Through the Eyes of a Child Donna E. Norton, 1991 In its seventh edition Through the Eyes of a Child An Introduction to Children s Literature continues to be a visually stunning theoretically sound comprehensive overview of children's literature. It focuses squarely on selecting and evaluating quality literature to share with children and guiding them to appreciate and respond to that literature. This edition features multicultural literature and young adult literature in every chapter, expanded coverage of biographies and informational books, and over 100 new children's titles referenced throughout. A children's literature CD-ROM accompanies the book and contains bibliographic information for thousands of titles, making it even easier to share quality literature with children and adolescents.

Contemporary literary criticism Daniel G. Marowski, 1985. Entries include critical commentary, brief biographical information, a portrait when available, a list of principal works, and may also include a further reading section about creative writers in the young adult genre.

Young People's Books in Series Judith K. Rosenberg, C. Allen Nichols, 1992. This volume describes and lists series published for young people from early elementary grades through high school. Fiction series from 1976 through 1990 and new titles in existing series through 1991 are included, as well as nonfiction series which are limited to in-print titles only.

Fiction Sequels for Readers 10 to 16 Vicki Anderson, 1990. Provides annotations for approximately 1500 sequel books.

The Oxford Companion to Fairy Tales Jack Zipes, 2015. This Oxford companion provides an authoritative reference source for fairy tales, exploring the tales themselves, both ancient and modern, the writers who wrote and reworked them, and related topics such as film, art, opera, and even advertising.

Children's Book Review Index, 1983. Bibliographie Science Fiction & Fantasy Horst Illmer, 1998.

300 Junior Novel Anticipation Guides Nancy J. Polette, 2006-05-30. The author has created reproducible anticipation guides to 300 popular junior novels ranging from classics like Ben and Me and Cricket in Times Square to the award winner Kira Kira. The book consists of 300 reproducible sets of open-ended values questions to pique the interest of readers. Librarians and teachers will use these anticipation guides to spark interest in reading or as comprehension starters, tapping into prior knowledge and starting the process of understanding. The guides are also valuable for closure and comparative discussions with literature circles. In contrast to the low-level knowledge recall questions used by some electronic reading programs, these questions are higher-order thinking questions that will encourage critical and divergent thinking. Grades 4-8.

Best Books for Junior High Readers John T. Gillespie, 1991. Provides an annotated listing of recommended reading material for students in grades seven through nine.

Inquiry and Reflection Diane DuBose, Brunner, 1994-01-01. Inquiry and Reflection shows how stories of schooling can elucidate difficult and unexamined problems facing teachers. While professional texts tend to raise issues of power and its distribution and questions of culture and ideology, often the manner of presentation is abstract, and pre-service teachers have difficulty making connections. Yet literary film and video materials illuminate problems and suggest ideas to which teachers can actively respond. This book offers teacher educators a variety of resources for articulating a critical pedagogy and suggests an alternative to the technical job training approach to teacher education by providing a unique educational curricula that illuminates issues of power, ideology, and culture.
