This Connection of Everyone with Lungs Juliana Spahr, 2005-04 In a time of war dirty air missile worship when all oracles seem silenced from every eco lyric pore these fine auroras of This Connection of Everyone With Lungs have been streaming Registering 9 11 as cellular rupture this is a work of full globality which redeems our time makes us remember all that poetry is capable of as form frame syntax linking air earth lung what Emerson meant by lyric language as nothing less than externalization of planet s soul Rob Wilson author of Waking in Seoul By listing by naming the atrocities the harrowing stats the scary particulars in our world at endless war we might at least exert control over our sanity and extend our mind and compassion to others It is a connected universe as Spahr so forcefully and powerfully reminds us This Connection of Everyone with Lungs is a sustained and anaphoric meditation a catharsis for our predicament Anne Waldman American Poets in the 21st Century Claudia Rankine, Lisa Sewell, 2007-07-09 The ideal introduction to the current generation of American poets Affective Ecocriticism Kyle Bladow, Jennifer Ladino, 2018-11-01 Scholars of ecocriticism have long tried to articulate emotional relationships to environments Only recently however have they begun to draw on the complex interdisciplinary body of research known as affect theory Affective Ecocriticism takes as its premise that ecocritical scholarship has much to gain from the rich work on affect and emotion happening within social and cultural theory geography psychology philosophy queer theory feminist theory narratology and neuroscience among others This vibrant and important volume imagines a more affective and consequently more effective ecocriticism as well as a more environmentally attuned affect studies These interdisciplinary essays model a range of approaches to emotion and affect in considering a variety of primary texts including short story collections films poetry curricular programs and contentious geopolitical locales such as Canada s Tar Sands Several chapters deal skeptically with familiar environmentalist affects like love hope resilience and optimism others consider what are often understood as negative emotions such as anxiety disappointment and homesickness all with an eye toward reinvigorating or reconsidering their utility for the environmental humanities and environmentalism Affective Ecocriticism offers an accessible approach to this theoretical intersection that will speak to readers across multiple disciplinary and geographic locations The Contemporary Elegy in World Literature

Entanglements Corrinne Harol, Mark Simpson, 2017-01-01 In Literary Liberal Entanglements Corrinne Harol and Mark Simpson bring together ten essays by scholars from a wide range of fields in English studies in order to interrogate the complex entangled relationship between the history of literature and the history of liberalism The volume has three goals to investigate important episodes in the entanglement of literary history and liberalism to analyze the impact of this entanglement on the secular and democratic projects of modernity and thereby to reassess the dynamics of our neoliberal present The volume is organized into a series of paired essays with each pair investigating a concept central to both literature and liberalism acting socializing discriminating recounting and culturing Collectively the essays demonstrate the vivid capacity of literary study writ large to reckon with imagine and materialize durative accounts of history and politics Literary Liberal Entanglements models a method of literary history for the twenty first century The Cambridge

Companion to Twenty-First-Century American Poetry Timothy Yu, 2021-03-11 This book offers a comprehensive introduction to studying the diversity of American poetry in the twenty first century The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry Cary Nelson, 2012-02-16 The Oxford Handbook of Modern and Contemporary American Poetry gives readers a cutting edge introduction to the kaleidoscopic world of American poetry over the last century Offering a comprehensive approach to the debates that have defined the study of American verse the twenty five original essays contained herein take up a wide array of topics the influence of jazz on the Beats and beyond European and surrealist influences on style poetics of the disenfranchised religion and the national epic antiwar and dissent poetry the AIDS epidemic digital innovations transnationalism hip hop and more Alongside these topics major interpretive perspectives such as Marxist psychoanalytic disability queer and ecocritical are incorporated Throughout the names that have shaped American poetry in the period Ezra Pound Wallace Stevens Marianne Moore Mina Loy Sterling Brown Hart Crane William Carlos Williams Posey Langston Hughes Allen Ginsberg John Ashbery Rae Armantrout Larry Eigner and others serve as touchstones along the tour of the poetic landscape My Poetics Maureen N. McLane, 2024-04-29 This new collection from the acclaimed poet and critic Maureen McLane works in an innovative register of essayistic writing conversable yet grounded in scholarship close readerly but far seeing McLane's encounters with poems and modellings of poetry illuminate her own poetics and suggest more generally all that poetics can encompass With characteristic brilliance McLane pursues a number of open questions How do poems shape our condition and conditioning as sentient creatures How do they generate modes for thinking How does rhyme help us measure out thought What is the relation of poetry to its surround to the environment and how do specific poems activate that relation What is the difference between a poetry of finding rather than of inspiration And how should we understand poetries invested in the notational and others committed to projects as many contemporary poets are as Wordsworth was in his Prelude As these questions suggest My Poetics does not offer a brief for or against a position on poetry Instead its artful arrangement of readings and divagations and even occasionally verse show us a way to be with poems and poetics Pacific Literatures as World Literature Hsinya Huang, Chia-hua Yvonne Lin, 2023-05-04 Pacific

Literatures as World Literature is a conjuration of trans Pacific poets and writers whose work enacts forces of becoming oceanic and suggests a different mode of understanding viewing and belonging to the world The Pacific past and present remains uneasily amenable to territorial demarcations of national or marine sovereignty At the same time as a planetary element necessary to sustaining life and well being the Pacific could become the means to envisioning ecological solidarity if compellingly framed in terms that elicit consent and inspire an imagination of co belonging and care The Pacific can signify a bioregional site of coalitional promise as much as a danger zone of antagonistic peril With ground breaking writings from authors based in North America Japan Taiwan Korea Hawaii and Guam and new modes of research including multispecies ethnography and practice ecopoetics and indigenous cosmopolitics authors explore the socio political significance of the Pacific and contribute to the development of a collective effort of comparative Pacific studies covering a refreshingly broad ethnographically grounded range of research themes This volume aims to decenter continental land poetics as such via long standing transnational Pacific ties re worlding Pacific literature as world literature

Modernism's Other Work Lisa Siraganian, 2015 Modernism's Other Work challenges our view of relationships between aesthetic autonomy and the world of daily life a conjuncture that Lisa Siraganian demonstrates has often been misunderstood in critical studies of modernism Connecting poetry to the visual arts and politics the author provides new ways to think about modernist art's relationship

Radical Tenderness Andrea Brady, 2024-05-09 Radical Tenderness argues for the importance of poetry in negotiating political and social catastrophes through a focus on the unusual intimacies of committed writing How do poets negotiate between the personal and the public the bedroom and the street the family and class or communal ties How does contemporary lyric with its emphasis on the feelings and perceptions of the individual subject speak to moments of shared crisis What can poetry tell us about how care shapes our experiences of history How do the intimacies found in protest on strike in riots and in spaces of oppression transform individual lives and political movements Through a series of focussed readings of four twenty first century poets Caleb Femi Bhanu Kapil Juliana Spahr and Anne Boyer Radical Tenderness reflects the perspectives provided by intimate poetries on the shared political emergencies of poverty war ecological catastrophe racism and illness

Word of Mouth Chad Bennett, 2018-05-15 Word of Mouth brings together the insights of queer and lyric theory to tell the story of how gossip modeled forms of sociality and voice that poets experimented with over the course of the twentieth century Through a set of case studies of culturally diverse American poets Gertrude Stein Langston Hughes Frank O'Hara James Merrill and others who absorbed and contended with the loose talk that swirled about them and their work the book argues that gossip became a vehicle for the performance of alternative sexualities and concomitant meditations on alternative modes of poetic practice At the heart of this argument is a queer revaluation of modern lyric poetry Attending to gossip's key role in modern and contemporary poetry enables a recognition of the unpredictable ways that conventional understandings of the modern lyric poem as for example an utterance smudging the lines between private and public knowing and unknowing intimacy and strangeness have been shaped by and afforded a uniquely suitable space for the expression of queer sensibilities More than simply mapping a curious poetic mode then Word of Mouth contributes a crucial and largely neglected queer perspective to current lyric studies and its renewed scholarly debate over the practices and forms of lyric poetry The book presents new and instructive queer contexts for understanding the influential formal achievements of Stein Hughes O Hara and Merrill and uncovers the unexpected ways that the history of the modern lyric intertwines with histories of sexuality Innocence and Loss Cristina Alsina Rísquez,Cynthia

Stretch,2014-06-02 A fierce national outcry for righteously waging war has long dominated American culture From at least the wildly popular Spanish American War and the US military invasion of the Philippines that infuriated Mark Twain right up to the current Global War on Terrorism this is a deadly dark current coursing throughout American history Meanwhile dissenting analyses of the patriotic gore have until recently been paid scant attention in the popular media Delving into this history this probing collection of essays explores ways in which the compulsive redeployment of innocence in the launching cheering and retelling of America s wars endlessly defers a national reckoning as the editors astutely state in their introduction The works in this collection reflect an effort to add more voices where they are desperately needed The

Transformation Juliana Spahr,2007 Poetry Juliana Spahr has lived in many places including Chillicothe Ohio Buffalo New York Honolulu Hawaii and Brooklyn New York She has absorbed participated in and been transformed by the politics and ecologies of each This book is about that process THE TRANSFORMATION tells a barely truthful story of the years 1997 2001 a story of flora and fauna of continents islands academies connective tissue military and linguistic operations and of that ever present we to name only a few At once exhilarating challenging and humbling THE TRANSFORMATION is a hefty book in its honesty and scope a must read A Broken Thing Emily Rosko,Anton Vander Zee,2011-09-16 In the arena of poetry and poetics over the past century no idea has been more alive and contentious than the idea of form and no aspect of form has more emphatically sponsored this marked formal concern than the line But what exactly is the line Emily Rosko and Anton Vander Zee s anthology gives seventy original answers that lead us deeper into the world of poetry but also far out into the world at large its people its politics its ecology The authors included here emerging and established alike write from a range of perspectives in terms of both aesthetics and identity Together they offer a dynamic hybrid collection that captures a broad spectrum of poetic practice in the twenty first century Rosko and Vander Zee s introduction offers a generous overview of conversations about the line from the Romantics forward We come to see how the line might be an engine for ideals of progress political ethical or otherwise For some poets the line touches upon the most fundamental questions of knowledge and existence More than ever the line is the radical against which even alternate and emerging poetic forms that foreground the visual or the auditory the page or the screen can be distinguished and understood From the start a singular lesson emerges lines do not form meaning solely in their brevity or their length in their becoming or their brokenness lines live in and through the descriptions we give them Indeed the history of American poetry in the twentieth century could be told by the compounding and often confounding discussions of its lines A Broken Thing both reflects upon and extends this history charting a rich diffusion of theory and practice into the twenty first century with the most diverse wide ranging and engaging set of essays to date on the line in poetry revealing how poems work and why poetry continues to matter Placing Poetry Ian Davidson, Zoë Skoulding, 2013 The essays in this volume present a thorough re evaluation of the idea of place for the twenty first century linking across theoretical interests in space and spatialisation and in motion and mobility Placing becomes an active process that happens in different parts of the world and there is work here from the countries of the United Kingdom from Ireland the USA Australia and mainland Europe Placing also happens in different contexts in the Production of visual images in translation in performance and in poetry that is both there and here The range of poets under consideration matches the breadth of the range of the Contributors International in scope and drawn from a variety of practices and processes their combination in a single volume leads to unusual connections and new readings of their work

Oceanic Archives, Indigenous Epistemologies, and Transpacific American Studies Yuan Shu, Otto Heim, Kendall Johnson, 2019-10-22 The field of transnational American studies is going through a paradigm shift from the transatlantic to the transpacific This volume demonstrates a critical method of engaging the Asian Pacific the chapters present alternative narratives that negotiate American dominance and exceptionalism by analyzing the experiences of Asians and Pacific Islanders from the vast region including those from the Philippines Vietnam Indonesia Hawaii Guam and other archipelagos Contributors make use of materials from oceanic archives retrieving what has seemingly been lost forgotten or downplayed inside and outside state bound archives state legal preoccupations and state prioritized projects The result is the recovery of indigenous epistemologies which enables scholars to go beyond US based sources and legitimates third world knowledge production and dissemination Surprising findings and unexpected perspectives abound in this work Minnan traders from southern China are identified as the agents who connected the Indian Ocean with the Pacific making the Manila Galleon trade in the sixteenth century the first completely global commercial enterprise The Chamorro poetry of Guam gives a view of America from beyond its national borders and articulates the cultural pride of the Chamorro against US colonialism and imperialism The continuing distortion of indigenous claims to the sovereignty of Hawaii is analyzed through a reading of the most widely circulated English translation of the creation myth Kumulipo There is also a critique of the Korean involvement in the American War in Vietnam which was informed and shaped by Korean economy and politics in a global context By investigating the transpacific as moments of military cultural and geopolitical contentions this timely collection charts the reach and possibilities of the latest developments in the most dynamic form of transnational American studies This collection offers a well organized and intellectually coherent series of essays addressing issues of American imperialism in Oceania and the Pacific region Covering history politics and literary culture in equal measure the essays are theoretically well informed and their focus on Indigenous cultures speaks to the current scholarly interest in the ways in which Indigenous communities can be understood within a global context Paul Giles University of Sydney This terrific volume offers the latest mapping of that complex terrain known as the transpacific Timely and capacious the essays here from an all star cast of international scholars offer the latest thinking on the oceanic dimensions of global modernity Essential reading for anyone interested in the current Asian turn in American Studies Asian American Studies and Transpacific Studies Steven Yao Hamilton College

Anarchists in the Academy Dani Spinosa, 2022-08-29 Dani Spinosa takes up anarchism's power as a cultural and artistic ideology rather than as a political philosophy with a persistent emphasis on the common She demonstrates how postanarchism offers a useful theoretical context for poetry that is not explicitly political specifically for the contemporary experimental poem with its characteristic challenges to subjectivity representation authorial power and conventional constructions of the reader text relationship Her case studies of sixteen texts make a bold move toward politicizing readers and imbuing literary theory with an activist praxis a sharp hope This is a provocative volume for those interested in contemporary poetics experimental literatures and the digital humanities Case Studies Jim Andrews Christian B k Mez Breeze John Cage Andy Campbell Robert Duncan Kenneth Goldsmith Susan Howe Jackson Mac Low Er n Moure Erin Mour Harryette Mullen bpNichol Vanessa Place Juliana Spahr Brian Kim Stefans W Mark Sutherland and Darren Wershler

Poetry and Sustainability in Education Sandra Lee Kleppe, Angela Sorby, 2022-08-23 This edited collection offers educators at all levels a range of practical and theoretical approaches to teaching poetry in the context of environmental sustainability The contributors are keenly aware of the urgency facing the planet's ecosystems ecosystems which include all of us and this volume makes the case that teaching poetry is not a luxury Each of the book's three sections works from a specific angle and register Part I focuses on pragmatic approaches to classroom activities and curricular choices Part II considers policies and politics including the role of the UN's Education for Sustainable Development ESD program and Part III takes a widescreen view exploring the philosophical issues that arise when poems are integrated into sustainability curricula This book exemplifies how poetry empowers readers to think imaginatively about how to sustain and why to sustain our world its resources and its beauty Keats's Odes Anahid Nersessian, 2022-12-13 Anahid Nersessian gathers Keats's six Great Odes and comments on them in essays at once bold speculative and personal There are many lovers in this lover's discourse but the main ones are Keats and Nersessian herself Each ode emerges here as an expression and an inducement of love sometimes for humanity in general sometimes for a specific person This is literary criticism as passion work close reading as intimacy with memoir occasionally breaking to the surface with hints of heartbreak and an absent lover For many younger readers today it is difficult to love canonical literature when like Nersessian herself one belongs to ethnic and sexual categories that were historically excluded from its purview Yet every year students and other readers fall hard for Keats despite lives so distant from the world of the English Regency There is what one critic long ago called a lovableness to this poet who died of tuberculosis on 23 February 1821 at age 25 exiled in rooms beside the Spanish Steps in Rome Nersessian shows why we love him still and why his odes continue to speak powerfully to our own desires
