Parliament (1994-). National Assembly, 1996 English Alive , 2005 Agrekon , 1995

Democracy South Africa Yvonne G. Muthien, 1999 The 1999 election presented the HSRC with a number of opportunities for conducting election studies These included measuring the shift in public perceptions and support in the run up to the election and conducting the first ever exit poll Bothalia ,2005 Land, Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa William Beinart,Rosalie Kingwill,Gavin Capps,2021-05-01 This edited collection illustrates contestations over land and political authority in South Africa s rural areas focusing on threats to popular rights and how they are being supported Who controls the land and minerals in the former Bantustans of South Africa chiefs the state or landholders Disputes are taking place around the ownership of resources decisions about their exploitation and who should benefit With respect to all of these issues the courts have become increasingly important The contributors to Land Law and Chiefs in Rural South Africa capture some of these intense contestations over land law and political authority focussing on threats to the rights of ordinary people History and customary law feature strongly in most disputes and succession to chieftaincy is also frequently disputed Judges have to make decisions in a context where rival claimants to property or office assert their own versions of history and custom The South African constitution recognizes customary law and the courts are attempting to incorporate and develop this branch of jurisprudence as living customary law Lawyers community leaders and academics are called on to assist in researching cases around restitution land rights and customary law The chapters in this collection discuss legal cases and policy directions that have evolved since 1994 Some chapters analyze the increasing power of chiefs in the South African rural areas while others suggest that the courts are giving support to popular rights over land and supporting local democratic processes Contributors record significant pushback from groups that reject traditional authority These political tensions are a central theme of the collection and thus serve as vital case studies in furthering our understanding of rights and restitution in South Africa The Economics of Water Management in Southern Africa Glenn-Marie Lange,Rashid M. Hassan,Jaap Arntzen,Jackie Crawford,Eric Mungatana,2007-01-01 This book presents a valuable new tool for water management water resource accounting which significantly advances the economic analysis of water Water resource accounts integrate detailed information about water supply and use with national income accounts to show the economic use of water costs and tariffs paid and the economic value of water for different economic uses Based on the UN s handbook for environmental accounting this book describes the implementation and policy application of water accounts in three African countries Botswana Namibia and South Africa and discusses how they have been used by water managers The book compares water use across the three countries explaining the differences in water resources and water policy In addition to the comprehensive outline of physical and monetary water accounts for each country the authors provide an extensive discussion of water valuation as well as addressing a number of issues of regional importance including water accounting for an international river basin and the impact of trade on each country s water use By demonstrating the usefulness of water resource accounts this book makes a major contribution to the literature on water economics and management sustainable development and to the development of environmental accounting in general The Economics of Water Management in Southern Africa will appeal to a wide readership including environmental and development economists NGOs concerned with sustainable development environmental advocacy groups professionals economists and environmentalists working in Africa on water and sustainable development issues water professionals national accounts experts and statisticians Sexuality, Society & Pedagogy Dennis A. Francis, 2013-01-01 Sexuality Society and Pedagogy problematises some of the prevailing assumptions that frame this area of study In doing so it aims to make visible the challenges of teaching sexuality education in South African schools while demonstrating its potential for reshaping our conceptions of the social and cultural representations thereof Although the book is largely situated in experiences and perspectives within the South African context it is hoped that the questions raised reflections analyses and arguments will contribute to thinking about sexuality education in diverse contexts in particular more developing contexts The South African Archaeological Bulletin, 2003 African Newsletter on Occupational Health and Safety, 2003-04 Transition and Justice Gerhard Anders, Olaf Zenker, 2014-12-03 Transition and Justice examines a series of cases from across the African continent where peaceful new beginnings were declared after periods of violence and where transitional justice institutions helped define justice and the new socio political order Offers a new perspective on transition and justice in Africa transcending the institutional limits of transitional justice Covers a wide range of situations and presents a broad range of sites where past injustices are addressed Examines cases where peaceful new beginnings have been declared after periods of violence Addresses fundamental questions about transitions and justice in societies characterized by a high degree of external involvement and internal fragmentation The Earth Observer, 2000 Democratising Local Government, 2002 Local government is at the forefront of development In South Africa the ambitious policy objectives of post apartheid reconstruction and development hinge on the successful creation of a democratic tier of government close to the people An entirely new system of developmental local government has thus been introduced As is the case in many developing countries the responsibilities of municipalities in South Africa have been extended dramatically often without adequate resources Managing municipalities for development therefore requires political will and strategic intervention The book provides a comprehensive introduction to developmental local government It includes the design of the new local government system and the issues posed by decentralisation an overview of specific challenges of urban and rural municipalities a discussion of special issues facing local government including poverty gender and environment new tools for local government including budgeting indicators municipal partnerships and capacity building Zimbabwe's Migrants and South Africa's Border Farms Maxim Bolt, 2015-09-25 This book addresses the complex labour and life conditions faced by workers in the agricultural borderlands of northern South Africa
