, expanded details, and minor corrections to the earlier works. An extended list of selected non-rock background examples is included in several new appendixes. The Preface is updated. A general index includes the names of classical composers, rock artists and groups, orchestras, choruses, orchestra conductors, sound recording producers, and song or instrumental titles. With its incomparable scope and content, this supplement together with Duxbury's previous discography and its first supplement will be appreciated by students, researchers, record collectors, trivia buffs, music industry employees, and fans of rock music and the classics. Palace of Treason Jason

Matthews, 2017-06-13 Captain Dominika Egorova of the Russian Intelligence Service SVR has returned from the West to Moscow. She despises the men she serves: the oligarchs and crooks and thugs of Putin's Russia. What no one knows is that Dominika is working for the CIA as Washington's most sensitive penetration of SVR and the Kremlin. As she expertly dodges exposure, Dominika deals with a murderously psychotic boss, survives an Iranian assassination attempt, escapes a counterintelligence ambush, rescues an arrested agent, and exfiltrates him out of Russia and has a chilling midnight conversation in her nightgown with President Putin. Complicating these risks is the fact that Dominika is in love with her CIA handler Nate Nash, and their lust is as dangerous as committing espionage in Moscow. And when a mole in the SVR finds Dominika's name on a restricted list of sources, it is a virtual death sentence.
