Merry, 2005-06-08 In Sands of Empire veteran political journalist and award winning author Robert W Merry examines the misguided concepts that have fueled American foreign policy since the end of the Cold War The emergence in the George W Bush administration of America as Crusader State bent on remaking the world in its preferred image is dangerous and self defeating he points out Moreover these grand scale flights of interventionism regime change and the use of pre emptive armed force are without precedent in American history Merry offers a spirited description of a powerful political core whose ideas have replaced conservative reservations about utopian visions these neocons who embrace a brave new world in which American exceptionalism holds sway imagining that others around the globe can be made to abandon their cultures in favor of our ideals He traces the strains of Wilsonism that have now merged into an adventurous and hazardous foreign policy particularly as described by William Kristol Francis Fukuyama Max Boot and Paul Wolfowitz among others He examines the challenge of Samuel Huntington s supposition that the clash of civilizations defines present and future world conflict And he rejects the notion of The New York Times s Thomas L Friedman that America is not only the world s role model for globally integrated free market capitalism but that it has a responsibility to foster support and sustain globalization worldwide From the first president Bush to Clinton to the second Bush presidency the United States has compromised its global leadership endangered its security and failed to meet the standard of justified intervention Merry suggests The country must reset its global strategies to protect its interests and the West s to maintain stability in strategic areas and to fight radical threats with arms if necessary For anything less than these necessities

American blood should remain in American veins      An Introduction to Literature, Criticism and Theory Andrew

Bennett, Nicholas Royle, 2014-07-10 Fresh original and compelling An Introduction to Literature Criticism and Theory is the essential guide to literary studies Starting at the beginning and concluding with the end the book covers topics that range from the familiar character narrative the author to the more unusual secrets pleasure ghosts Eschewing abstract isms Bennett and Royle successfully illuminate complex ideas by engaging directly with literary works so that a reading of Jane Eyre opens up ways of thinking about racial difference whilst Chaucer Raymond Chandler and Monty Python are all invoked in a discussion of literary laughter Each chapter ends with a narrative guide to further reading and the book also includes a glossary and bibliography The fourth edition has been revised to incorporate two timely new chapters on animals and the environment A breath of fresh air in a field that can often seem dry and dauntingly theoretical this book will open the reader's eyes to the exhilarating possibilities of both reading and studying literature A Visitable Past Margaretta M.

Lovell,1989-04-13 In this ambitious and imaginative study Margaretta M Lovell analyzes the large body of accomplished sometimes startling often brilliant work of American artists drawn to Venice's ragged splendor in the last century Including major works by such diverse and talented painters as James McNeill Whistler John Singer Sargent and Maurice Prendergast these richly varied paintings portray sleepy canals architectural monuments and scenes of picturesque everyday life while they also reveal surprising aspects of American culture Engaging English Coursebook 8 Preeti Roychoudhury,Sadeqa

After Preservation Ben A. Minter,Stephen J. Pyne,2015-03-25 From John Muir to David Brower from the creation of Yellowstone National Park to the Endangered Species Act environmentalism in America has always had close to its core a preservationist ideal Generations have been inspired by its ethos to encircle nature with our protection to keep it apart pristine walled against the march of human development But we have to face the facts Accelerating climate change rapid urbanization agricultural and industrial devastation metastasizing fire regimes and other quickening anthropogenic forces all attest to the same truth the earth is now spinning through the age of humans After Preservation takes stock of the ways we have tried to both preserve and exploit nature to ask a direct but profound question what is the role of preservationism in an era of seemingly unstoppable human development in what some have called the Anthropocene Ben A Minter and Stephen J Pyne bring together a stunning consortium of voices comprised of renowned scientists historians philosophers environmental writers activists policy makers and land managers to negotiate the incredible challenges that environmentalism faces Some call for a new post preservationist model one that is far more pragmatic interventionist and human centered Others push forcefully back arguing for a more chastened and restrained vision of human action on the earth Some try to establish a middle ground while others ruminate more deeply on the meaning and value of wilderness Some write on species lost others on species saved and yet others discuss the enduring practical challenges of managing our land water and air From spirited optimism to careful prudence to critical skepticism the resulting range of approaches offers an inspiring contribution to the landscape of modern environmentalism one driven by serious sustained engagements with the critical problems we must solve if we and the wild garden we may now keep are going to survive the era we have ushered in Contributors include Chelsea K Batavia F Stuart Terry Chapin III Norman L Christensen Jamie Rappaport Clark William Wallace Covington Erle C Ellis Mark Fiege Dave Foreman Harry W Greene Emma Marris Michelle Marvier Bill McKibben J R McNeill Curt Meine Ben A Minter Michael Paul Nelson Bryan Norton Stephen J Pyne Andrew C Revkin Holmes Rolston III Amy Seidl Jack Ward Thomas Diane J Vosick John A Vucetich Hazel Wong and Donald Worster
