Aids And Rural Livelihoods Dynamics And Diversity In Sub Saharan Africa:

AIDS and Rural Livelihoods Anke Niehof, Gabriel Rugalema, 2019-01-15 AIDS epidemics continue to threaten the livelihoods of millions of people in sub Saharan Africa Three decades after the disease was first recognized the annual death toll from AIDS exceeds that from wars famine and floods combined Yet despite millions of dollars of aid and research there has previously been little detailed on the ground analysis of the multifaceted impacts on rural people Filling that gap this book brings together recent evidence of AIDS impacts on rural households livelihoods and agricultural practice in sub Saharan Africa There is particular emphasis on the role of women in affected households and on the situation of children The book is unique in presenting micro level information collected by original empirical research in a range of African countries and showing how well grounded conclusions on trends impacts and local responses can be applied to the design of HIV responsive policies and programmes AIDS impacts are more diverse than we previously thought and local responses more varied sometimes innovative sometimes desperate The book represents a major contribution to our understanding of the impacts of AIDS in the epidemic s heartland and how these can be managed at different levels Ex-post impact assessment review of the Regional Network on AIDS, Livelihoods, and Food Security (RENEWAL) Frankenberger, Tim, Nelson, Suzanne, 2012-02-16 The Regional Network on AIDS Livelihoods and Food Security RENEWAL was officially launched in 2001 as a joint project of the International Food Policy Research Institute IFPRI and the International Service for National Agricultural Research ISNAR and was operational in Malawi Uganda Kenya Zambia and South Africa through most of 2011 RENEWAL is a network of networks comprised of national networks of food and nutrition relevant organizations along with partners in AIDS and public health practitioners Its overarching goal is to provide evidence based research on the linkages between HIV food security and nutrition in Sub Saharan Africa that would inform responses to prevent or mitigate the impact and consequences of AIDS RENEWAL s three main objectives are 1 to reduce critical gaps in understanding how livelihoods particularly those deriving from agriculture both contribute to the spread of HIV and are affected by HIV and AIDS 2 to generate new policy relevant knowledge on how households and communities may strengthen both their resistance to HIV transmission and their resilience to the impacts of AIDS and 3 to enable relevant institutions particularly governments to generate and act upon realistic priorities for responding to the interaction of the AIDS epidemic with food and nutrition insecurity RENEWAL s strategic approach to achieving these goals involved the three core pillars of capacity strengthening policy communications and action research and the synergies resulting from their interactions This report assesses the impact of RENEWAL activities from 2000 to 2010 and is based on a review of products resulting from RENEWAL activities such as books policy briefs workshop summaries reports and discussion papers stakeholder perceptions of RENEWAL products and activities and national policy or programming changes resulting from RENEWAL supported action research capacity strengthening efforts and policy communications Parts and Wholes Laila Prager, Michael Prager, Guido

Sprenger,2016 This festschrift for Josephus D M Platenkamp brings some central concerns of anthropology into focus social morphology exchange cosmology history and practical applications Ranging across several disciplines and continents but with a preference for Southeast Asia the contributions look at a common approach that unites these diverse themes In this view the most constitutive relationships of society are based on exchange Exchange and ritual articulate central values of a society thus appearing as parts in relationship to a whole These relationships encompass both human and non human beings the social and the cosmological domain Thus the study of these subject issues merges into a single project Series

Stuart Gillespie,2025-09-02 Scholarly literate and deeply moving this isn t just a good read it s an essential reference for anyone hoping to understand the food system why it s broken and how we might imagine fixing it Chris Van Tulleken author of Ultra Processed People Food is life but our food system is killing us Designed in a different century for a different purpose to mass produce cheap calories to prevent famine it s now generating obesity ill health and premature death We need to transform it into one that is capable of nourishing all eight billion of us and the planet we live on In Food Fight Stuart Gillespie reveals how the food system we once relied upon for global nutrition has warped into the very thing making us sick From its origins in colonial plunder through the last few decades of neoliberalism the system now lies in the tight grip of a handful of powerful transnationals whose playbook is geared to profit at any cost Both unflinching expos and revolutionary call to arms Food Fight shines a light inside the black box of politics and power and crucially maps a way towards a new system that gives us hope for a future of global health and justice RethinkHIV Bjørn Lomborg,2012-10-18 A timely

Land, the State and the Unfinished Decolonisation Project in Africa

Chitonge, Horman, Mine, Yoichi, 2019-06-25 This book focuses on the work of one of the leading African scholars on the land question and agrarian transformation in Africa Sam Moyo It offers a critical discussion in conversation with Sam Moyo of the land question and the response of African states Since independence African states have been trying to address the colonial legacy on land policy and governance After six decades of formulating and implementing land reforms most countries have not succeeded in decolonising approaches to land policy and the administrative framework The book brings together the broader debates on the implications of decolonisation of Africa's land policy Through case studies from several African countries the book offers an empirical analysis on land reforms and the emerging land relations and how these affect land allocation and use including agricultural production Most of the chapters discuss how the unresolved land question in post colonial Africa impacts on agricultural production and rural development broadly The failure to decolonise colonial land policy and the imported tenure systems has left post colonial African states dancing to two tunes resulting in schizophrenic land and agrarian policies The book demonstrates that the failure by African states to reconcile imported and indigenous land tenure systems and practices is evident in the deliberate denigration of customary tenure It is also evident in the rising land inequality and the neglect of the agricultural sector the small scale and subsistence sub sectors in particular

Carja Butijn, Johan van Ophem, Gerda Casimir, 2013-05-30 In The arena of everyday life nine authors look back and forward at developments in the sociology of consumers and households Nine chapters show variety in the employed methods from multivariate analyses of survey data to classical essays The contributions are organised around four themes In the first theme two chapters entail a critical discussion of the concepts livelihood and household The second part deals with health in particular food security hygiene and aids HIV The third theme focuses on female opportunities to foster income procurement of household by respectively microfinance and entrepreneurship The fourth theme concentrates on two topical societal developments in a Western society the first chapter dealing with the issue of creating opportunities for tailor made services to older people the second one focussing on the home work balance of telecommuters This publication written by international researchers once supervised by prof Anke Niehof while writing their PhD dissertation or former colleagues of Niehof covers the many issues and reflecting her work and interest The arena of everyday life is what her research and teaching evolved around as shown in this book

Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa Kathleen Sheldon, 2016-03-04 African women s history is a vast topic that embraces a wide variety of societies in over 50 countries with different geographies social customs religions and historical situations Africa is a predominantly agricultural continent and a major factor in African agriculture is the central role of women as farmers It is estimated that between 65 and 80 percent of African women are engaged in cultivating food for their families and in the past that percentage was likely even higher Thus one common thread across much of the continent is women s daily work in their family plot This second edition of Historical Dictionary of Women in Sub-Saharan Africa contains a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 700 cross referenced entries on individual African women in history politics religion and the arts on important events organizations and publications and on topics important to women in general marriage fertility employment and to African women in particular market women child marriage queen mothers This book is an excellent access point for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about the Women in Africa

Ethics of Care Barnes, Marian, Brannelly, Tula, Lizzie Ward, Nicki Ward, 2015-10-28 Over the last twenty years research on feminist care ethics has flourished and this collection makes a unique contribution to that body of work Drawing on a wealth of practical experience across eight different disciplinary fields the international contributors demonstrate the significance of care ethics as a transformative way of thinking across diverse geographical political and interpersonal contexts From an analysis of global responsibilities to a reimagining of care from the perspective of people with learning disabilities each chapter highlights the necessity of thinking about the ethics of care within policies and practice

Transfrontier Conservation Areas Jens Andersson, Michel de Garine-Wichatitsky, David Cumming, Vupenyu Dzingirai, Ken Giller, 2017-07-14 The introduction of transfrontier conservation areas TFCAs in southern Africa was based on an enchanting promise simultaneously contributing to global biodiversity conservation initiatives regional peace and integration and the sustainable socio economic development of rural communities Cross border collaboration and eco tourism became seen as the vehicles of this promise which would enhance regional peace and stability along the way However as these highly political projects take shape conservation and development policymaking progressively shifts from the national to regional and global arenas and the peoples most affected by TFCA formation tend to disappear from view This book focuses on the forgotten people displaced by or living on the edge of protected wildlife areas It moves beyond the grand enchanting promise of conservation and development across frontiers and unfounded notions of TFCAs as integrated social ecological systems Peoples dependency on natural resources the specific combination of crop cultivation livestock keeping and natural resource harvesting activities varies enormously along the conservation frontier as does their reliance on resources on the other side of the conservation boundary Hence the studies in this book move from the dream of eco tourism fuelled development supporting nature conservation and people towards the local realities facing marginalized people living adjacent to protected areas in environments often poorly suited to agriculture Household Livelihoods in Semi-arid Regions: Options and Constraints B.M. Campbell, S. Jeffrey, W. Kozanayi, M. Luckert, M. Mutamba, C. Zindi, 2002-01-01 The study sites Methods The wealth index and its variation Human financial physical and natural capital the assets available to households Households productive activities the generation of cash and subsistence gross income Exploring household strategies Net income and poverty Temporal changes in livelihood strategies Modelling livelihood change Making a difference World Bank Assistance to Agriculture in Sub-Saharan Africa, 2007-01-01 Sub Saharan Africa is a critical development priority it has some of the world's poorest countries and during the past two decades the number of poor in the Region has doubled to 300 million more than 40 percent of the Region's population Africa remains behind on most of the Millennium Development Goals MDGs and is unlikely to reach them by 2015 With some of the world's poorest countries Africa is a development priority for the donor community A major drag on Africa's development is the underperformance of the critical agriculture sector which has been neglected both by donors and governments over the past two decades The sector faces a variety of constraints that are particular to agriculture in Africa and make its development a complex challenge Poor governance and conflict in several countries further complicate matters IEG has assessed the development effectiveness of World Bank assistance in addressing constraints to agricultural development in Africa over the period of fiscal 1991 2006 Single women, land and livelihood vulnerability in a communal area in Zimbabwe Gaynor Gamuchirai Makura-Paradza, 2023-09-04 There has been limited research on single women in customary tenure areas Single women's experiences have been marginalized in research that focuses on notions of property male headed domestic units and relies on normative research methods to investigate resource access in the communal farming areas of Zimbabwe This work focuses on the hearth hold as a domestic unit and uses innovative research methods to investigate how women outside the marriage institution negotiate access to land livelihood resources and make decisions to cope with livelihood vulnerability in customary tenure areas The research illustrates through a focus on pathways and rural urban connections how single women make decisions to secure livelihoods under fast changing conditions The findings that patriarchy is only one but not the only institution governing land access in customary tenure areas and that women have more room to negotiate land access in communal areas especially through entitlements family obligations and exploitation of multi layered tenure systems are some of the publication's contribution to knowledge on single women customary land tenure and livelihood vulnerability Adoption of agricultural innovations by smallholder farmers in the context of HIV/AIDS Faith N. Nguthi, 2023-08-28 Using tissue cultured technology is a potentially important way for smallholder banana farmers to improve their yields and income In the situation of the impoverishing effects of high HIV AIDS prevalence in a rural banana farming community this applies even more The research documented in this book examines the balance between required inputs and potential benefits of applying the tissue cultured technology among HIV AIDS affected and non affected households in Maragua district Central Kenya using a livelihood approach The results show that adoption of the technology and its continued use differs according to the resources endowment of the farming households Lack of financial and physical capital notably a water tank inhibits adoption irrespective of HIV AIDS status However households headed by elderly females dominate among the poor households and the HIV AIDS affected households This illustrates how HIV AIDS interfaces with poverty and thereby indirectly with the feasibility of sustainable technology adoption The research also shows that livelihood decisions and strategies of farming households are influenced by land tenure status having title deeds or not and labour constraints at the household level The latter arise as a consequence of HIV AIDS related morbidity and mortality

Gender, AIDS and food security Mariame Maiga, 2023-09-04 This book is about the effects of AIDS on women and food security in Cote d'Ivoire West Africa AIDS is more than a health problem Rural households and women in particular have to cope with the lack of labour in agriculture which threatens their food security For the matrilineal Agni women land ownership appears to be an unexpected burden rather than a safeguard from poverty Culture matters but not in similar ways everywhere Matrilineal or patrilineal kinship organisation gender inequality and norms about sexual relationships very much influence the differences in Agni and migrant women's vulnerability to AIDS African women are often seen as victims of AIDS This study shows that women may also use their creativity and social networks to battle and to be resilient against the effects of the illness in their everyday household activities Using a combination of quantitative statistical data and qualitative methods this research questions the effectiveness of mainstream AIDS policy and interventions in Cote d'Ivoire Victimising the poor does not help Instead multi sector policy intervention can mitigate the social effects of AIDS by improving household food security and by changing cultural practices through local leaders who have historical legitimacy and power

The State of Food Insecurity in the World 2011 Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2011-12-30 The State of Food Insecurity in the World 2011 highlights the differential impacts that the world food crisis of 2006-08 had on different countries with the poorest being most affected While some large countries were able to deal with the worst of the crisis people in many small import dependent countries experienced large price increases that even when only temporary can have permanent effects on their future earnings capacity and ability to escape poverty This year's report focuses on the costs of food price volatility as well as the dangers and opportunities presented by high food prices Climate change and an increased frequency of weather shocks increased linkages between energy and agricultural markets due to growing demand for biofuels and increased financialization of food and agricultural commodities all suggest that price volatility is here to stay The report describes the effects of price volatility on food security and presents policy options to reduce v

Shackleton, 2018-11-23 This book narrates personal stories of people from around the world who have used natural products in particular Non Timber Forest Products NTFPs as a means to come out of poverty Ending poverty remains a major worldwide challenge and is the number one goal under the UN Sustainable Development Goals The book fills an important knowledge gap that of personal stories of NTFP users This has not been part of past publications on NTFPs which tend to focus on statistics and analysis of numbers thus the human faces of NTFP users are missing Narrative stories provide a wealth of data about people and their experiences rather than aggregated classifications categories and characteristics of poverty The objective of this book is to illustrate the poverty alleviation potential of NTFPs through documenting the personal life stories of individuals and households that lifted themselves out of poverty through trade of NTFPs This book is for all who are interested in poverty alleviation and NTFPs
