original contribution to the field of children's literature by providing a focused and sustained analysis of how texts for children about 9-11 contribute to formations of identity in these complex times of cultural unease and global unrest Girls' Literacy Experiences in and Out of School Elaine O'Quinn, Elaine J. O'Quinn, 2013 Through thoughtful analysis of girls' historical literacy experiences their contemporary reading and writing lives and trends in young adult literature this book sheds new light on how teachers can better understand and create classroom experiences that make girls visible both to themselves and to others Historically the status of girls has evoked much less research than that of boys Recently emerging scholastic and strategic study concerning the vulnerability of girls is adding a vital missing component to this continually emerging discourse Looking at many aspects of girls' gendered lives this text considers the specific perspectives of the social and cultural constructions that script gender particularly as they apply to girls in our classrooms Prominent scholars in their respective fields examine the myriad forces that shape the lives of American girls from the earliest didactic records of manuals and books of conduct to current artifacts of contemporary culture By investigating both the scholarly literature on girls as well as the primary sources of a material culture the authors seek to unravel how adolescent girls learn and seek to compose identities By closely examining girls' practices in which are embedded issues of class race ethnicity immigrant status and sexuality the text considers some of the values structures and trajectories that have come to define teenage girlhood Its distinctive contribution is to unpack some of the assumptions of girls in English classrooms and to critically examine their experiences as they try to fit preconceived norms while forming their own personhood Provided by publisher Children's Authors and Illustrators Too Good to Miss Sharron L. F. Nilsen, 2007-07-05 This book shows how authors of young adult literature use the creation of names for people places events inventions animals and imaginary concepts as one of their most important literary techniques Chapters address how authors use names to stretch readers' emotions to reveal ethnic values and differences to create other worlds and to establish tone Other chapters focus on how authors use names to help readers remember who is who such as J. K. Rowling in the Harry Potter books or to communicate separate messages to adults and to young readers as exemplified by Richard Handler in the Lemony Snicket books Names and Naming in Young Adult Literature equips readers with the interest and the skill to make similar observations about names and naming when they read other books Looking at the names an author has chosen to use is a wonderful first step in introducing readers to the concept of literary criticism as something to help readers get more pleasure and information from their reading Public and school librarians college instructors of young adult literature teachers of creative writing high school English teachers and anyone else who is interested in young adult literature will find this book extremely interesting

The Power of Oral History Narratives Toni Fuss Kirkwood-Tucker, Frans H. Doppen, 2023-06-01 The significance of this book is its uniqueness First the book contains a collection of fourteen chapters that capture the personal professional and historical experiences of international global scholars and artists to which they were subjected in their native country and after they immigrated to the United States What makes this book project highly unusual in comparison to other publications is that these international global scholars and artists experienced historical events of trauma and joy in their native country and in their newly adopted country of the United States that lie deeply buried in their sub consciousness that these memories are unforgettable and still painful for them that these memories are a constant companion in their daily lives and that the experienced historical events of trauma and joy have shaped their professional and personal lives to this very day There exists a paucity in the global education literature of this far reaching topic and thus it has the potential to enhance and diversify the global education literature Second the significance of this book lies in the pedagogical power of the oral history narrative tradition and its impact on students at the secondary and tertiary levels in education When one's lived experiences of trauma or joy occur during a critical time in history they rarely yield unforgotten memories and deeply held private knowledge that do not come to light without a storyteller When first hand accounts are shared publicly they can bring powerful insights into past historic events to the very presence Thus the pedagogical strength of this book contributes to knowledge creation in the classroom as oral histories move students from abstract textbook descriptions to concrete and compelling lived stories associated with historical happenings This pedagogy leads students to become more critical of historical events of the past and develops in them a deeper understanding of the past Consequently oral history narratives enable teachers and teacher educators to enrich the abstract text of textbooks with the authentic voice of the individual A third significance of this book lies embedded in the rich historical perspective displayed by storytellers of non native international global scholars and artists from around the world who portray their lived through first hand experiences such as child labor communism hate hunger fascism fear intolerance discrimination prejudice poverty war protest and death Finally a major purpose of this book is to expose young learners from around the world to empowering non native international role models in global education and the arts from nations in Africa Asia the Caribbean Eurasia Europe the Middle East and South America who build bridges not walls between peoples and nations
