Written by one of the world's foremost authorities on Shelby automobiles critically acclaimed author Colin Comer and with a foreword by Lee Iacocca the American automobile executive credited with the successful development of the Mustang this is the definitive account of the Shelby. When Ford wanted to toughen up its super successful new Mustang they approached Carroll Shelby to give it the performance image it so sorely lacked. Beginning with a 1965 K Code 289 cubic inch powered Mustang fastback Shelby applied the same formula that had made his Cobra sports cars such devastating performers both on and off the track more horsepower less weight balanced handling. The GT350 quickly established itself as a bonafide force in SCCA B Production racing twisting back roads and boulevards alike setting the course for future Shelby Mustangs like the big block GT500. Though those original Shelby Mustangs were done by 1970 Ford dusted off its Shelby relationship in 2006 and has been producing high performance Ford Mustang Shelybs ever since. system to identify and account for each aircraft in service This system started with A1 A2 A3 etc as each type of aircraft came into service Each individual aircraft within each series was identified as A1 1 A1 2 and so on and the aircraft serial became known colloquially as the A number With some exceptions over the century since the A number system started aircraft entered RAAF service in broadly the sequence of the A numbers and so this book is intended to assist in charting the 100 year history of the RAAF by listing aircraft operated in A number sequence rather than by listing them by role such as Fighter Bomber Maritime Trainer Transport etc or alphabetically by name or by manufacturer The inclusion of a comprehensive Index and the Quick Reference Guide to aircraft by role is intended to facilitate the location of the entry for any specific type of aircraft for those who may not already know its A number Aircraft of The Royal Australian Air Force is a must have for all those who have served in the RAAF those with a passion for military aviation and aircraft in general and the broader members of the public wishing to gain an appreciation of the Royal Australian Air Force in its centenary year
