Approaches to Jewish-Arab Interreligious Dialogue and Peacebuilding: Theory and Practice Molloy, M. Index to Jewish Periodicals ,2004 An author and subject index to selected and American Anglo Jewish journals of general and scholarly interests A Concise Guide to the Life of Muhammad Ayman S. Ibrahim,2022-05-17 An expert in the study of Islam answers thirty important questions about Muhammad offering a clear and concise guide to his life and religious significance This companion volume to the author s A Concise Guide to the Quran answers many of the key questions non Muslims have about Muhammad reveals the importance of Muhammad for Christian Muslim and Jewish Muslim interfaith relations and examines Muslim and non Muslim primary sources This introductory guide is written for anyone with little to no knowledge of Islam who wants to learn about Muslims their beliefs and their prophet Jews and the Muslim World Adam Chalom,2010 Jews of Spain Jane S. Gerber,1994-01-31 The history of the Jews of Spain is a remarkable story that begins in the remote past and continues today For more than a thousand years Sepharad the Hebrew word for Spain was home to a large Jewish community noted for its richness and virtuosity. Summarily expelled in 1492 and forced into exile, their tragedy of expulsion marked the end of one critical phase of their history and the beginning of another. Indeed, in defiance of all logic and expectation, the expulsion of the Jews from Spain became an occasion for renewed creativity. Nor have five hundred years of wandering extinguished the identity of the Sephardic Jews or diminished the proud memory of the dazzling civilization which they created on Spanish soil. This book is intended to serve as an introduction and scholarly guide to that history. Medieval and Modern Perspectives on Muslim-Jewish Relations Ronald L. Nettle, 2014-02-25. First Published in 1995. The life of Jews in medieval Baghdad or 18th century Tunis may now be considered to be important as Jewish life in 13th century Worms or 19th century Poland. Islamic theological and exegetical writing on Judaism may now command as much interest as their counterparts in Christian literature, while the rich Islamic Jewish cultural interchange over many centuries is clearly of great significance. Studies in Muslim Jewish Relations will be a series of general volumes, each including a wide range of subjects; periodic edited volumes, each focusing on a certain theme; and a planned related monograph series which will publish authored volumes on more specialized aspects of the field. This volume is a collection of twelve essays.

Encyclopedia of American Jewish History Stephen H. Norwood, Eunice G. Pollack, 2007-08-28. Written by the most prominent scholars in American Jewish history, this encyclopedia illuminates the varied experiences of America's Jews and their impact on American society and culture over three and a half centuries. American Jews have profoundly shaped and been shaped by American culture. Yet American history texts have largely ignored the Jewish experience. The Encyclopedia of American Jewish History corrects that omission. In essays and short entries written by 125 of the world's leading scholars of American Jewish history and culture, this encyclopedia explores both religious and secular aspects of American Jewish life. It examines the European background and immigration of American Jews and their impact on the professions and academic disciplines, mass culture and the arts, literature and theater, and labor and radical movements. It explores Zionism, antisemitism, responses to the Holocaust, the branches of Judaism, and Jews' relations with other groups, including Christians, Muslims, and African Americans. The encyclopedia covers the Jewish press and education, Jewish organizations, and Jews' participation in America's wars. In two comprehensive volumes, Encyclopedia of American Jewish History makes 350 years of American Jewish experience accessible to scholars, all levels of students, and the reading public.

Between Muslim and Jew Steven M. Wasserstrom, 2014-07-14. Steven Wasserstrom undertakes a detailed analysis of the creative symbiosis that existed between Jewish and Muslim religious thought in the eighth through tenth centuries. Wasserstrom brings the disciplinary approaches of religious studies to bear on questions that have been examined previously by historians and by specialists in Judaism and Islam. His thematic approach provides an example of how difficult questions of influence might be opened up for broader examination. In Part I, Trajectories, the author explores early Jewish-Muslim interactions, studying such areas as messianism, professions, authority, and class structure, and showing how they were reshaped during the first centuries of Islam Part II Constructions looks at influences of Judaism on the development of the emerging Shi'ite community This is tied to the wider issue of how early Muslims conceptualized the Jew In Part III Intimacies the author tackles the complex esoteric symbiosis between Muslim and Jewish theologies An investigation of the milieu in which Jews and Muslims interacted sheds new light on their shared religious imaginings Throughout Wasserstrom expands on the work of social and political historians to include symbolic and conceptual aspects of interreligious symbiosis This book will interest scholars of Judaism and Islam as well as those who are attracted by the larger issues exposed by its methodology Originally published in 1995 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Jewish Book World , 2000 The Jews of Medieval Islam Daniel Frank, 2021-10-11 This volume contains fifteen articles on the communal social and intellectual life of medieval Jewry in Islamic lands The book is divided into three parts Part I Communities and Their Leaders is devoted to the old Babylonian center in the East and the Andalusian community in the West Part II Self Perceptions and Attitudes Towards Others investigates the ways in which medieval Jews living under Islam viewed their gentile neighbours and expressed their own identity Part III Religious Philosophy Mysticism and Spirituality in Islam and Judaism explores the impact of Islamic thought on the Jewish intellectual tradition The collection depicts a civilization at once unified and diverse revealing both consistent patterns of leadership and scholarship as well as distinctively local identities and collective memories
