Good Food:

Good Food for Everyone Tina Addison, 2012-04 Tina Addison's journey with Good Food For Everyone began twelve years ago when she discovered recipes from her deceased mother and grandmother. As she retyped their recipes, she was inspired to write her thoughts and memories about these two wonderful role models. This writing process became so therapeutic that it expanded to include recipes and stories about other family and friends. Tina tweaked everyone's favorite recipes to make them vegetarian. A real farmer's daughter, Tina grew up on a dairy farm in Western Massachusetts. She returned to her farming roots and founded the Norfolk Volunteer Community Garden. Along with a troop of volunteer farmers, this garden provides a free farmers market for her town's food pantry. The mission of her company, Good Food For Everyone, is to raise the awareness of the need to provide nutritious food to food pantries. Please enjoy these recipes that will bring nutritious food to your table and are sure to please even the pickiest eaters. Profits from the sale of this book will be donated to food pantries. Together we can help to conquer the world hunger epidemic that we face.

Written by the chef sisters behind Boston's acclaimed Mei Mei Dumplings, this cookbook/field guide is a crucial resource for the thrifty chef, the environmentally mindful cook, and anyone looking to make the most of their ingredients.

Good Food Simply Prepared Joan Styrna, 2005-11 Good Food Simply Prepared is a different type of cookbook. A collection of recipes from three generations of one family, each chapter has a story depicting the home values and traditions that have influenced the style of food prepared as family members became assimilated into American culture. Many of the recipes have been supplemented with an anecdote or story, and all recipes have been tested for accuracy. Various recipes have been tasted and critiqued by friends who enjoy good food. It is with great pleasure that I share my recipes, my stories, and friends' comments. I hope you enjoy my creative endeavors and find inspiration to spark your own. Once when I asked friends over for dinner, they asked me to select a menu reflecting my heritage. During that dinner, the conversation centered on the intrigue of the history associated with family recipes and food traditions. The exchange of stories that evening inspired me to write my personal history along with the recipes, with the hope that my stories will bring enjoyment to others. In this way, I would create a book that would reflect my life and career, my memoirs.
