

Towards sustainable management of land and soil

Europe's land and soil face a number of pressures, including urban expansion, contamination from agriculture and industry, soil sealing, landscape fragmentation, low crop diversity, soil erosion and extreme weather events linked to climate change.

Greater cities with cleaner energy and transport systems, a green infrastructure connecting green areas, less intensive sustainable agricultural practices can help make Europe's land use more sustainable and soils healthier.

Land Use Environment And Social Change:

Land Use, Environment, and Social Change Richard White, 2000-12-01 Whidbey and Camano two of the largest of the numerous beautiful islands dotting Puget Sound together form the major part of Island Country Taking this county as a case study and following its history from Indian times to the present Richard White explores the complex relationship between human induced environmental change and social change This new edition of his classic study includes a new preface by the author and a foreword by William Cronon A Brief History of Vashon Island Bruce Haulman, 2016-05-09 Reachable only by ferry Vashon Island is a breathtaking rural retreat from the bustling activity of nearby Seattle and Tacoma The island's first inhabitants the sxbab took advantage of its evergreen forests and rich marine resources In 1792 George Vancouver was the first Anglo to discover the island and named it after Captain James Vashon By the late 1800s the first white settlers had established farms and greenhouses that supplied nearby cities with berries tomatoes and cucumbers Ferries drove development in the later half of the century introducing new industries and tourism to the area While both influenced by and isolated from the mainland the island developed its own unique character treasured by locals Merging human and natural history author Bruce Haulman presents the rich heritage of this thriving community Environmental Problems in America's Garden of Eden Gordon Morris Bakken, Brenda Farrington, 2001 This anthology examines Love's Labours Lost from a variety of perspectives and through a wide range of materials Selections discuss the play in terms of historical context dating and sources character analysis comic elements and verbal conceits evidence of authorship performance analysis and feminist interpretations Alongside theater reviews production photographs and critical commentary the volume also includes essays written by practicing theater artists who have worked on the play An index by name literary work and concept rounds out this valuable resource Northwest Lands, Northwest Peoples Dale D. Goble, Paul W. Hirt, 2012-03-15 It can be said that all of human history is environmental history for all human action happens in an environment in a place This collection of essays explores the environmental history of the Pacific Northwest of North America addressing questions of how humans have adapted to the northwestern landscape and modified it over time and how the changing landscape in turn affected human society economy laws and values Northwest Lands and Peoples includes essays by historians anthropologists ecologists a botanist geographers biologists law professors and a journalist It addresses a wide variety of topics indicative of current scholarship in the rapidly growing field of environmental history The Oxford Handbook of Environmental History Andrew C. Isenberg, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Environmental History draws on a wealth of new scholarship to offer diverse perspectives on the state of the field Contested Boundaries David J. Jepsen, David J. Norberg, 2017-04-10 Contested Boundaries A New Pacific Northwest History is an engaging contemporary look at the themes events and people that have shaped the history of the Pacific Northwest over the last two centuries An engaging look at the themes events and people that shaped the Pacific Northwest Washington Oregon and Idaho from when only Native Peoples inhabited the land

Popov,2009-08-21 Water resources upon which the well being of future generations depends are under extreme pressure today all over the world Resulting problems have given rise to many issues including water quality quantity management and planning and reflect the growing concern and importance accorded to their sustainable management The Fifth International Conference on Water Resources Management presents the more recent technological and scientific developments associated with the management of surface and sub surface water resources The papers are grouped under the following topics Water Management and Planning Waste Water Treatment and Re use Water Quality Pollution Control Management and Economics Decision Support Systems Hydraulic Systems Flood Risk Hydraulic Modelling Irrigation Problems Governance and Monitoring

Eastside Forest Ecosystem Health Assessment: Assessment (pts. 1-7, 9-12) ,1994 General Technical Report PNW-GTR ,1995 Forest Policies and Social Change in England Sylvie Nail,2008-05-08 Forestry has been witness to some dramatic changes in recent years with several Western countries now moving away from the traditional model of regarding forests merely as sources of wood Rather these countries are increasingly recognizing their forests as multi purpose resources with roles which go far beyond simple economics In this innovative book Sylvie Nail uses England as a case study to explore the relationships between forests society and public perceptions raising important questions about forest policy and management both now and in the future Adopting a sociological approach to forest policy and management the book discusses the current validity of the two principles underlying forestry since the Middle Ages first that forestry should only exist when no better use of the land can be made and second that forestry itself should be profitable The author stresses how values and perceptions shape policies and conversely how policies can modify perceptions and also how policies can fail if they do not take perceptions into account She concludes that many of the issues facing English forestry in the 21st century from leisure health and amenity provision through education and rural as well as urban regeneration to biodiversity conservation go well beyond both national borders and the scope of forestry Indeed forestry in the 21st century seems to be less about planting and managing trees than about being a vector and a mirror of social change This novel synthesis provides a valuable resource for advanced students and researchers from all areas of natural resource studies including those interested in social history socio economics cultural geography and environmental psychology as well as those studying landscape ecology environmental history policy analysis and natural resource management

Agricultural Sustainability and Environmental Change at Ancient Gordion John M. Marston, 2017-08-21 This book publishes the results of 220 botanical samples from the 1993 2002 Gordion excavations directed by Mary Voigt Together with Naomi Miller's 2010 volume Gordion Special Studies 5 this book completes the publication of botanical samples from Voigt's excavations The book aims to reconstruct agricultural decision making using archaeological and paleoenvironmental data from Gordion to describe environmental and agricultural changes at the site John M Marston argues that different political and economic systems implemented over time at Gordion resulted in patterns of agricultural decision making that were well adapted to the social setting of farmers in each period but that these practices had divergent environmental impacts with some regimes sponsoring sustainable agricultural practices and others leading to significant environmental change The implications of this book are twofold Gordion will now be one of the best published agricultural datasets from the entire Near East and thus serve as a valuable comparable dataset for regional synthesis of agricultural and environmental change and the methods the author developed to reconstruct agricultural change at Gordion serves as tools to engage questions about the relationship between social and environmental change at sites worldwide Other books address similar themes but none in the Near East address these themes in diachronic perspective such as we have at Gordion University Museum Monograph 145      Land Use Simulation for Europe John Stillwell, Henk J. Scholten, 2012-12-06 Land use change is driven by a variety of forces including spatial policies formulated at supra national national regional and local levels The main focus of this book is to contextualise explain and illustrate a new methodology for simulating land use change in different parts of Europe It considers some of the more important causal factors and identifies state of the art approaches to modelling human and environmental systems and for evaluating and visualising alternative scenarios The last part of the volume presents material from two case studies one from The Netherlands and one from Portugal of the implementation of a new simulation model called EuroScanner Audience This work will be of interest to researchers and practitioners whose work involves geography simulation and modelling environmental planning spatial decision making the methodology of social sciences and economics      The End of American Exceptionalism David M. Wrobel, 1993 A lucid and rewarding synthesis of cultural and western history Richard W Etulain author of Writing Western History Wrobel makes a fine contribution to the study of myth by analyzing the anxiety or angst Americans felt about the frontier in the half century after 1890 This is an excellent book on a big subject executed with much skill Western Historical Quarterly Direct admirably brief and crisply written Journal of American History
