Boyer,2010 Bob Boyer offers affectionate often intimate portraits of Filipino life and culture formed over many visits He sharpens the picture with factual detail Whether he s riding a jeepney sipping iced tea at the Chocolate Kiss exploring the mysteries of Quiapo or marching up Bataan and Corregidor The Philippines is blessed by a number of historic sites as well as those associated with the American period and World War II Professor Boyer serves both as a personal historian and a guide as he brings historic events to life The book serves as an excellent reference for persons interested in Philippine history as well as for those who plan to visit the country Philippine English MA. Lourdes S. Bautista,Kingsley Bolton,2008-11-01 An overview and analysis of the role of English in the Philippines the factors that led to its spread and retention and the characteristics of Philippine English today LatinAsian Cartographies Susan Thananopavarn,2018-03-19 LatinAsian Cartographies examines how Latina o and Asian American writers provide important counter narratives to the stories of racial encroachment that have come to characterize twenty first century dominant discourses on race Susan Thananopavarn contends that the Asian American and Latina o presence in the United States although often considered marginal in discourses of American history and nationhood is in fact crucial to understanding how national identity has been constructed historically and continues to be constructed in the present day Thananopavarn creates a new LatinAsian view of the United States that emphasizes previously suppressed aspects of national history including imperialism domestic racism during World War II Cold War operations in Latin America and Asia and the politics of borders in an age of globalization LatinAsian Cartographies ultimately reimagines national narratives in a way that transforms dominant ideas of what it means to be American Filipino Women Writers in English Edna Zapanta-Manlapaz,2003 The first of its kind in Philippine scholarship It chronicles the evolution of Philippine literature simultaneously in terms of medium English and gender women In addition the book proposes hypotheses regarding the whys and wherefores of this specific segment of Philippine literature Page 4 of cover The Souvenir Louise Steinman,2008-03-18 A soldier s daughter unravels

the secrets of her father's experience in the Pacific Theater in this graceful understated World War II memoir for fans of The Things They Carried The New York Times Book Review Louise Steinman's American childhood in the fifties was bound by one unequivocal condition Never mention the war to your father That silence sustained itself until the fateful day Steinman opened an old ammunition box left behind after her parents' death In it she discovered nearly 500 letters her father had written to her mother during his service in the Pacific War and a Japanese flag mysteriously inscribed to Yoshio Shimizu Setting out to determine the identity of Yoshio Shimizu and the origins of the silken flag Steinman discovered the unexpected a hidden side of her father the green soldier who achingly left his pregnant wife to fight for his life in a brutal 165 day campaign that changed him forever Her journey to return the souvenir to its owner not only takes Steinman on a passage to Japan and the Philippines but also returns her to the age of her father's innocence where she learned of the tender and expressive man she'd never known Steinman writes with the same poignant immediacy her father did in his letters Together their stories in The Souvenir create an evocative testament to the ways in which war changes one generation and shapes another Heritage, 1994 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Guiyou Huang, 2006-08-08 The Columbia Guide to Asian American Literature Since 1945 Amerasia Journal, 1995

(In)visible America Mary Caroline Cummins, 2008 Speaking the Past Alicia Otano, 2004 Child perspective is a symbolic narrative strategy that designs multilayered possibilities for meaning in ethnic writing This book positions Asian American bildungsromane in the context of American writing about children reading them through the lens of their narrators the oftentimes dual child/adult perspective to examine how narrative point of view nuances and shapes issues of personal ethnic and national positioning This approach privileges the author's narrative choices and engagement with genre revealing how these critical writerly decisions construct texts that signify on multiple levels and dialogue productively with other texts Their interpretation and creative negotiation of the key elements of narrative perspective lead us to uncover aspects which are constitutive of the successful manipulation of narrative voice The texts analyzed in this study demonstrate the flexibility of this narrative technique and its usefulness as a critical tool through which important thematic issues family race culture war assimilation and language may be deployed Reading the way Asian American texts manipulate child perspective positions these texts within developing critical paradigms and allows the reader to examine the manner in which they influence the development of American literature and the theory that reads it
