Through The Arc Of The Rain Forest By Karen Tei Yamashita:

Through the Arc of the Rain Forest Karen Tei Yamashita, 2011-04-07 Through the Arc of the Rain Forest is a burlesque of comic strip adventures and apocalyptic portents that stretches familiar truths to their logical extreme in a future world that is just recognizable enough to be frightening. In the Author's Note Karen Tei Yamashita writes that her book is like a Brazilian soap opera called a novela; the novela's story is completely changeable according to the whims of the public psyche and approval, although most likely the unhappy find happiness, the bad are punished, true love reigns, a popular actor is saved from death, an idyll striking innocence, boundless nostalgia, and terrible ruthlessness. The stage is a vast mysterious field of impenetrable plastic in the Brazilian rain forest set against a backdrop of rampant environmental destruction, commercialization, poverty, and religious rapture. Through the Arc of the Rainforest is narrated by a small satellite hovering permanently around the head of an innocent character named Kazumasa. Through no fault of his own, Kazumasa seems to draw strange and significant people into his orbit and to find himself at the center of cataclysmic events that involve carrier pigeons, religious pilgrims, industrial espionage, magic feathers, big money, miracles, epidemics, true love, and the virtual end of the world. This book is simultaneously entertaining and depressing, with all the rollicking pessimism you'd expect of a good soap opera or a good political satire.

Karen Tei Yamashita A. Robert Lee, 2018-04-30 Karen Tei Yamashita's novels, essays, and performance scripts have garnered considerable praise from scholars and reviewers and are taught not only in the United States but in at least half a dozen countries in Asia, South America, and Europe. Her work has been written about in numerous disciplines in the humanities and social sciences. Karen Tei Yamashita, Fictions of Magic and Memory is the first anthology given over to Yamashita's writing. It contains newly commissioned essays by established international scholars, a recent interview with the author, a semiautobiographical keynote address delivered at an international conference that ruminates on her Japanese American heritage, and a full bibliography. The essays offer fresh and in-depth readings of the magic realist canvas of Through the Arc of the Rain Forest (1990), the Japanese emigrant portraiture of Brazil Maru (1992), Los Angeles as rambunctious geopolitical and transnational fulcrum of the Americas in Tropic of Orange (1997), the fraught relationship of Japanese and Brazilian heritage and labor in Circle K (2001), Asian American history and politics of the 1960s in I Hotel (2010), and Anime Wong (2014), a gallery of performativity illustrating the contested and inextricable nature of East and West. This essay collection explores Yamashita's use of the fantastical, the play of emerging transnational ethnicity, and the narrative tactics of reflexivity and bricolage in storytelling located on a continuum of the unique and the communal of the past and the present and that are mapped in various spatial and virtual realities.

Sense of Place and Sense of Planet Ursula K. Heise, 2008-09-29 Sense of Place and Sense of Planet analyzes the relationship between the imagination of the global and the ethical commitment to the local in environmentalist thought and writing from the 1960s to the present Part One critically examines the emphasis on local identities and communities in North American environmentalism by establishing conceptual connections between environmentalism and ecocriticism on one hand and theories of globalization transnationalism and cosmopolitanism on the other It proposes the concept of eco cosmopolitanism as a shorthand for envisioning these connections and the cultural and aesthetic forms into which they translate Part Two focuses on conceptualizations of environmental danger and connects environmentalist and ecocritical thought with the interdisciplinary field of risk theory in the social sciences arguing that environmental justice theory and ecocriticism stand to benefit from closer consideration of the theories of cosmopolitanism that have arisen in this field from the analysis of transnational communities at risk Both parts of the book combine in depth theoretical discussion with detailed analyses of novels poems films computer software and installation artworks from the US and abroad that translate new connections between global national and local forms of awareness into innovative aesthetic forms combining allegory epic and views of the planet as a whole with modernist and postmodernist strategies of fragmentation montage collage and zooming

Understanding Karen Tei Yamashita Jolie A. Sheffer,2020-02-18 Among the most trenchant and provocative writers of globalization Karen Tei Yamashita is one of the most significant ambitious and widely taught Asian American writers today In four genre bending novels a short story collection travel essay collage a family memoir and more than a dozen performance theater works Yamashita weaves together postmodernism magical realism history social protest and a wicked sense of humor Her fictions challenge familiar literary tropes especially those expected of multicultural writers such as the now clichéd conflict between first generation immigrants and their American born children Instead her canvas is global conjuring the unexpected intimacies and distances created by international capitalism as people and goods traverse continents in asymmetrical circuits Highlighting the connections between neoliberal economic policies environmental devastation and climate change anti immigrant rhetoric urban gentrification and other issues that disproportionately affect historically underinvested and minority communities Yamashita brings a uniquely transnational perspective to her portrayal of distinctly American preoccupations Sheffer gives readers a concise introduction to Yamashita's life provides lucid analysis of key motifs and synthesizes major research on her work Each chapter offers in accessible prose original interpretations of essential works and stages in her career her Brazil Japan migration trilogy comprising Brazil Maru Through the Arc of the Rain Forest and Circle K Cycles the magical realist revision of the Los Angeles riots in Tropic of Orange her historical magnum opus about Asian American activism in the long 1960s I Hotel her understudied theatrical and performance works collected in Anime Wong and her recent familial memoir about Japanese American internment during World War II Letters to Memory In short the volume serves as both a lucid introduction to a challenging author and a valuable resource for students and scholars

Literary and Cultural Representations of the Hinterlands Ewa

Kęblińska-Ławniczak, Dominika Ferens, Katarzyna Nowak-McNeice, Marcin Tereszewski, 2023-12-22 This interdisciplinary collection explores the diverse relationships between the frequently ignored and inherently ambiguous hinterlands and their manifestations in literature and culture Moving away from perspectives that emphasize the marginality of hinterlands and present them as devoid of agency and cultural currency this collection assembles a series of original essays using various modes of engagement to reconceptualize hinterlands and highlight their semiotic complexity Apart from providing a reassessment of hinterlands in terms of their geocultural significance this book also explores hinterlands through such concepts as nostalgia heterotopia identity formation habitation and cognitive mapping with reference to a wide geographical field Literary and filmic revisions of familiar hinterlands such as the Australian outback Alberta prairie and Arizona desert are juxtaposed in this volume with representations of such little known European hinterlands as Lower Silesia and Ukraine and the complicated political dimension of First World War internment camps is investigated with regard to Kapuskasing Ontario Rural China and the Sussex Downs are examined here as writers retreats Inner city hinterlands in Haiti India Morocco and urban New Jersey take on new meaning when contrasted with the vast hinterlands of megacities like Johannesburg and Los Angeles The spectrum of diverse approaches to hinterlands helps to reinforce their multilayered and multivocal nature as spaces that defy clear categorization

Writing Our Extinction Patrick Whitmarsh, 2023-04-11 Mid twentieth century developments in science and technology produced new understandings and images of the planet that circulated the globe giving rise to a modern ecological consciousness but they also contributed to accelerating crises in the global environment including climate change pollution and waste In this new work Patrick Whitmarsh analyzes postwar narrative fictions that describe depict or express the earth from above the aerial and below the subterranean revealing the ways that literature has engaged this history of vertical science and linked it to increasing environmental precarity up to and including the extinction of humankind Whitmarsh examines works by writers such as Don DeLillo Karen Tei Yamashita Reza Negarestani and Colson Whitehead alongside postwar scientific programs including the Space Race atmospheric and underground nuclear testing and geological expeditions such as Project Mohole which attempted to drill to the earth's mantle As Whitmarsh argues by focusing readers attention on the fragility of postwar life through a vertical lens Anthropocene fiction highlights the interconnections between human behavior and planetary change These fictions situate industrial history within the much longer narrative of geological time and reframe scientific progress as a story through which humankind writes itself out of existence

Environmentalism in the Realm of Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature Chris Baratta, 2011-11-15 The collection of essays titled Environmentalism in the Realm of Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature discusses the environmental and ecocritical themes found in works of science fiction and fantasy literature It focuses on an analysis of important literary works in these genres to yield an understanding of how they address the environmental issues we are facing today Organized into four sections titled Industrial Dilemmas The Natural World Community and the Self Materialism Capitalism and Environmentalism and Dystopian Futures the essays included also investigate the solutions that these works present to ensure the sustainability of our natural world and in turn the sustainability of humanity This collection will appeal to a broad range of scholars including those who focus their studies on one of or all of the following fields Ecocriticism Science Fiction and Fantasy Literature and Environmentalism in Literature The essays investigate the myriad ways that science fiction and fantasy literature address environmental concerns with a focus on the detrimental effects on humanity on society of environmental destruction With topics ranging from the dangers of industrial progress to the connection between environmental degradation and the destruction of the individual to environmental dangers posed by capitalistic societies to ignored warnings of ecological crises the essays each tactfully analyze the relationship between the environmental themes in literature and how readers and scholars can learn from the irresponsible treatment of the environment while also considering solutions to this crisis that are found in science fiction and fantasy literature

An Interethnic Companion to Asian American Literature King-Kok Cheung, 1997 A survey of Asian American literature

The Children of 1965 Min Hyoung Song, 2013-04-15 Since the 1990s a new cohort of Asian American writers has garnered critical and popular attention Many of its members are the children of Asians who came to the United States after the Immigration and Nationality Act of 1965 lifted long standing restrictions on immigration This new generation encompasses writers as diverse as the graphic novelists Adrian Tomine and Gene Luen Yang the short story writer Nam Le and the poet Cathy Park Hong Having scrutinized more than one hundred works by emerging Asian American authors and having interviewed several of these writers Min Hyoung Song argues that collectively these works push against existing ways of thinking about race even as they demonstrate how race can facilitate creativity Some of the writers eschew their identification as ethnic writers while others embrace it as a means of tackling the uncertainty that many people feel about the near future In the literature that they create a number of the writers that Song discusses take on pressing contemporary matters such as demographic change environmental catastrophe and the widespread sense that the United States is in national decline

Techno-Orientalism 2.0 David S. Roh, Betsy Huang, Greta Aiyu Niu, Christopher T. Fan, Greta A. Niu, 2025-07-15 Building on the groundbreaking Techno Orientalism Imagining Asia in Speculative Fiction History and Media published by Rutgers University Press in 2015 Techno Orientalism 2.0 New Intersections and Interventions addresses the impact of a volatile post pandemic present on speculative futures by and about Asians The backdrop of this highly anticipated follow up is a world that is radically different than in 2015 COVID 19 threats of a new cold war with China Russia's invasion of Ukraine and the reemergence of strong man politics around the world An essential volume for this new critical juncture in Asian American history Techno Orientalism 2.0 catalogs intersectional dialogue with discourses such as Afrofuturism Indigenous futurities environmentalism and disability studies It also engages with recent high profile and lesser known works of Asian and Asian American speculative fiction film television anime art music journalism architecture state sponsored policies and infrastructural projects and the now dominant China Panic

The Americas of Asian American Literature Rachel C. Lee, 1999-10-04 Drawing on a wide array of literary historical and theoretical sources Rachel Lee addresses current debates on the relationship among Asian American ethnic identity national belonging globalization and gender Lee argues that scholars have traditionally placed undue emphasis on ethnic based political commitments whether these are construed as national or global in their readings of Asian American texts This has constrained the intelligibility of stories that are focused less on ethnicity than on kinship family dynamics eroticism and gender roles In response Lee makes a case for a reconceptualized Asian American criticism that centrally features gender and sexuality Through a critical analysis of select literary texts novels by Carlos Bulosan Gish Jen Jessica Hagedorn and Karen Yamashita Lee probes the specific ways in which some Asian American authors have steered around ethnic themes with alternative tales circulating around gender and sexual identity Lee makes it clear that what has been missing from current debates has been an analysis of the complex ways in which gender mediates questions of both national belonging and international migration From anti miscegenation legislation in the early twentieth century to poststructuralist theories of language to Third World feminist theory to critical studies of global cultural and economic flows The Americas of Asian American Literature takes up pressing cultural and literary questions and points to a new direction in literary criticism
