Language Arts in Asia 2 Christina DeCoursey,2014-06-19 This volume is the second of a series deepening the research understanding and academic study of Language Arts as an English language teaching paradigm Previously used extensively in native speaking countries Language Arts has been taken up in the past decade in many parts of Asia Language Arts uses intrinsically motivating materials such as literature drama and popular culture to help students develop mastery of written and spoken language and text types In recent years Language Arts has embraced media and multiliteracies as well as critical and creative thinking intercultural sensitivity civics and ethics This volume offers a breadth of topics which embody methodologically sophisticated and contemporary language arts research These include multimodal analysis virtual environments the use of comics anime and film in second language teaching and learners experiences of drama and literary tourism The use of literature and the arts in humanist education has a long history within Europe It was traditionally appreciated for its ability to instil ethics and finer sensibilities and teach leadership But the traditional program was marred by its function in inculcating and preserving elitist high culture voices texts and values The post colonial incarnation of Language Arts has been informed by critical and linguistic theory helping it to embrace a popular scope and include a wide array of authentic social and media texts The movement of English language teaching beyond native speaker shores has given rise to a vibrant variety of World Englishes whose literary and media works are now represented within Language Arts The explosion of media over the past few decades has given rise to an increasing array of media to use in language teaching These trends invite scholarly analysis and this is clearly reflected in the chapters in this volume Linguistics has long had a connection to and a natural role to play in analysing the creative verbal and visual arts As a paradigm Language Arts now takes an inclusive view of the continuum of spoken written and performed languages and texts Cutting edge Language Arts research is now also supported through the new journal Language Arts and Linguistics Taylor and Francis

Twenty-Nine Goodbyes Timothy Billings, 2024-12-03 A primer for those with no previous knowledge of Chinese this book introduces readers to the fundamentals of classical Chinese poetry through twenty nine ways of understanding a single poem Seeing Off a Friend by the great Tang poet Li Bai 701-762 has long been praised for its vividness subtlety and poignancy Anthologizing twenty nine translations of the poem Timothy Billings not only introduces the poem's richness and depth but also the nuanced art of translating Chinese poetry into European languages A famous exemplar of seeing off poetry which was common in an empire whose literati were continually on the move Li's poem has continued to fascinate readers far removed from its moment of composition from the Victorians to Ezra Pound to contemporary translators from around the world In talking us through these linguistic crossings Billings unpacks the intricacies of the lishi or regulated verse poem a form as pivotal to Chinese literature as the sonnet is to European tradition This book promises to transform its readers step by step into adept interpreters of one of the most significant verse forms in Chinese literary history Billings's engaging teaching style backed by a lightly worn but deep scholarly engagement with Chinese poetry makes this work an indispensable guide for anyone interested in poetry translation or the cultural heritage of China The American Asian Review, 1999

Convergence of East-West Poetics Zhanghui Yang, 2024-07-23 The present book examines William Carlos Williams's negotiation with cultural modes and systems of the Chinese landscape tradition in his landscape writing Focusing on Williams's landscape modes of landscape without infused emotions the book builds a linkage between their interactions with Chinese landscape aesthetics and shows how these conversations helped shape Williams's cross-cultural landscape poetics The exploration of Williams's experiment with the Chinese serene interplay of self and landscape the interfusion of scene and emotion an idea of seeing from the perspective of Wang Guowei's theory of jingjie and the poetic space of frustration and completion in the context of space and human geography expand the understanding of a cross-cultural landscape tradition
