others how faith communities in turn impact the migration landscape through immigrant integration and public advocacy and how migration forges new transnational and global ways of being in community and innovative religious movements The contributors put forward a mission theology of migration and suggest mission practices in response to the suffering caused by forced migration and the injustices of immigration systems Missional Conversations Cathy Ross,Colin

Smith,2018-10-30 Missional Conversations introduces the reader to key themes in contemporary mission through global conversations between theory and praxis Exploring emergent themes in missiology the book takes the form of a conversation between reflective practitioners both those in academia and with those who are practically engaged With contributions from Dave Bookless Amy Ross Daniel G Groody CSC Amy Roche Mark Poulson Richard Sudworth David Barclay Ash Barker Stephan de Beer Elisa Padilla Berdine van den Toren Lekkerkerker Andrea Campanale Michael Moynagh Kyama Mugambi Harvey Kwiyani Dennis Tongoi Paul Bickley Jonny Baker Ric Stott Ian Adams Military Chaplaincy in Contention

Andrew Todd,2016-04-22 Chaplaincy highlights the need for faith and society to re engage with vital moral questions Military chaplains continue to operate within the dynamic tension between faith communities the armed services and society offering a distinct moral presence and contribution Drawing the reader into the world of the military chaplain this book explores insights into the complex moral issues that arise in combat especially in Afghanistan and in everyday military life These include the the increasing significance of the Law of Armed Conflict and the moral significance of drones Through the unique chaplain s eye view of the significance of their experience for understanding the ethics of war this book offers clearer understanding of chaplaincy in the context of the changing nature of international conflict shaped around insurgency and non state forces and explores the response of faith communities to the role of the armed services It makes the case for relocating understandings of just war within a theological framework and for a clear understanding of the relationship between the mission of chaplaincy and that of the military The Second Commandment Joey R. Peyton,2024-02-07 In an increasingly broken world filled with hate and violence God s plan from the beginning was to save and restore the world to the glory for which he had created it This simple plan has not changed with the evolution of sin time or man s rejection of his creator Rather God s simple twofold plan of redemption included both a commandment to love the creator with all one s heart mind soul and strength and a commandment to love one s neighbor as one s self Neither commandment stands in isolation for one cannot fully love others without a consuming love for God and neither can one completely love God without a love for the neighbor created by God The answer to hate is love the answer to war is love the answer to violence is love and the answer to all of societal disfunction is love The answer is not a commandment to like God and others because one only likes others because of likeness Rather love is a choice A choice to love what you don t like A choice to love what you don t understand A choice to love until the God you love sets everything right in eternity Using the Bible in Practical Theology Zoë

Bennett,2016-02-11 Exploring how the Bible may be appropriately used in practical and public theology this book looks at types of modern practical theology with specific emphasis on the use of the Bible Bennett juxtaposes the diversity of modern practical theology with the work of leading nineteenth century public theologian John Ruskin and then assesses the contribution of this analysis to some modern issues of public importance in which the Bible is used The final chapter offers a framework for a biblically informed critical practical theology which draws on the writer's experience and invites the readers to engage their own

Prisoners of Hope Nathan McConnell, 2025-05-30 Prisoners of Hope focuses on ecclesiological and practical theological responses to migration asylum seeking and refugee integration and assimilation It considers the relationship between the church and the nation state relative to political asylum by questioning the various responses of Christians who advocate for refugees and asylum seekers in their spheres of influence Prisoners of Hope features how the Church might begin to appraise and address the various socio political strategies employed by nation states which situate migrants in a form of quasi political status as they move from one place to another It holds key benefits for exploring the philosophical and theological intersections of Dietrich Bonhoeffer Giorgio Agamben and Seyla Benhabib and those attempting to ask about treatment of the refugees and asylum seekers Prisoners of Hope will be of particular interest to those attempting scholarly research in the areas of theology religion and migration studies as it investigates the phenomenological experiences of refugees going in and out of detention as well as arguments relating to porous borders within sovereign national entities Initially the book engages definitions of migration moving onto concepts of State of Exception and Homo Sacer and analysing arguments regarding porous borders and cosmopolitanism Of specific benefit for Christian theology is the second half of the book which examines the importance of vicarious witnessing prayer voicing inclusion worshipping communities and the inclusion of the other Overall Prisoners of Hope is a pertinent addition to those discussing concepts of national sovereignty migrant assimilation asylum seeking hospitality and the juxtapositioning of the foreigner within the often intricate dialogues associated with political entry

Saved by Faith and Hospitality Joshua W. Jipp, 2017 Too few Christians today says Joshua Jipp understand hospitality to strangers and the marginalized as an essential part of the church's identity In this book Jipp argues that God's relationship to his people is fundamentally an act of hospitality to strangers and that divine and human hospitality together are thus at the very heart of Christian faith Jipp first provides a thorough interpretation of the major biblical texts related to the practice of hospitality to strangers considering especially how these texts portray Christ as the divine host who extends God's welcome to all people Jipp then invites readers to consider how God's hospitality sets the pattern for human hospitality offering suggestions on how the practice of welcoming strangers can guide the church in its engagement with current social challenges immigration incarceration racism and more

Exploring Ordinary Theology Leslie J. Francis, 2016-04-15 Ordinary theology characterizes the reflective God talk of the great majority of churchgoers and others who remain largely untouched by the assumptions concepts and arguments that academic theology takes for granted Jeff Astley coined the phrase in his innovative study

Ordinary Theology Looking Listening and Learning in Theology arguing that speaking statistically ordinary theology is the theology of God's Church A number of scholars have responded to this and related conceptualizations exploring their theological implications Other researchers have adopted the perspective in examining a range of Church practices and contexts of Christian discipleship using the tools of empirical study Ordinary theology research has proved to be key in uncovering people's everyday lay theology or ordinary dogmatics Exploring Ordinary Theology presents fresh contributions from a wide range of authors who address the theological empirical and practical dimensions of this central feature of ordinary Christian existence and the life of the Church

Saving Face Stephen Pattison, 2016-04-01 Faces are all around us and fundamentally shape both everyday experience and our understanding of people To lose face is to be alienated and experience shame to be enfaced is to enjoy the fullness of life In theology as in many other disciplines faces as both physical phenomena and symbols have not received the critical appreciative attention they deserve This pioneering book explores the nature of face and enfacement both human and divine Pattison discusses questions concerning what face is how important face is in human life and relationships and how we might understand face both as a physical phenomenon and as a series of socially inflected symbols and metaphors about the self and the body Examining what face means in terms of inclusion and exclusion in contemporary human society and how it is related to shame Pattison reveals what the experience of people who have difficulties with faces tell us about our society our understandings of and our reactions to face Exploring this ubiquitous yet ignored area of both contemporary human experience and of the Christian theological tradition Pattison explains how Christian theology understands face both human and divine and the insights might it offer to understanding face and enfacement Does God in any sense have a physically visible face What is the significance of having an enfaced or faceless God for Christian life and practice What does the vision of God mean now If we want to take face and defacing shame seriously and to get them properly into perspective we may need to change our theology thought and practice changing our ways of thinking about God and about theology

To All the Nations Kenneth Mtata, Craig Koester, 2016-02-01 In his pastoral and theological reflections

Martin Luther always sought faithfully to discern the Word of God from the Scriptures Luther drew on the Gospel of Matthew when developing edifying sermons as well as teasing out valuable ethical insights for the Christian engagement in society While his immediate audience was in Wittenberg the Gospel of Matthew has continued to be a resource for the church's mission In this collection of essays internationally renowned theologians reflect on the ongoing reception of the Gospel of Matthew from the Reformation until today and how in light of the Lutheran interpretive traditions it remains a valuable resource for the church as it seeks to respond to contemporary concerns in its mission to the whole world Race for Justice Richard Reddie, 2022-02-18 In 2020 Britain marks the 25th anniversary of Racial Justice Sunday This movement was established at a time when the UK was having to face up to both overt and subversive forms of racism characterised by the tragic killing of black teenager Stephen Lawrence in Eltham in 1993 This murder and other racist attacks gave mainstream visibility to the struggle of many Black Asian and Minority Ethnic people to obtain equality and justice Race for Justice brings together a collection of voices on this vital issue from across the Christian denominations Each contributor to this volume serves as their particular denomination's racial justice equalities diversity or inclusion officers Equipped with frontline experience in the fight against racism they each give their perspective on the successes and failures of race relations over the last quarter of a century as well as addressing contemporary challenges and their hopes for the future Beholden Susan R. Holman, 2015-01-28 Highlighting religion as a factor that can either help or hinder global health and health equity today Susan R Holman explores the intersections of human rights and religion in order to address issues of social justice health economics humanitarian aid human rights theological education and public policy Global Mission on our Doorstep Thorsten Prill, 2017-01-11 Document from the year 2017 in the subject Theology Practical Theology language English abstract In the face of globalisation one of the challenges for Christians ministering to asylum seekers and refugees in the United Kingdom is the question of integrating Christian asylum seekers and refugees into the Christian community British churches and para church organisations that are involved in refugee ministry have to decide whether they want to support the formation of independent refugee churches or the integration of refugees and asylum seekers into local indigenous churches This thesis examines these options from a missiological perspective Two social research projects form the heart of this study One compares the life and ministry of two mature minority ethnic churches the other investigates the integration process at a British church that has been involved in refugee ministry for almost a decade Contrary to the widespread view that the establishment of homogeneous churches is crucial for the mission of the church in postmodern British society the findings of this research suggest that the integration of asylum seekers and refugees into indigenous British churches is the better option They further demonstrate that it is not the mono ethnic refugee church but the multi ethnic church which makes the greater contribution to the integration of Christian asylum seekers and refugees and to the missio Dei in Britain In a multi ethnic church asylum seekers and refugees serve as role models to British Christians and especially as effective agents of mission These research findings also show that the integration of asylum seekers and refugees is promoted through the congregation within the congregation model and an incarnational approach to mission However they equally indicate that various stumbling blocks can hinder the integration process These include a low ecclesiology a lack of awareness of globalisation and a reactive leadership style and church culture

Willful Ignorance Helen T. Boursier, 2022-04-27 Using ethnographic research Willful Ignorance: Overcoming the Limitations of Christian Love for Refugees Seeking Asylum examines the attitudes of clergy and lay leaders regarding their inattention to racism as it intersects with the harsh reality of U S immigration policies and practices This multi faceted work begins with a reality check on the scope of forced migration and its intersection with the historical legacy of racism in America including testimonies from displaced migrants and immigration advocates who help to alleviate state inflicted suffering at the U S Mexico border Helen T Boursier examines the rationales Christian leaders use to justify the local church's nominal response including the discursive buffers and stall tactics they use to deflect their lack of preaching teaching leadership and or ministry with displaced migrants who are their near neighbors The Christian church's firm foundation to embody love as social justice provides a historical rebuttal while case studies of congregations that offer displaced migrants compassionate hospitality model exemplary contemporary response Closing with practical suggestions for how to begin building bridges with migrants Boursier argues for a philosophy of religion that embraces resistance to racism and exclusion from asylum through a missiology of compassion that exemplifies an ecclesiology of love

Religion and Migration Andrea Bieler, Isolde Karle, HyeRan Kim-Cragg, Ilona Nord, 2019-10-31 This volume explores religious discourses and practices of hospitality in the context of migration It articulates the implied ambivalences and even contradictions as well as the potential to contribute to a more just world through social interconnection with others The book features contributors from diverse national denominational cultural and racial backgrounds Their essays reveal a dichotomy of hospitality between guest and host while tackling the meaning of home or the loss of it interrogating both the peril and promise of the relationship between religion chiefly Christianity and hospitality and focusing on the role of migrants vulnerability and agency by drawing from empirical theological sociological and anthropological insights emerged from postcolonial migration contexts With contributions by Andrea Bieler Jione Havea Claudia Hoffmann HyeRan Kim Cragg Claudia Jahnel Isolde Karle Buhle Mpofu Armin Nassehi Ilona Nord Henrietta Nyamnjoh Regina Polak Ludger Pries Thomas Reynolds Harsha Walia Julia Well and Birgit Weyel Religion und Migration Dieser Band beschäftigt sich mit religiösen Diskursen und religiöser Praxis die Gastfreundschaft im Kontext von Migration thematisieren Dabei werden sowohl Potenziale identifiziert die in Richtung größerer Gerechtigkeit und sozialer Verbundenheit weisen als auch Ambivalenzen und Widersprüche Das Buch präsentiert Beiträge die verschiedene nationale konfessionelle kulturelle und ethnische Kontexte reflektieren Dabei kommen die problematischen sowie die verheißungsvollen Dimensionen der Dichotomie von Gast und Gastgebersein in den Blick die der Fokus auf Gastfreundschaft insbesondere im Christentum impliziert Die Frage nach dem Zusammenhang von Verletzbarkeit und Handlungsmacht von Migrantinnen und Migranten wird aus empirischer theologischer soziologischer sowie anthropologischer Perspektive beleuchtet The human dilemma of displacement Alfred R. Brunsdon, 2020-12-31 In this book social responsive theological research converges to provide practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives on the growing human dilemma of displacement The book presents the research of practical theologians a missiologist and a religious practitioner whose work pertains first and foremost to the South African context The different fields of expertise of the contributors within the broader field of practical theology worked towards a unique compilation of themes each relevant to the issue at stake The majority of chapters are theoretically orientated except where authors refer to empirical work conducted during previous research The main contribution of this collaborative work is to be sought in the practical theological and ecclesiological perspectives it provides It engages the critical questions of what kind of church we need and what kind of care we should provide in the face of the growing predicament of human displacement The theological and theoretical principles uncovered in the different chapters will be of use to theologians from all theological subdisciplines as well as to religious practitioners and leaders of faith communities that are challenged with the growing realities of strangers on their doorsteps and in their pews
