Tight Spaces By Kesho Scott:

Tight Spaces Kesho Scott, Cherry Muhanji, Egyirba High, 2002-04-25 This expanded edition of Tight Spaces includes six new essays that explore the fulfilling spaces inhabited by Kesho Scott, Cherry Muhanji, and Egyirba High since their book was originally published in 1987. Tight Spaces won the American Book Award in 1988. Soul Babies Mark Anthony

Neal, 2013-02-01 In Soul Babies Mark Anthony Neal explains the complexities and contradictions of black life and culture after the end of the Civil Rights era. He traces the emergence of what he calls a post-soul aesthetic, a transformation of values that marked a profound change in African American thought and experience. Lively and provocative, Soul Babies offers a valuable new way of thinking about black popular culture and the legacy of the sixties. The Black Experience in America

Britannica Educational Publishing, 2010-04-01 The outlawing of desegregation and attainment of equal rights facilitated a new era of possibility throughout American society. This book details the historic deeds that redefined the American landscape since the 1940s, examining the explosion of creativity that ensued in the areas of literature, music, and sports as African Americans explore new opportunities and prospects. The Making of a Black Scholar Horace A. Porter, 2003 This captivating and illuminating book is a memoir of a young black man moving from rural Georgia to life as a student and teacher in the Ivy League, as well as a history of the changes in American education that developed in response to the civil rights movement, the war in Vietnam, and affirmative action. Born in 1950, Horace Porter starts out in rural Georgia in a house that has neither electricity nor running water. In 1968, he leaves his home in Columbus, Georgia, thanks to an academic scholarship to Amherst College and lands in an upper-class, mainly white world. Focusing on such experiences in his American education, Porter's story is both unique and representative of his time. The Making of a Black Scholar is structured around schools: Porter attends Georgia's segregated black schools until he enters the privileged world of Amherst College. He graduates, spending one semester at Morehouse College and moves on to graduate study at Yale. He starts his teaching career at Detroit's Wayne State University and spends the 1980s at Dartmouth College and the 1990s at Stanford University. Porter writes about working to establish the first black studies program at Amherst, the challenges of graduate study at Yale, the infamous Dartmouth Review, and his meetings with such writers and scholars as Ralph Ellison, Tillie Olsen, James Baldwin, and Henry Louis Gates Jr. He ends by reflecting on an unforeseen move to the University of Iowa, which he ties into a return to the values of his childhood on a Georgia farm. In his success and the fulfillment of his academic aspirations, Porter represents an era, a generation of possibility and achievement. Memoirs Of A Cold War Son Gaines Post, 2002-04-25 In 1951, Gaines

Post was a gangly, bespectacled, introspective teenager preparing to spend a year in Paris with his professorial father and older brother, his mother who suffered from extreme depression had been absent from the family for some time. Ten years later, now less gangly but no less introspective, he was finishing a two-year stint in the army in West Germany and heading toward Oxford on a Rhodes scholarship, having narrowly escaped combat in the Berlin crisis of 1961. His quietly intense coming of age story is both self revealing and reflective of an entire generation of young men who came to adulthood before the Cuban Missile Crisis and the Vietnam War Post's experiences in high school in Madison Wisconsin and Paris his Camus influenced undergraduate years at Cornell University and his army service in Germany are set very effectively against the events of the Cold War McCarthyism and American crackdowns on dissidents American foreign and military policy in Western Europe in the nuclear age French and German life and culture crises in Paris and Berlin that nearly bring the West to war and the Post family to dissolution these are the larger scenes and subjects of his self disclosure as a contemplative conflicted Cold War agnostic His intelligent talented mother and her fragile health hover over Post's narrative informing his hesitant relationships with women and his acutely questioning sense of self worth His story is strongly academic and historical as well as political and military his perceptions and judgments lean toward no ideological extreme but remain true to the heroic ideals of his boyhood during the Second World War

Changing the Wor(l)d Stacey Young, 2014-01-02

Changing the Worl d draws on feminist publishing postmodern theory and feminist autobiography to powerfully critique both liberal feminism and scholarship on the women's movement arguing that both ignore feminism's unique contributions to social analysis and politics These contributions recognize the power of discourse the diversity of women's experiences and the importance of changing the world through changing consciousness Young critiques social movement theory and five key studies of the women's movement arguing that gender oppression can be understood only in relation to race sexuality class and ethnicity and that feminist activism has always gone beyond the realm of public policy to emphasize improving women's circumstances through transforming discourse and consciousness Young examines feminist discursive politics critiques social science methodology and proposes an alternative approach to understanding the women's movement

A History of

American Literature Linda Wagner-Martin, 2015-07-20 A HISTORY OF AMERICAN LITERATURE 1950 TO THE PRESENT

Featuring works from notable authors as varied as Salinger and the Beats to Vonnegut Capote Morrison Rich Walker Eggers and DeLillo A History of American Literature 1950 to the Present offers a comprehensive analysis of the wide range of literary works produced in the United States over the last six decades and a fascinating survey of the dramatic changes during America's transition from the innocence of the fifties to the harsh realities of the first decade of the new millennium Author Linda Wagner Martin a highly acclaimed authority on all facets of modern American literature covers major works of drama poetry fiction non fiction memoirs and popular genres such as science fiction and detective novels Viewing works produced during this fertile literary period from a wide ranging perspective Wagner Martin considers literature in relation to such issues as the politics of civil rights feminism sexual preferences and race and gender based marketing She also places a special emphasis on works produced during the twenty first century and writings influenced by recent historic events such as the 9 11 terrorist attacks Hurricane Katrina and the global financial crisis With its careful balance of scholarly precision and accessibility A History of American Literature 1950 to the Present provides readers of all levels with rich and revealing insights into the diversity of literary forms and influences that characterize postmodern America A monumental distillation of an enormous range of material Wagner Martin s rich book should be required reading for anyone grappling with making sense of the prolific broad spectrum and diverse writing in the US since 1950 Thadious M Davis University of Pennsylvania Linda Wagner Martin s history impressively and judiciously surveys all fields of American writing over the past sixty years taking full account of significant cultural and historical contexts and the major critical commentaries that have helped shape our understanding of developments in the second half of the last century and the dozen years following the millennium Balanced informative and always highly readable there is much here for general readers students and specialists alike Christopher MacGowan the College of William and Mary Small Press Review ,1989 Black Feminist Anthropology, 25th Anniversary Edition Irma McClaurin,2024-11-15 Black Feminist Anthropology Theory Politics Praxis and Poetics is a groundbreaking collection that centers the imaginative intellectual perspectives voices and experiences of Black American feminist anthropologists Twenty five years ago as the Foreword states this book dared to put three words together in the title Black Feminist Anthropology that have not always kept company with each other and in the minds of many both in and outside of the academy they should remain separate Standing the test of time it is still a bold reimagining of anthropology and all social sciences as inclusive and decolonized while establishing a new Black feminist anthropology canon that decades later is too often taken for granted as normative Black Feminist Anthropology is filled with a message of theoretical possibilities that anyone who enters its pages will find healing life saving and an affirmation that Black women anthropologists have contributed much to the theory politics praxis and poetics of anthropology gender and women s studies masculinity studies queer studies the social sciences generally and any other discipline that seeks transformation from the inside out It is both an archive and a legacy for the next generation Calling Home Janet Zandy,1990 Working class women are the majority of women in the United States and yet their work and their culture are rarely visible Calling Home is an anthology of writings by and about working class women Over fifty selections represent the ethnic racial and geographic diversity of working class experience This is writing grounded in social history not in the academy Traditional boundaries of genre and periodization collapse in this collection which includes reportage oral histories speeches songs and letters as well as poetry stories and essays The divisions in this collection telling stories bearing witness celebrating solidarity address the distinction of by or about working class women and show the connections between individual identity and collective sensibility in a common history of struggle for economic justice The geography of home identity parents sex motherhood the dominance of the job the overlapping of private and public worlds the promise of solidarity and community are a few of the themes of this book Here is a chorus of working class women s voices Sandra Cisneros Barbara Garson Meridel Le Sueur Tillie Olsen Barbara Smith Endesha I M Holland Mother Jones Nellie Wong Agnes Smedley Bobbie Louise Hawkins Sharon Doubiago Carol Tarlen Hazel Hall Margaret Randall Judy Grahn and many others The aesthetic impulse is shaped by class
