Industrial Engineering George Worthington,1893      London Awaits Pravin Maharaj,2023-02-01 The day Prem had left India with his young son Aaravi for London it was one of the saddest days in the Sharma family household and all Prem s relatives Even Prem s wife Aarashi s parents brothers and sisters were sad at the airport to send them off abroad As they went away from their sight sniffs with tears of sadness filled the air as it marked a new beginning for father and son and an end of their life in India Prem never knew that the day at the airport was the last time he would have seen his grandfather alive when he touched his feet bowed as he left the airport through the departure gates In London Prem led a life of misery and struggled to find his feet However he made sure that Aaravi was enrolled at a reputable local school They rented a little downtrodden little run down basement flat which was a in the outskirts and cockroaches and mice played where the rubbish bins lay He paid cheap rent which is what he could afford and they lived there for a wee while to get their footing Not too long after Aarashi his wife and Priya his daughter accompanied them in London The family life once again began from its humble beginnings and gradually they moved ahead and their life took a turn The second book London Awaits in which Prem takes great risks and challenges and set out into the shores of England Here he restarts a new life with his wife and three children in the outskirts of London It gives a broad spectrum about what is in store as Prem ventures out into an unknown into a new territory with new vision and adventures that is awaiting him He therefore transcends himself into getting acquainted with a new culture in London with enormous struggles with very humble beginnings In essence the book exemplifies a family bond he always had with his motherland India although he and his family become highly westernized With all the influence that had from their neighbours and friends in a new country their culture religious beliefs and being Indian still remained their driving force dear to their heart The dream is realised when Prem and his family sow the seeds for their future in a new country
