Literature Mohammad Rahmatullah, Tanu Gupta, Nagendra Kumar, 2025-09-30 In this textbook dark comedy is re imagined as an ecological instrument a volatile compound of irony grotesquerie and mischievous insight that exposes the carbonised scaffolding of late capitalist life Rather than sneering at catastrophe the chapters anatomise the mechanics defamiliarising punch line carnival inversion affective whiplash by which humour slips past guard dogs and rouses an anaesthetised public The horizon against which this inquiry unfolds is the Capitalocene a name that indicts capitalism not Man as the principal geological agent of ruin Moving from Aristophanes to Atwood from street theatre to streaming satire each text shows laughter doing intellectual lifting In one moment it fractures complacent common sense in the next it stitches together circuits of feeling in which eco grief can transmute into civic resolve Juxtaposed with the authority of tragic form dark comedy proves the more permeable solvent it dissolves cultural defences lets paradox breathe and leaves readers wondering how ecosystems became punch lines Methodologically the book is multidisciplinary Literary tangles with environmental philosophy humour theory quarrels with eco Marxism cultural studies supplies the ethnographic grit that keeps abstraction honest By braiding those strands the argument departs from standard ecocritical curricula insisting that jokes are not side shows but catalytic sites where ethics affect and political economy collide Designed for advanced undergraduates yet hospitable to researchers the volume refuses the consolations of easy optimism even as it gestures toward actionable hope Its wager is simple teach readers to hear the subversive crackle inside dark laughter and they may also learn to re script the damaged world that provokes it

Fictions of Dementia Susanne Katharina Christ, 2022-09-20 Taking its cues from both classical and post classical narratologies this study explores both forms and functions of the representation of dementia in Anglophone fictions Initially dementia is conceptualised as a narrative epistemological paradox The more those affected know what it is like to have dementia the less they can tell about it Narrative fiction is the only discourse that provides an imaginative glimpse at the subjective experience of dementia in language The narratological modelling of four narrative modes elaborates how the paradox becomes productive in fiction Depending on the narrative perspective taken but also on the type of narration the technique for representing consciousness and the epistemic strategy of narrating dementia the respective narrative modes come with different prerequisites and possibilities for narrating dementia The analysis of four contemporary Anglophone dementia fictions based on the developed model reveals their potential functions Fiction allows readers to learn about the challenges of dementia grants them perspective taking it trains cognitive flexibility and explores the meaning of memory knowledge narrative and imagination and thus also offers trajectories of a cultural coping with dementia
