Tianjin Cosmopolis Pierre Singaravélou,2025-07-08 At the turn of the twentieth century the city of Tianjin was the diplomatic capital of the Middle Kingdom where foreign consuls met Chinese dignitaries and a hub of commerce and culture Yet in the eyes of foreigners the city remained provincial After the tumult of the Boxer Rebellion however Tianjin transformed when a little known international political project turned it for a time into one of the most cosmopolitan places in the world Pierre Singarav lou tells the story of Tianjin s emergence as a transnational metropolis arguing that the city s experience challenges conventional narratives of the origins of globalization He focuses on the aftermath of the Boxer Rebellion when a number of imperial powers established an international military government that sought to modernize the city and its environs Under its reign people from all over the West and Asia flocked to Tianjin in a whirlwind of commercial and cultural exchange This provisional government embarked on ambitious public works and public health projects attempting to transform not only the city s infrastructure but also its residents behavior all while the imperial powers seized large foreign concessions Singarav lou traces the many tensions of the global city between accommodation and resistance for Tianjin s residents between colonization and internationalization within the provisional government and between cooperation and competition among the imperial powers Bringing together global and local perspectives Tianjin Cosmopolis offers a new vantage point on the imperial globalization of the early twentieth century Cumulative List of Organizations Described in Section 170 (c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ,2002 Managing Diversity and Equality in Construction Andrew W. Gale,Marilyn J. Davidson,2006-07-28 With women in the UK construction industry constituting just thirteen per cent of the workforce and black and Asian workers numbering less that two per cent despite representing more than six per cent of the working population diversity is a problem that the construction industry needs to tackle directly In this title diversity management is presented as an opportunity for the construction industry Work is presented from several different countries and regions in North America Australia and Europe to provide a comprehensive picture of this complex and often sensitive issue Going beyond the traditional topics of gender and racial discrimination contributions encompass a wide range of diversity issues facing the construction industry including sexual orientation disability and the work life balance Essential reading for construction managers and a valuable resource for post graduate researchers this key title provides not only a thorough exposition of contemporary research but also supplies the practical diagnostic tools and techniques to successfully manage diversity in construction and the information to adhere to the law
