Aiding Violence The Development Enterprise In Rwanda:

Aiding Violence Peter Uvin,1998 Includes statistics Aiding Violence Peter Uvin,1998 Includes statistics Rwanda Fast Forward Patrick Noack,2012-07-31 The authors explore the outlook of Rwanda in the context of development of East Africa and Sub Saharan Africa They examine Rwanda s vision achievements and uncertainties in terms of national unity institutional leadership the spectre of industrial policy and economic development perceptions of civil society engagement etc The Selfish Altruist Tony Vaux,2013-06-17 Provides an analysis of some of the most traumatic situations involving famine and war of the last two decades helping us to understand what it takes to be an aid worker and how important humanitarian action is today Famine and war evoke strong emotional reactions and for most people there is a limited amount they can do But the relief worker has to convert emotional responses into practical action and difficult choices whom to help and how Their own feelings have to motivate action for others But can they separate out their own selfish feelings and prejudices in such an emotive climate How do they avoid being partial among those they are helping Are they motivated by altruistic concern or the power they experience or the attention they receive Tony Vaux brings over 20 years experience as one of Oxfam s leading emergency managers to the exploration of the conflicts between subjective impulses and objective judgements and the dilemmas relief workers contend with Genocide in Cambodia and Rwanda Susan E. Cook,2017-07-05 This volume deals with aspects of genocide in Rwanda and Cambodia that have been largely unexplored to date including the impact of regional politics and the role played by social institutions in perpetrating genocide Although the story of the Cambodian genocide of 1975 1979 and that of the Rwandan genocide of 1994 have been written about in detail most have focused on how the genocides took place what the ideas and motives were that led extremist factions to attempt to kill whole sections of their country s population and who their victims were This volume builds on our understanding of genocide in Cambodia and Rwanda by bringing new issues sources and approaches into focus The chapters in this book are grouped so that a single theme is explored in both the Cambodian and Rwandan contexts their ordering is designed to facilitate comparative analysis The first three chapters emphasize the importance of political discourse in the genocidal process Chapters 4 and 5 examine social institutions and explore their role in the genocidal process Chapters 6 and 7 describe the military trajectories of the genocidal regimes in Cambodia and Rwanda after their overthrow showing that genocide and genocidal intents as a political program do not cease the moment the massacres subside The final chapters deal with private and public efforts to memorialize the genocides in the months and years following the killing Drawing on ten years of genocide studies at Yale this excellent anthology assembles high quality new research from a variety of continents disciplines and languages It will be an important addition to ongoing research on genocide Refugee Crises, 1945-2000 Jan C. Jansen,Simone Lässig,2020-10 This timely study explores how societies have responded to mass inflows of refugees between 1945 and 2000 Everyday State and Democracy in Africa Wale Adebani,2022-07-12 Bottom up case studies drawn from the perspective of ordinary Africans experiences with state bureaucracies structures and services reveal how citizens and states define each other This volume examines contemporary citizens everyday encounters with the state and democratic processes in Africa The contributions reveal the intricate and complex ways in which quotidian activities and experiences from getting an identification card genuine or fake to sourcing black market commodities to dealing with unreliable waste collection both re produce and re constitute the state and democracy This approach from below lends gravity to the mundane and recognizes the value of conceiving state governance not in terms of its stated promises and aspirations but rather in accordance with how people experience it Both new and established scholars based in Africa Europe and North America cover a wide range of examples from across the continent including bureaucratic machinery in South Sudan Nigeria and Kenya infrastructure and shortages in Chad and Nigeria disciplinarity subjectivity and violence in Rwanda South Africa and Nigeria the social life of democracy in the Congo Cameroon and Mozambique education welfare and health in Ethiopia the Democratic Republic of Congo and Burkina Faso Everyday State and Democracy in Africa demonstrates that ordinary citizens encounters with state agencies and institutions define the meanings discourses practices and significance of democratic life as well its distressing realities Contributors Daniel Agbiboa Victoria Bernal Jean Comaroff John L Comaroff E Fouksman Fred Ikanda Lori Leonard Rose L vgren Ferenc D vid Mark Ebenezer Obadare Rogers Oroch Justin Pearce Katrien Pype Edoardo Quaretta Jennifer Riggan Helle Samuelson Nicholas Rush Smith Eric Trovalla Ulrika Trovalla     Responsibility to Protect Rama Mani, Thomas G. Weiss, 2013-03 This volume explores in a novel and challenging way the emerging norm of the Responsibility to Protect R2P initially adopted by the United Nations World Summit in 2005 following significant debate throughout the preceding decade This work seeks to uncover whether this norm and its founding values have resonance and grounding within diverse cultures and within the experiences of societies that have directly been torn apart by mass atrocity crimes The contributors to this collection analyze the responsibility to protect through multiple disciplines philosophy religion and spirituality anthropology and aesthetics in addition to international relations and law to explore what light alternative perspectives outside of political science and international relations shed upon this emerging norm In each case the disciplinary analysis emanates from the global South and from scholars located within countries that experienced violent political upheaval Hence they draw upon not only theory but also the first hand experience with conscience shocking crimes Their retrospective and prospective analyses could and should help shape the future implementation of R2P in accordance with insights from vastly different contexts Offering a cutting edge contribution to thinking in the area this is essential reading for all those with an interest in humanitarian intervention peace and conflict studies critical security studies and peacebuilding     Remediation in Rwanda Kristin Doughty, 2016-04-22 This book examines how Rwandans navigated their encounters with grassroots courts purportedly designed to rebuild the social fabric in the wake of the 1994 genocide From the publisher     Eco-Reformation Lisa E. Dahill, Jim B. Martin-Schramm, 2016-10-31 In 2017 Christians around the world will mark the five hundredth anniversary of the Reformation In the midst of many appeals for reformation today a growing number of theologians scholars and activists around the world believe Reformation celebrations in 2017 and beyond need to focus now on the urgent need for an Eco Reformation The rise of industrial fossil fuel driven capitalism and the explosive growth in human population endanger the fundamental planetary life support systems on which life as we know it has evolved The collective impact of human production consumption and reproduction is undermining the ecological systems that support human life on Earth If human beings do not reform their relationship with God s creation unspeakable suffering will befall many especially the weakest and most vulnerable among all species The conviction at the heart of this collection of essays is that a gospel call for ecological justice belongs at the heart of the five hundredth anniversary observance of the Reformation in 2017 and as a if not the central dimension of Christian conversion faith and practice into the foreseeable future Like Luther s Ninety Five Theses this volume brings together critical biblical pastoral theological historical and ethical perspectives that constructively advance the vision of a socially and ecologically flourishing Earth

The Gacaca Courts, Post-Genocide Justice and Reconciliation in Rwanda Phil Clark, 2010-09-09 Since 2001 the Gacaca community courts have been the centrepiece of Rwanda s justice and reconciliation programme Nearly every adult Rwandan has participated in the trials principally by providing eyewitness testimony concerning genocide crimes Lawyers are banned from any official involvement an issue that has generated sustained criticism from human rights organisations and international scepticism regarding Gacaca s efficacy Drawing on more than six years of fieldwork in Rwanda and nearly five hundred interviews with participants in trials this in depth ethnographic investigation of a complex transitional justice institution explores the ways in which Rwandans interpret Gacaca Its conclusions provide indispensable insight into post genocide justice and reconciliation as well as the population s views on the future of Rwanda itself

Investing in Authoritarian Rule Anuradha Chakravarty, 2016 This book shows how Rwanda s mass courts for genocide crimes helped ensure political stability and authoritarian control for Rwandan elites

Narrating and Teaching the Nation Denise Bentrovato, 2016-02-15 The book investigates the politics of education in pre and post genocide Rwanda examining the actors interests and discourses that have historically influenced educational policy and practice and in particular the production and revision of history curricula and textbooks This study combines a systematic historical and comparative analysis of curricula and textbooks in Rwanda stakeholder interviews classroom observations and a large scale investigation of pupils understandings of the country s history Written at a crucial time of transition in Rwanda it illuminates the role of education as a powerful means of socialisation through which dominant discourses and related belief systems have been transmitted to the younger generations thus moulding the nation It outlines emergent challenges and possibilities urging a move away from the use of history teaching to disseminate a conveniently selective official history towards practices that promote critical thinking and reflect the heterogeneity characteristic of Rwanda s post genocide society

in Rwanda David E. Kiwuwa, 2012 This book offers an examination of how a deeply divided post conflict society embarks on democratic transition Using Rwanda as the case study it combines analysis of democratic transition and ethno-political debate asking why deeply divided ethnic societies have a tendency to fail Though marginalised in existing literature on democratic transition this path breaking book shows how ethnicity has a significant impact on the direction and success of democratic process The initial failure of democratic transition in Rwanda shows that the current regime will need to be sensitive to ethnicity ethno-political consciousness and mobility in order to be successful in its second transition attempt Based on key informant interviews participant observation and primary resources this book develops beyond the case study of Rwanda to posit a new framework that integrates variables of unity equality trust and institutional engineering in an integrative model to study and evaluate democratic transition in divided or post conflict society Ethnic Politics and Democratic Transition in Rwanda will be of interest to students and scholars of democratization democracy and ethnic politics and conflict

Diplomatic Strategies of Rising Nations in the Global South Jacqueline Anne Braveboy-Wagner, 2024-07-12 At a time of change in the international system this book examines how non traditional leading nations from the Global South have fared to date and what the chances are of their rise to continue In the second decade of the twenty first century the enthusiasm of observers of the international scene about the rise of the rest is waning as many countries that were expected to lead the evolving multipolar order are experiencing economic contraction and governance problems In order to predict further developments the contributors to this volume focus on the types and sources of the diplomatic strategies that must be executed by rising states if they are to preserve domestic advances as well as gain influence regionally and internationally Through a comprehensive examination of case studies from Latin America Africa Asia and the Middle East they show that while there are commonalities among these rising states unique domestic conditions values and traditions impact and predict diplomatic strategizing and the ability for sustained projection on the international scene Doing Justice to

History Barrie Sander, 2021 This book examines how historical narratives of mass atrocities are constructed and contested within international criminal courts In particular it looks into the important question of what tends to be foregrounded and what tends to be excluded in these narratives Reading Humanitarian Intervention Anne Orford, 2003-06-26 During the 1990s humanitarian intervention seemed to promise a world in which democracy self determination and human rights would be privileged over national interests or imperial ambitions Orford provides critical readings of the narratives that accompanied such interventions and shaped legal justifications for the use of force by the international community Through a close reading of legal texts and institutional practice she argues that a far more circumscribed exploitative and conservative interpretation of the ends of intervention was adopted during this period The book draws on a wide range of sources including critical legal theory feminist and postcolonial theory psychoanalytic theory and critical geography to develop ways of reading directed at thinking through the cultural and economic effects of militarized humanitarianism The book concludes by asking what if anything has been lost in the move from the era of humanitarian intervention to an international relations dominated by wars on terror      The Failure to Prevent Genocide in Rwanda Frederik Grünfeld, Anke Huijboom, 2007 This volume is about the failure to prevent genocide in Rwanda in 1994 In particular the research focuses on why the early warnings of an emerging genocide were not translated into early preventative action The warnings were well documented by the most authoritative source the Canadian U N peace keeping commander General Romeo Dallaire and sent to the leading political civil servants in New York The communications and the decisionmaking are scrutinized i e who received what messages at what time to whom the messages were forwarded and which non decisions were taken in response to the alarming reports of weapon deliveries and atrocities This book makes clear that this genocide could have been prevented Published under the Transnational Publishers imprint      The Media and the Rwanda Genocide Allan Thompson, 2007-01-20 Explores the role of the media in the Rwandan genocide within the country and beyond      Killing Sub-Saharan Africa with Aid Humphrey Orijiako, 2001 Annotation Orijiako who is not identified examines the hypothesis that rather than promoting growth and development in sub Saharan Africa foreign aid interventions may have contributed in no small measure to the poor performance of the region s economies Challenging conventional views that problems are technical details of delivery or administration he suggests that an economy operating under appropriate circumstances and conditions may not require foreign aid to succeed and presents historical records common sense and cognate experiments to bolster the view c Book News Inc
