of Lojong Traleg Kyabgon, 2007-04-10 A comprehensive guide to lojong a Buddhist practice used for centuries to develop loving kindness and compassion made popular by Pema Chodron and Chogyam Trungpa For many centuries Indian and Tibetan Buddhists have employed this collection of pithy penetrating Dharma slogans to develop compassion equanimity lovingkindness and joy for others Known as the lojong or mind training teachings these slogans have been the subject of deep study contemplation and commentary by many great masters In this volume Traleg Kyabgon offers a fresh translation of the slogans as well as in depth new commentary of each After living among and teaching Westerners for over twenty years his approach is uniquely insightful into the ways that the slogans could be misunderstood or misinterpreted within our culture Here he presents a refreshing and clarifying view which seeks to correct points of confusion , The Essential Jewel of Holy Practice O-rgyan-'jigs-med-chos-kyi-dbang-po (Dpal-sprul), 2017-11-14 Patrul Rinpoche 1808 1887 was one of the most important Dzogchen teachers in nineteenth century Tibet His lineage comprises many of the greatest Dzogchen teachers of the twentieth century The Essential Jewel is among his most beautiful compositions although it may not be his best known The poem synthesizes Madhyamaka philosophy and the Dzogchen perspective in a compelling admonition to engage in religious practice aimed at self perfection The Essential Jewel is an extraordinary poetic work Patrul Rinpoche's voice is urgent personal compelling and expressed for the most part in direct earthy language although it is also replete with precise technical terminology The Essential Jewel is also philosophically profound It draws on ideas grounded in Madhyamaka philosophy and Buddhist ethical theory as well as ideas and practices central to the Dzogchen tradition Patrul Rinpoche's genius lies in part in his unique ability to articulate a precise philosophical vision in an accessible poetic voice and to do this in the context in an urgent admonition to practice This translation aims to present this poem in a way that reflects Patrul Rinpoche's poetic voice with sufficient precision to convey his philosophical ideas It provides an introduction that should give the reader a foundation to read the poem as well as explanatory notes at points where the poem contains references or terminology that may not be accessible to the Western reader Religious Identity and the Problem of Historical Foundation Judith Frishman, Willemien Otten, Gerard Rouwhorst, 2004-02-01 The essays collected in this book deal with the question how throughout the history of Christianity Christian communities have tried to construct their identity by anchoring their views in authoritative and normative sources The main focus is upon the problem of historical foundation through textual traditions but other authoritative sources role of religious leaders ritual traditions are taken into consideration as well The book takes as its point of departure the fact that with the rise of modernity the former dependence of western church and society on authoritative sources was called into question Ever since appeal to such sources is no longer self evident at times it is even regarded as problematic Based on this radical change brought about by modernity the book is divided in two main parts The first part deals with the question how Christian churches and confessions Roman Catholic and Protestant confronted modernity and which role was played by authoritative sources in the tradition to the modern era Special attention will be paid to the way in which Judaism reacted to many of the same impulses both societal and religious ones The second part deals with the premodern period from early Christianity to the post Reformation era and focuses on the role authoritative traditions textual or otherwise have played in providing various Christian communities with a relative stable identity The aim of the book is to elucidate processes resulting in the formation of authoritative traditions as well as the effects of these traditions on the identity of Christian and Jewish communities In addition the book attempts to clarify the various ways in which Christian and Jewish communities have reacted to the growing suspicion authoritative traditions aroused in the western world since the rise of modernity The Spirit of Tibetan Buddhism Sam van Schaik, 2016-05-28

IV, Shechen Gyaltsap Gyurme Pema Namgyal, 2022-01-11 A unique commentary on the preliminary practices of Vajrayana Buddhism from a beloved Nyingma master A Chariot to Freedom is one of the most beloved presentations of the preliminary practices or ng ndro that form the foundation of the Vajrayana Buddhist path This set of practices common to all schools of Himalayan Buddhism is what nearly every practitioner begins with yet it also constitutes a complete method in and of itself. Although ng ndro are considered a prerequisite for further teachings and initiations into other practices many of even the most accomplished masters continue to engage in them every day. Most of the other excellent works on these foundational techniques are specific to a particular tradition but this text is widely considered to be exemplary in part because it is applicable to all traditions of ng ndro. Drawing from the original words of the Buddha in the s tras and from later treatises by such masters as N g rjuna Sh ntideva and Guru Padmasambhava, Shechen Gyaltsap's commentary is a wonderfully curated anthology of Buddhist teachings on the preliminary practices of Vajrayana Buddhism. It covers the thoughts that turn one's mind away from ordinary pursuits and toward enlightenment, taking refuge, arousing the mind set on enlightenment, bodhichitta, purification, mala offering, and Guru Yoga. Shechen Gyaltsap explains why each practice is beneficial and provides profound and eminently useful guidance for practitioners while simultaneously transmitting the wisdom of generations of Buddhist masters.

The Precious Treasury of the Fundamental Nature Longchenpa, Khangsar Tenpa'i Wangchuk, 2022-02-01. The first and only commentary on the Buddhist master Longchenpa's essential text on Dzogchen by modern scholar and Nyingma master Khangsar Khenpo Tenpa i Wangchuk. Longchen Rabjam 1308-1363, also known as Longchenpa, is a great luminary of Tibetan Buddhism. Regarded as a master of Dzogchen or Great Perfection, Longchenpa's prolific writings have made him one of Tibet's most renowned and precious teachers. In clear and elegant verse, Longchenpa's Precious Treasury of the Fundamental Nature establishes the definitive view of the ultimate nature of mind according to the secret class of pith instructions of the Great Perfection. Aside from the auto-commentary composed by Longchenpa himself in the fourteenth century, the first and only commentary ever to have been written on this work was composed in the twentieth century by Khangsar Khenpo Tenpa i Wangchuk, a teacher, scholar, and preserver of Buddhist monastic and scholarly culture in Tibet. This work marks the first step in translating the collected works of this modern Nyingma master. In this commentary, Khangsar Khenpo guides Dzogchen practitioners to experience and understand the phenomena of the outer world detected by the senses as well as the subjective mental and emotional states that apprehend them in order to bring the student to a recognition and stabilized experience of ultimate truth.
