Business Models , Understanding Contexts Of Business In Western Asia: Land Of Bazaars And High-tech Booms Leo-paul Dana, Aidin Salamzadeh, Veland Ramadani, Ramo Palalic, 2022-05-05 Not one size fits all Yet some books teach business with minimal focus on the context for business In reality firms large and small are highly affected by the context in which they operate yet context is not uniformly conceptualized theorized and operationalized by scholars of business and management While most theories have come from developed countries with bountiful contexts the diverse contexts of Western Asia are little understood Religious factors are profoundly dominant in Western Asia and businesses in this diverse area operate with considerations that are rarely considered in research This book reveals a variety of schools of thought that have molded several business models and mechanisms which are to some extent different from the context of Western economies

Embodied Carbon for

Sustainable Building Conservation Oriel Prizeman, 2025-06-30 This timely volume provides the latest research guidance examples and methods for understanding calculating leveraging and reducing embodied carbon in building conservation In the context of climate change and increasing energy costs imperatives to replace or substantially modify older and historic buildings are rapidly accelerating The idea that a new or replacement building will perform better overlooks the embodied carbon of that which it replaces In effect the pressures of one conservation agenda that of energy efficiency threaten to eclipse another that of heritage The embodied carbon of existing buildings must be addressed if calculations of operational energy use are to be properly balanced In this book an international and multi disciplinary group of authors offer perspectives on the influence and implementation of strategies to account for embodied carbon for the conservation of the historic environment Examples are deliberately diverse and extend beyond buildings to the valorisation of a heritage grassland landscape specifically because of its capacity to store carbon to the fundamental attributes of historic concrete and our responsibility to consider replacement with critical care This book inspires confidence in developing arguments by spreading examples globally and delivering plausible actual narratives alongside clear up to date guidance It brings together international standard setters with practitioners academics and advocates all clearly explained It also illustrates how embodied carbon played a pivotal role in seeking to determine the case of saving Marks and Spencer Oxford Street London from replacement This will be an essential resource for all building conservation and heritage practitioners including building surveyors architects conservators engineers conservation officers building archaeologists and consultants

Eiteman, Arthur I. Stonehill, Michael H. Moffett, 1992      The Routledge Handbook of Financial Literacy Gianni Nicolini, Brenda J. Cude, 2021-12-30 Financial literacy and financial education are not new topics even though interest in these topics among policymakers financial authorities and academics continues to grow The Routledge Handbook of Financial Literacy provides a comprehensive reference work that addresses both research perspectives and practical applications to financial education This is the first volume to summarize the milestones of research in financial literacy from multiple perspectives to offer an overview The book is organized into six parts The first three parts provide a conceptual framework which discusses what financial literacy is how it should be measured and explains why it represents a relevant topic and effective tool in enhancing decision making among consumers as well as consumer protection strategies Part IV addresses the connection between financial education and financial literacy with chapters about financial education in school settings as well as for adults This part includes an analysis of the role of Fintech and the use of gamification in financial education Part V is a collection of contributions that analyze financial literacy and financial education around the world with a focus on geographical areas including the U S South America Western Europe Eastern Europe Asia and Africa This part also considers how financial literacy should be addressed in the case of Islamic finance The concluding part of the book examines how financial literacy is related to other possible approaches to consumer finance and consumer protection addressing the relationships between financial literacy and behavioral economics financial well being and financial inclusion This volume is an indispensable reference for scholars who are new to the topic including undergraduate and graduate students and for experienced researchers who wish to enrich their knowledge policymakers seeking a broader understanding and an international perspective and practitioners who seek knowledge of best practices as well as innovative approaches

Football in Neo-Liberal Times Peter Kennedy, David Kennedy, 2016-02-05 This book offers an original Marxist critique of the European football business It argues that the Marxist account of the difference between profits and surplus value is crucial to an understanding of the fluid and contradictory nature of the commodification of football Section one analyses the nature of modern professional football and section two highlights attempts via government agency and football clubs to corral fans into ever greater identification with business logic aimed at breaking traditional social relations Section three draws on a number of cases studies across Europe to analyse how some fans are attempting to mount a counter ideological response to the assault of neo liberalism on the game      Business World ,2000-07      Information Efficiency and Anomalies in Asian Equity Markets Qaiser Munir, Sook Ching Kok, 2016-10-04 The efficient market hypothesis EMH maintains that all relevant information is fully and immediately reflected in stock prices and that investors will obtain an equilibrium rate of return The EMH has far reaching implications for capital allocation stock price prediction and the effectiveness of specific trading strategies Equity market anomalies reflect that the market is inefficient and hence contradicts the EMH This book gathers both theoretical and practical perspectives by including research issues methodological approaches practical case studies uses of new policy and other points of view related to equity market efficiency to help address the future challenges facing the global equity markets and economies Information Efficiency and Anomalies in Asian Equity Markets Theories and evidence is an insightful resource that will be useful for students academics and professionals alike
