Institute Inc Managing Sustainable Development Programmes Gran Brulin,Lennart Svensson,2016-05-13 Project work driven by competent project leaders drives positive outcomes Unfortunately these optimistic initial results are often short sighted with few evaluations of their long term impact The research contained in Managing Sustainable Development Programmes reveals an extraordinary level of failure in the durability of large change programmes and projects in both the private and public sectors In this book the authors question whether sustainable development be achieved within the framework of large publicly financed programmes This strong critique of traditional programme implementation overturns much of our current thinking about project delivery and governance The authors focus instead on sustainable change and development They show how active ownership and collaboration between different actors and the dynamics of developmental learning can be used to create programmes and projects that contribute to innovation employment and growth in a way that favours companies employees customers and society in a broader sense The message at its heart is don t blame the project leader but rather look for dynamic possession of projects joint knowledge management and sharing with external stakeholders that will secure long term effects Lifemark ,2022 Publisher Annotation David s comfortable world is turned upside down when his birthmother unexpectedly reaches out to him longing to meet the 18 year old son she s only held once With the encouragement of his adoptive parents David embarks on a journey of discovery that leads to a staggering truth from his past Project Decisions, 2nd Edition Lev Virine,Michael Trumper,2019-11-05 This new edition gives project managers practical methods and tools to make the right decisions while juggling multiple objectives risks and uncertainties and stakeholders Project management requires you to navigate a maze of multiple and complex decisions that are an everyday part of the job To be effective you must know how to make rational choices with your projects what processes can help to improve these choices and what tools are available to help you with decision making An entertaining and easy to read guide to a structured project decision making process Project Decisions will help you identify risks and perform basic quantitative and qualitative risk and decision analyses Lev Virine and Michael Trumper use their understanding of basic human psychology to show you how to use event chain methodology establish creative business environments and estimate project time and costs Each phase of the process is described in detail including a review of both its psychological aspects and quantitative methods Practical Project Initiation Karl E. Wieggers,2007-08-08 Zero in on key project initiation tasks and build a solid foundation for successful software development In this concise guide critically acclaimed author Karl E Wieggers fills a void in project management literature by focusing on the activities that are essential but often overlooked for launching any project Drawing on his extensive experience Karl shares lessons learned proven practices and tools for getting your project off to the right start and steering it to ultimate success Lay a foundation for project success discover how to Effectively charter a project Define meaningful criteria for project success and product releases Negotiate achievable commitments for project teams and stakeholders Identify and document potential barriers to success and manage project risks Apply the Wideband Delphi method for more accurate estimation Measure project performance and avoid common metrics traps Systematically apply lessons learned to future projects Companion Web site includes Worksheets from inside the book Project document templates Resources for project initiation and process improvement Becoming Globally Competitive in Software Matthew D. Edwards, 2006-04-28 This book will teach you the software student practitioner and or manager how to become competitive in the global resource pool in which we reside In sometimes humorous mostly direct conversation this book discusses understanding the customer serving the customer and learning to discern what really matters along the way by exploring some difficult and often unpopular subjects The professional software talent pool is truly global and we are only grains of sand on a world beach There is more value in seeing the forest than worshipping the tree Know when to solve a problem when to simplify and when to be quiet Delivering a technical solution is a social problem Overpay the right people for the right reasons Serve the customer and provide immediate value or someone else will The Business of Gamification Mikolaj Dymek, Peter Zackariasson, 2016-09-13 At the turn of the century the term gamification was introduced as a concept to understand the process of using game mechanics in non game contexts The impact of gamification was soon evident to business practices where it had impact both on marketing and more broadly on the organizations themselves As the number of individuals playing video games grows there seem to be an acceptance of game mechanics elsewhere Its effectiveness is highly dependent on both technical possibilities and cultural acceptance two factors present today The aim of The Business of Gamification is to critically analyze the practical and theoretical consequences of gamification Practically how has gamification been applied in businesses to this point and what are the future scenarios Theoretically what are the contributions of gamification to existing academic knowledge How does this change our understanding of how business are performing and its consequences for organizations consumers and society in general This edited volume contains new and stringent perspectives on how gamification is contextualized in business settings both in theory as well as in practice This book will provide a wealth of research for individuals seriously interested in the industry at the academic level As a result this book will serve as a reference in curricula associated with video game development for years to come From Breakthrough to Blockbuster Donald L. Drakeman, Lisa N. Drakeman, Nektarios Oraiopoulos, 2022 From Breakthrough to Blockbuster The Business of Biotechnology tells the astonishing story of how the biotech industry grew to thousands of small companies around the world competing with the major pharmaceutical companies that had dominated for a century and how academic research venture capital and contract research organizations worked together to support them Proceedings of the International Conference on Digital Transformation in Business: Navigating the New Frontiers Beyond Boundaries (DTBNNF 2024) N.
