Morphologies Sara Maitland,Sean O'Brien,Jane Rogers,Brian Aldiss,Martin Edwards,Frank Cottrell-Boyce,Adam Roberts,Stephen Baxter,2015-06-15 What makes for a good short story Being short you might think the story s structure would yield an answer to this question more readily than say the novel But for as long as the short story has been around arguments have raged as to what it should and shouldn t be made up of what it should and shouldn t do Here 15 leading contemporary practitioners offer structural appreciations of past masters of the form as well as their own perspectives on what the short story does so well The best short stories don t have closure argues one contributor because life doesn t have closure plot must be written with the denouement constantly in view quotes another Covering a century of writing that arguably saw all the major short forms emerge from Hawthorne s Twice Told Tales to Kafka s modernist nightmares these essays offer new and unique inroads into classic texts both for the literature student and aspiring writer Women Poets in the Victorian Era Fabienne Moine,2016-03-09 Examining the place of nature in Victorian women s poetry Fabienne Moine explores the work of canonical and long neglected women poets to show the myriad connections between women and nature during the period At the same time she challenges essentialist discourses that assume innate affinities between women and the natural world Rather Moine shows Victorian women poets mobilised these alliances to defend common interests and express their engagement with social issues While well known poets such as Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Christina Rossetti are well represented in Moine s study she pays particular attention to lesser known writers such as Mary Howitt or Eliza Cook who were popular during their lifetimes or Edith Nesbit whose verse has received scant critical attention so far She also brings to the fore the poetry of many non professional poets Looking to their immediate cultural environments for inspiration these women reconstructed the natural world in poems that raise questions about the validity and the scope of representations of nature ultimately questioning or undermining social practices that mould and often fossilise cultural identities Mapping South-South Connections Fernanda Peñaloza,Sarah Walsh,2019-03-15 This book explores contemporary cultural historical and geopolitical connections between Latin America and Australia from an interdisciplinary perspective It seeks to capitalise on scholarly developments and further unsettle the multiple divides created by the North South axis by focusing on processes of translocal connectivities that link Australia with Latin America The authors conceptualise the South South not as a defined geographic space with clear boundaries but rather as a mobile terrain with multiple evolving and overlapping translocal processes A History of Women's Work Janet Few,2025-07-30 Uncovers the vital yet often hidden roles women played in households industries and paid employment throughout history A History of Women s Work explores the often overlooked contributions of women throughout history particularly in a patriarchal society where men have dominated the historical record While men were more likely to leave traces through wills leases and civic duties women laboured behind the scenes performing crucial yet unpaid tasks for their families and communities In many households women supported their husbands work ran home based industries or sought paid employment despite societal restrictions This book delves into three main areas of women s work household tasks home industries and paid employment outside the home Through case studies and practical research tips it sheds light on the lives of these women encouraging readers to uncover their own female ancestors stories and contribute to a richer understanding of women s history The Writers Directory ,2013 Das Schrauberhandbuch Bernd L.
