The things of this world cannot be seen or touched, and they cannot be understood by human eyes. Only by the Spirit of God can they be understood, and those who have received the Spirit of God can understand the things that God has prepared for those who love him. For God has revealed these things to us through his Spirit, and the Spirit tells us the things that God has prepared for those who love him. And these things are the things that God has prepared for those who love him: the things that God has prepared for those who love him are the things that God has prepared for those who love him.
