Leonard, 1991-03-14 For the past twenty five years Kenya has progressed while much of Africa has stagnated Instead of the economic disasters underdevelopment and serious food shortages that have plagued its neighbors Kenya has enjoyed an expanding economy and agriculture And instead of a corrupt and incompetent public administration Kenya has established several successful rural development programs run by public servants with integrity and professional commitment What accounts for these Kenyan successes In this innovative study David Leonard illustrates the way public policy is made and implemented in Kenya by focusing on four public officials who have had a great impact on rural development He skillfully weaves his analyses of Kenya s political economic and administrative systems into evocative biographical portraits of Charles Karanja General Manager of the Kenya Tea Development Authority Harris Mule administrative head of Finance and Planning Ishmael Muriithi head of the Veterinary Department and Simeon Nyachae Cabinet Secretary and chief of the Civil Service The result is a fascinating glimpse of Kenyan political life from the inside set in the context of the historical and social forces that have shaped that country s government      Africa ,1966 Includes Proceedings of the Executive council and List of members also section Review of books      Surface Water Records of Georgia ,1979      Preview Brochure to 100 Biographies of Sierra Leone Professional and Business Women Hannah Victoria Lucia Momoh, 1993      The Economist ,1992      Resources in Education ,1992 centuries this sweeping narrative shuttles between the corridors of the Colonial Office in London the contested streets of Durban and the changing power dynamics within the British Raj The first boatload of indentured Indians arrived in Natal in 1860 Thousands were to follow In haunting detail the book captures the plight of these labourers as well as the vicious onslaught faced by the merchant class for daring to outpace their colonial rivals At its core are the untold struggles of Indian South Africans as they confront the ever present threat of repatriation Sensitive to shifting political terrains the book weaves together seismic events the independence of India the coming of apartheid and the threat once more of mass expulsions with the texture of everyday life The granting of citizenship in 1961 is accompanied by mass relocations as the Group Areas Act rips communities from their roots Yet out of this despair barren townships on the edges of cities are turned into places of hope In the final chapters the fall of apartheid offers a moment of transcendence Yet it also asks what does it mean at last to belong It is a fascinating story of the global and the local of resistance and collaboration and undefeated optimism This is a book for anyone who has ever sought a place to
