determination was able to take an alternative path in life Her personal story is retold in countless variations through her novels Although she did write several autobiographies and books specifically about her own life each Cookson novel replicates the tale of a heroine who is disadvantaged in some way by the circumstances of her birth and goes on to succeed through hard work and personal conviction Although Cookson wrote her first story at the age of 11 she did not embrace writing as a career until she was in her 40s and it wasn't until some ten years later that she finally began to enjoy the financial benefits

Blessed with silver blond braids and a lighthearted disposition, Annie enjoys a life her mother never had. She is surrounded by material comforts and a loving family protected from the poverty and shame her mother endured in the slums. But as Cookson fans have come to expect, no good life can go unmarred by heartache. Annie grows into a beautiful young woman and soon she draws the interest of both friends and neighbors. She falls in love with Terence Macbane, the elusive boy next door. But there are those who would keep them apart. Her childhood friend Brian Stannard is determined to have her for himself, and her more worldly rival Cathleen Davidson harbors a bitter jealousy that will prove dangerous to all. Tormented by unrequited love, the revelation of her own illegitimacy, and the demands of her deep-seated faith, Annie discovers that sometimes love is not enough; she must fight for what she wants.
