Introduction to the Study of the Maya Hieroglyphs Morley Sylvanus Griswold, 1901 Introduction to the Study of the Maya Hieroglyphs (Classic Reprint) Sylvanus Griswold Morley, 2015-07-26 Excerpt from Introduction to the Study of the Maya Hieroglyphs Sir I have the honor to submit the accompanying manuscript of a memoir bearing the title An Introduction to the Study of the Maya Hieroglyphs by Sylvanus Griswold Morley and to recommend its publication as a bulletin of the Bureau of American Ethnology The hieroglyphic writing developed by the Maya of Central America and southern Mexico was probably the foremost intellectual achievement of pre Columbian times in the New World and as such it deserves equal attention with other graphic systems of antiquity The earliest inscriptions now extant probably date from about the beginning of the Christian era but such is the complexity of the glyphs and subject matter even at this early period that in order to estimate the age of the system it is necessary to postulate a far greater antiquity for its origin Indeed all that can be accepted safely in this direction is that many centuries must have elapsed before the Maya hieroglyphic writing could have been developed to the highly complex stage where we first encounter it The first student to make any progress in deciphering the Maya inscriptions was Prof Ernst Forstemann of the Royal Library at Dresden About 1880 Professor Forstemann published a facsimile reproduction of the Dresden codex and for the next twenty years devoted the greater part of his time to the elucidation of this manuscript He it was who first discovered and worked out the ingenious vigesimal system of numeration used by the Maya and who first pointed out how this system was utilized to record astronomical and chronological facts In short his pioneer work made possible all subsequent progress in deciphering Maya texts Curiously enough about the same time or a little later in 1891 another student of the same subject Mr J T Goodman of Alameda California working independently and without knowledge of Professor Forstemann's researches also succeeded in deciphering the chronological parts of the Maya texts and in determining the values of the head variant numerals About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works An Introduction to the Study of Maya Hieroglyphs Sylvanus Morley, 1915-01-01 Velobinding with Card Stock Covers printed on Acid Free paper An Introduction to the Study of the Maya Hieroglyphs Sylvanus Griswold Morley, 2025-06-14 Reprint of the original first published in 1915 The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the

The New Catalog of Maya Hieroglyphs: The Classic period inscriptions Martha J.
