Current Topics in Malaria Alfonso J. Rodriguez-Morales, 2016-11-30 Malaria causes hundreds of thousands of human deaths every year and the World Health Assembly has made it a priority To help eliminate this disease there is a pressing need for the development and implementation of new strategies to improve the prevention and treatment due in part to antimalarial drug resistances This chapter focuses on two strategies to inactivate the malaria parasite in blood which are photodynamic therapy PDT and inhibition of hemozoin formation The PDT strategy permits either a control of the proliferation of mosquito larvae to develop some photolarvicides for the prevention or a photoinactivation of the malaria parasite in red blood cells RBCs to minimize infection transmission by transfusion The inhibition of hemozoin formation strategy is used for the development of new antimalarial drug by understanding its formation mechanism

The National Bibliography of Nigeria, 1988

Nigeria's Fourth Republic, 1999-2021 Michael Nwankpa, 2022-11-18 This book reflects on Nigeria's fourth republic the country's longest democratic period since it gained independence from Great Britain It argues that although constitutional or political democracy has lasted for over two decades in Nigeria and seen three successful democratic changes of power Nigeria's democracy remains largely militarised During Nigeria's fourth republic political and socio economic affairs have been increasingly dominated by a pervasive military presence and ideology which has seen a redistribution of resources and government funds away from social programmes into an increase in security budgets weapons proliferation and internal military interventions and occupations This institutionalisation of violence has turned the country into a national security state where the rule of force and violence rather than dialogue and compassion reflect everyday reality Whilst acknowledging the history of militarisation during colonial and military rule this book makes a compelling argument for considering the distinct character of the Nigerian nation state's path to militarisation over the last 20 years of experimentation with democracy This book's fresh insights into the fourth republic's path to militarisation will be of interest to researchers of African politics security and development

Contemporary Issues in International Law B.C. Nirmal, Rajnish Kumar Singh, 2018-02-13 This book explores the changing nature of international law and its ability to respond to the contemporary issues related to international environment trade and information technology The evolution of international law has reached a stage where we are witnessing diminishing power of the state and its capacity to deal with the economic matters challenging the existing notions of territory and sovereignty Recent trends in international law and international relations show that states no longer have exclusive control over the decision making process at the global level Keeping this in mind the book brings together the perspectives of various international and national scholars The book considers diverse issues such as sustainable development climate change global warming Rio 20 technology transfer agro biodiversity and genetic resource authority for protection of environment human right to water globalization human rights sui generis options in IP laws impact of liberalization on higher education regulation of international trade intellectual property rights collective administration of copyright broadcast reproduction rights implementation of copyright law communication rights under copyright law arbitration for IP disputes doctrine of exhaustion of rights trans border reputation of trademark information as an asset cyber obscenity and pornography e governance taxation of e commerce computer crime information technology domain names research excellence in legal education ideological perspective on legal education challenges for law teachers and clinical legal education The topics though diverse are closely interrelated with the common concern throughout being that the global environment international trade information technology and legal education need appropriate national normative and institutional responses as well as the global cooperation of members of the international community Presenting reflections of a number of Asian African and European scholars on these varied facets the book is of great value to scholars practitioners teachers and students associated with contemporary international law
