

A person is swimming in the ocean, with only their head and one arm visible above the water. The background is a vast blue sky with some light clouds. The text is overlaid on this scene.

"You find a way,
somehow, to get through
the most horrible
things, things you think would kill you. You find a way and you move through the days, one by one, in shock, in despair,
but you move,
occasionally stunned,
and not entirely
relieved, to find that you are still alive."
