Mpumalanga September 2014 Question Paper:

Conservation Agriculture for Africa Amir H Kassam, Saidi Mkomwa, Theodor Friedrich, 2016-12-14 Tillage agriculture has led to widespread soil and ecosystem degradation globally This is especially so in Africa where traditional and modern tillage based agricultural practices have become unsustainable due to severe disturbance and exploitation of natural resources with negative impacts on the environment and rural livelihoods In addition agriculture in Africa today faces major challenges including increased costs of production and energy the effects of climate change and the lack of an effective paradigm for sustainable intensification especially for small and medium size holdings Africa is facing a serious challenge to food security and as a continent has not advanced towards eradicating hunger In addition the population is still growing much faster than on most other continents This pressure has led to the emergence of no till conservation agriculture as a serious alternative sustainable agriculture paradigm In Africa in recent years conservation agriculture techniques and methods have spread to many countries as greater development education and research effort are directed towards its extension and uptake This book is aimed at agricultural researchers and scientists educationalists and agricultural service providers institutional leaders and policy makers working in the fields of sustainable agriculture and international development and also at agroecologists conservation scientists and those working on ecosystem services Archives, Objects, Places and

Landscapes Manyanga, Munyaradzi, Chirikure, Shadreck, 2017-04-11 Dissatisfaction has matured in Africa and elsewhere around the fact that often the dominant frameworks for interpreting the continent s past are not rooted on the continent s value system and philosophy This creates knowledge that does not make sense especially to local communities The big question therefore is can Africans develop theories that can contribute towards the interpretation of the African past using their own experiences Framed within a concept revision substrate the collection of papers in this thought provoking volume argues for concept revision as a step towards decolonizing knowledge in the post colony The various papers powerfully expose that cleansed knowledge is not only locally relevant it is also locally accessible and globally understandable

Political Ecologies of Meat Jody Emel, Harvey Neo, 2015-05-15 Livestock production worldwide is increasing rapidly in part due to economic growth and demand for meat in industrializing countries Yet there are many concerns about the sustainability of increased meat production and consumption from perspectives including human health animal welfare climate change and environmental pollution This book tackles the key issues of contemporary meat production and consumption through a lens of political ecology which emphasizes the power relations producing particular social economic and cultural interactions with non human nature Three main topics are addressed the political ecology of global livestock production trends changes in production systems around the world and their implications for environmental justice and existing and emerging governance strategies for meat production and consumption systems and their implications Case studies of different systems at varying scales are included drawn from Asia Africa the Americas and Europe The book includes an editorial introduction to set the context and synthesize key messages for the reader

Research Companion to Construction Economics Ofori, George, 2022-03-15 This innovative Research Companion considers the history nature and status of construction economics and its need for development as a field in order to be recognised as a distinct discipline It presents a state of the art review of construction economics identifying areas for further research

ICT and Society Kai Kimppa, Diane Whitehouse, Tiina Kuusela, Jackie Phahlamohlaka, 2014-07-25 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 11th IFIP TC 9 International Conference on Human Choice and Computers HCC11 2014 held in Turku Finland in July August 2014 The 29 revised full papers presented were carefully reviewed and selected from numerous submissions The papers are based on both academic research and the professional experience of information technologists working in the field They have been organized in the following topical sections society social responsibility ethics and ICT the history of computing and its meaning for the future peace war cyber security and ICT and health care well being and ICT

Oral history in South Africa Sekgothe Mokgoatšana, 2025-05-06 Colonial and apartheid era historical narratives in South Africa often disregard oral testimonies leaving significant gaps in understanding the country's rich and complex past This scholarly book explores the methodologies and ethics of oral history to address these omissions and to elevate oral testimonies as vital tools in historical scholarship This book brings together ten chapters authored by leading academics and researchers It critically examines how oral history methodologies can be contextualised within South Africa's diverse and multifaceted society Rather than focusing on Eurocentric approaches it emphasises the need to rethink the ethics and practices of oral history from an Afrocentric perspective Through its transdisciplinary and interdisciplinary lens spanning history indigenous knowledge studies museum and archival studies and folklore this book advocates for the recognition of interviewees as knowledge holders fostering meaningful exchanges rather than mere knowledge extraction The authors emphasise the need to protect and expand oral history archives ensuring the representation of marginalised voices and redressing past injustices With original research this volume sheds light on the transformative potential of oral history in South Africa offering new arguments and perspectives It aims to inspire scholars researchers and specialists to rethink conventional practices and to bridge the divide between written and oral histories This is essential literature for scholars and practitioners in history oral history theology museum studies and related fields as it reimagines the role of oral testimonies in producing inclusive and credible historical narratives

Mud to bricks: A review of school infrastructure spending and delivery Carmen Abdoll, Conrad Barberton, 2014-07-04 The Centre for Child Law commissioned this study by Cornerstone Economic Research to track school infrastructure spending and delivery The report written by Carmen Abdoll and Conrad Barberton makes the concerning finding that the national Department of Basic Education has woefully underspent the School Infrastructure Backlog grant for two years running In 2011 2012 spending was a little over 10 per cent and only at 23 per cent in 2012 2013 at the end of the third quarter The ASIDI target for the number of schools to be built in 2011 2012 and 2012 2013 was

49 However only 10 had been completed by the end of the first year They predict that if the DBE continues at the same delivery rate a realistic timeframe for the eradication of schools with inappropriate structures is probably 2023/24 They make recommendations which if followed could shorten the delay significantly This study shows the importance of monitoring and evaluating progress against court orders and out of court settlements to ensure that the right to a basic education is made real

Annual Report Mpumalanga (South Africa). Department of Education, 2015

Transition and Justice Gerhard Anders, Olaf Zenker, 2014-12-03 Transition and Justice examines a series of cases from across the African continent where peaceful new beginnings were declared after periods of violence and where transitional justice institutions helped define justice and the new socio political order Offers a new perspective on transition and justice in Africa transcending the institutional limits of transitional justice Covers a wide range of situations and presents a broad range of sites where past injustices are addressed Examines cases where peaceful new beginnings have been declared after periods of violence Addresses fundamental questions about transitions and justice in societies characterized by a high degree of external involvement and internal fragmentation

No Last Place to Rest Dineo Skosana, 2025-02 No Last Place to Rest Coal Mining and Dispossession in South Africa is an exploration of the ongoing struggles faced by families whose lives have been upended by the relentless expansion of coal mining operations in the Mpumalanga and KwaZulu Natal provinces These regions burdened with the task of fulfilling the nation's energy needs and boosting the country's economy witness daily the harsh realities of land dispossession that extend far beyond the mere loss of property Dineo Skosana presents a compelling argument that dispossession remains a present day reality and crisis contradicting the notion that it is merely a relic of the past in the post apartheid landscape She challenges the narrow perspective that measures land loss in material and economic terms only By considering the impact of grave relocations a common occurrence in these mining dominated locales she demonstrates the profound spiritual anguish and dehumanisation communities endure as their lands are excavated and families lose their sacred connections with their ancestors Skosana argues that the act of dispossession of both the living and the dead from their land wounds the collective soul of a people eroding their cultural heritage collective identity and sense of belonging This book offers a rich ethnographic account of the experiences struggles and resistance of the affected communities as well as a critical analysis of the legal and policy frameworks that enable their exploitation In relation to the land question in South Africa No Last Place to Rest presents deep insights for communities activists and government sectors acting in support of social justice and redress

The impact of human rights litigation on South Africa's health system Marius Pieterse, 2014-08-01 Can rights cure At a time when South Africa's ailing and dysfunctional health system is on the verge of radical transformation through the mooted introduction of a National Health Insurance scheme and when there are increasing political tensions between government and the courts this book reflects upon the South African experience of judicially enforcing health related constitutional rights It attempts to understand the ways in which rights based litigation has impacted on the operation and transformation of different features of the health system including the formulation and implementation of health laws and policies processes of health resource allocation and rationing the regulation of health care delivery in the private sector and the promotion and protection of public health      "ECEG2016-Proceedings of 16th European Conference on e-Government ECEG 2016 " Mitja De Man, Tina Juki, 2016-06-02      South Africa-China Relations Chris Alden, Yu-Shan Wu, 2021-01-23 With the pace of trade and investment picking up coupled with closer international cooperation with Beijing through the G20 FOCAC and BRICS grouping South Africa China ties are assuming a significant position in continental and even global affairs At the same time it is a relationship of paradoxes breaking with many of the assumptions that underpin contemporary analyses of China Africa ties This edited volume examines the South Africa China relationship through a survey of its diplomatic partnership economic ties and broader community relations These important aspects that are often conflated as a single relationship yet what is important to explore are how these components reflect different China South Africa relationships and how they intersect      Collaborative change: Towards inclusive rural communication services Lie, R.; Acunzo, M.; Cardey, S.; van de Fliert, E.; Tirol, M. S.; Witteveen, L.; Samonte, P.; (eds.), 2024-11-04 This book addresses the demand for evidence based approaches to rural communication services RCS It presents theoretical foundations of RCS and a series of case studies showcasing the appropriation of media by smallholders and the promotion of enabling policy environments Building on the RCS approach promoted by the Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations FAO the 12 contributions included in this book deal with three prominent dimensions 1 the need for theoretical grounding and action research 2 the importance of promoting equality and inclusiveness balancing digital and non digital communication and 3 the importance of addressing capacity infrastructure institutionalization and policy in an integrated manner The book also shows how theoretical contributions inform rural practice and demonstrates how RCS is grounded in and informed by theory In addition it highlights key areas for research capacity development and policy support to operationalize RCS In a nutshell it deepens our understanding of how RCS can be inclusive and drive collaborative change      Infrastructures for Peace in Sub-Saharan Africa Mediel Hove, Geoff

Harris, 2019-06-14 Cultures of violence are characteristic of many countries in sub Saharan Africa and attempts to move towards cultures of peace have often proved difficult and ineffectual And yet the wide variations in levels of violence within and between countries show that it is not inevitable rather it is the result of choices made at individual community and societal levels This book examines the potential of peace infrastructures as vehicles to strengthen and spread progress towards cultures of peace Peace infrastructures vary hugely in sophistication and level The examples examined in this book range from tiny structures which help resolve conflicts between individuals and within community organisations peace committees which serve local communities peace education and peace club programmes in schools mediation mechanisms to prevent election violence and to ministries of peace to coordinate government and non government efforts in peacemaking and peacebuilding The overall finding is that the development of peace infrastructures at all levels has great potential to build cultures of peace 1 It is the only book available which documents the experience and potential of nonviolence in post independence sub Saharan Africa 2 It makes a persuasive case for the development of various peace infrastructures in order to make peace sustainable 3 It explains how strategic planning can be utilised both to bring about change and to institutionalise it      Development: An Antidote For Poverty And Inequality? Adrian Sayers, 2022-12-22 For more than a century development discourse and practices have been central to initiatives to change and improve the human condition in response to poverty deprivation oppression and inequality It has informed public policies and shaped the public institutions charged with its implementation and its relations with various forms of associational life Development An Antidote for Poverty and Inequality Reflections on Governance Planning Impact and Accountability in South Africa circa 1994 to 2020 is an attempt to examine the extent to which this has occurred in South Africa an environment that has been impregnated by burgeoning corruption since 1994 the 2008 global economic crises and most recently the COVID 19 pandemic The pursuit of public policies such as the Reconstruction and Development Programme RDP the National Development Plan NDP as well as other related sectoral policies and legislation all envisaged the development of institutional capacity to facilitate planning and implementation This institutional capacity and resource mobilisation would be enhanced by the formation of partnerships with the private sector civil society However challenges remain in ascertaining progress through the measurement of performance and the evaluation of impacts nationally and in selected regions and local areas This book documents and outlines these challenges      Global perspectives on assistive technology World Health Organization, 2020-03-08
