Age Matters Toni M. Calasanti, Kathleen F. Slevin, 2013-10-11 This volume of original chapters is designed to bring attention to a neglected area of feminist scholarship aging After several decades of feminist studies we are now well informed of the complex ways that gender shapes the lives of women and men Similarly we know more about how gendered power relations interface with race and ethnicity class and sexual orientation Serious theorizing of old age and age relations to gender represents the next frontier of feminist scholarship In this volume leading national and international feminist scholars of aging take first steps in this direction illuminating how age relations interact with other social inequalities particularly gender In doing so the authors challenge and transform feminist scholarship and many taken for granted concepts in gender studies

Global Health Kevin McCracken, David R. Phillips, 2017-07-14 Global Health continues to provide readers with a comprehensive up to date and thought provoking outline and understanding of the constantly evolving global health landscape In this new edition the authors have maintained the successful structure and organisation of the previous edition to examine and explain recent health changes and consider likely future patterns New or expanded topics covered include emerging and re emerging infectious disease threats increasing awareness of and interest in antimicrobial resistance and superbugs terrorism global conflict and health the new UN 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development the drive for Universal Health Coverage UHC the use of information technology in global health substance abuse palliative and end of life care ethical issues in global health Using clear and original explanations of complex issues this text makes extensive use of boxed case studies and international examples with discussion questions posed for readers at the end of each chapter Readers will also be able to take advantage of the new website that was designed to complement this book Global Health is essential reading for students and researchers of global health public health and development studies

Care Justice Nancy R. Hooyman, 2024-08-27 This book develops a care justice framework to critique and disrupt current policies and reframe a policy blueprint for elevating a just organization of care for unpaid family caregivers and underpaid home care workers assisting older adults In doing so Hooyman invites readers to envision a society that fully values the essential work of care The book is distinctive in its analysis of the interrelationships among both types of care laborers who often face structural constraints on their decision to care and whose work is devalued and marginalized Their care work affects every member of society but it is generally invisible to others and its economic value is rarely recognized by policymakers How care work is organized and unrewarded typically has the most financial physical and emotional costs for women people of color and immigrants across the life course Inequities for care workers by race immigrant status class and sexual orientation are rooted in systemic racism sexism classism xenophobia and homophobia In this book policy priorities and change strategies are reframed to attain the six core components of a care justice framework which include fundamental structural changes to elevate care work ensure meaningful choice to care and reduce systemic inequities faced by care workers This framework is informed by feminism Black feminism intersectionality and care theory By conceptualizing care justice the author aims to stimulate new discourse and action related to the care of older adults the most important work in society and make the seemingly unattainable attainable This timely book will be salient to anyone committed to diversity equity and inclusion and with an interest in policy gerontology disability studies ethnic studies feminist studies social justice social work and social welfare

Behaviour among Students Enrolled in Counselling Psychology and Sociology of Education EPSE Handbook of Feminist Family Studies Sally A. Lloyd, April L. Few, Katherine R. Allen, 2009-04-14 The Handbook of Feminist Family Studies presents the important theories, methodologies and practices in feminist family studies. The editors showcase feminist family scholarship providing both a retrospective and a prospective overview of the field and creating a scholarly forum for interpretation and dissemination of feminist work The Aging American: an Introduction to Social Gerontology and Geriatrics Milton Leon Barron, 1961 Aging and Diversity Ph.D. Chandra Mehrotra, Lisa Smith Wagner, 2018-09-03 As the older population in the United States is becoming more racially and ethnically diverse, it is important to understand the characteristics, the potential and the needs of this population. In this new and fully revised edition of Aging and Diversity, Chandra Mehrotra and Lisa Wagner address key topics in diversity and aging, discussing how the aging experience is affected by not only race and ethnicity but also gender, religious affiliation, social class, rural/urban, community location and sexual orientation and gender identity. Taking this broad view of human diversity allows the authors to convey some of the rich complexities facing our aging population, complexities that provide both challenges to meet the needs of a diverse population of elders and opportunities to learn how to live in a pluralistic society. Mehrotra and Wagner present up-to-date knowledge and scholarship about aging and diversity in a way that engages readers in active learning, placing ongoing emphasis on developing readers' knowledge and skills, fostering higher-order thinking and encouraging exploration of personal values and attitudes Ageing in Singapore Peggy Teo, Kalyani Mehta, Leng Leng Thang, Angelique Chan, 2006-09-27 Older persons are often portrayed as social and financial burdens because pensions, health and social care have to withstand increasing old-age dependency ratios. Due to a lack of access to representation or a lack of social and economic power, older people have found few opportunities to have their voices heard, making age an immensely political issue. Written by an impressive team of authors, this book provides an in-depth analysis of the experience of ageing in Singapore, examining key issues such as health, work, housing, family ties and care giving. It looks at how social categorization enters into everyday life to elucidate the multiple meanings of age and identity encountered in a rapidly changing economy and society. Providing original critical discourse from Asian writers recording Asian voices, Ageing in Singapore will appeal to a wide readership and is an invaluable resource for policy makers, service practitioners and scholars working on Asian gerontology Nurse as Educator: Principles of Teaching and Learning for Nursing Practice Bastable, 2017-12-07 Nurse as Educator: Principles of Teaching and Learning for Nursing Practice, Fifth Edition, prepares nurse educators, clinical nurse specialists and nurse practitioners for their ever-increasing role in patient teaching, health education, health promotion and nursing education The Health Services Executive (HSE) Keith R.
