A Window To The Divine A Study Of Christian Creation Theology:

A Window to the Divine Zachary Hayes, 1997 Originally published in 1980 as What Are They Saying About Creation Paulist Press Fr Zachary's study summarizes the developments on the fundamental questions concerning the theology of creation Among the issues considered are the relations of science and belief scriptural sources for creation theology original sin and the connections between creation and eschatology Students and scholars in theology as well as the general reader will find this book to be a valuable resource

Chirst In Evolution Ilia Delio, 2010 The Unbearable Wholeness of Being Ilia Delio, 2013 This title explores the meaning of Christian theology in light of the scientific discoveries of our age Like Teilhard de Chardin and Thomas Berry Delio opens out eyes to the omni active all powerful all intelligent Love that forms and guides the interrelatedness and interbeing of everything and everyone ourselves included

Ecological Footprints Dawn M. Nothwehr, 2012-11-01 The Franciscan Vision offers a powerful antidote to the moral malaise that prevents ordinary Christians from making the necessary choices to live more simply and share the world's goods more equitably This is the driving conviction behind Ecological Footprints Dawn M Nothwehr unfolds the theological spiritual and ethical treasure trove of Christianity especially as it has been developed and lived in Franciscan theology and tradition as it relates to our efforts to achieve sustainable living She succeeds admirably in presenting it all in a style that makes this book both accessible and compelling to no specialist readers

The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Ecology Roger S. Gottlieb, 2006-11-09 Ecologically oriented visions of God the Sacred the Earth and human beings The proposed handbook will serve as the definitive overview of these exciting new developments Divided into three main sections the book's essays will reflect the three dominant dimensions of the field Part I will explore

Forget Not God's Benefits \(Psalm 103:2\) Barbara E. Reid, 2025-04-28 Leslie Hoppe OFM has had a distinguished career in biblical studies He is known for his work on the book of Deuteronomy and the Deuteronomistic History but his interests have ranged over many areas of the Scriptures including the prophets biblical geography archaeology history and biblical perspectives on poverty In his writing and research he has broken new ground and advanced the discipline time and again For many years Hoppe served as the editor of the Catholic Biblical Quarterly and he oversaw the publication of numerous articles that have impacted the study of both the Old and New Testaments A capstone to Hoppe's illustrious career his editorship of the CBQ is reflected in the design of this volume which comprises works by scholars of both testaments The chapters here range from Genesis to the Gospels and Pauline letters Leslie Hoppe's colleagues have given him a fitting tribute a Festschrift with breadth as well as depth

The Humility of God Ilia Delio, 2024-07-02 Religion throughout its history has been used to justify dominance and rightness a narrative that sadly continues today St Francis of Assisi however fell in love with a Christ who cultivated humility and connection rather than power and division This Christ of humility and poverty depicted by Ilia Delio OSF in this Franciscan classic invites us to contemplate a theology that can heal the separation within ourselves and our divided world today

Time: Sense, Space,

Structure, 2016-05-09 The essays in this volume explore the nature of time our God given medium of ascent known as Augustine puts it through the ordered study of the liberal disciplines that carry the mind to the divine disciplinae liberales intellectum efferunt ad divina grammar and dialectic for example to promote thinking geometry and astronomy to grasp the dimensions of our reality music an invisible substance like time itself as an exemplary bridge to the unseen substance of thoughts ideas and the nature of God theology This ascending course of study rests on procedure progress and attainment on before following and afterwards whose goal is an ascending erudition that lets us finally contemplate as Augustine says in De ordine our invisible medium time within time itself time is immaterial but experienced as substantial The essays here look at projects that chronicle time from the beginning that clarify ideas of creation in time and simultaneous times and the interrelationships between measured time and eternity including no time Essays also examine time as revealed in social and political contexts as told by clocks as notated in music and embodied in memorializing stone In the final essays of this volume time is understood as the subject and medium of consciousness As Adrian Bardon says time is not so much a what as a how a solution to organizing experience and modeling events Contributors are in order within the volume Jesse W Torgerson Ken A Grant Danielle B Joyner Nancy van Deusen Peter Casarella Aaron Canty Jordan Kirk Vera von der Osten Sacken Gerhard Jaritz Jason Aleksander Sara E Melzer Mark Howard Andrew Eschelbacher Hans J Rindisbacher James F Knapp Peggy A Knapp Raymond Knapp Michael Cole Ike Kamphof and Leonard Michael Koff Is Nature Ever Evil? Willem B. Drees, 2003-09-02 Can nature be evil or ugly or wrong Can we apply moral value to nature From a compellingly original premise under the auspices of major thinkers including Mary Midgley Philip Hefner Arnold Benz and Keith Ward Is Nature Ever Evil examines the value structure of our cosmos and of the science that seeks to describe it Science says editor Willem B Drees claims to leave moral questions to aesthetic and religious theory But the supposed neutrality of the scientific view masks a host of moral assumptions How does an ethically transparent science arrive at concepts of a hostile universe or a selfish gene How do botanists zoologists cosmologists and geologists respond to the beauty of the universe they study reliant as it is upon catastrophe savagery power and extinction Then there are various ways in which science seeks to alter and improve nature What do prosthetics and gene technology cyborgs and dairy cows say about our appreciation of nature itself Surely science in common with philosophy magic and religion can aid our understanding of evil in nature whether as natural catastrophe disease predatory cruelty or mere cosmic indifference Focusing on the ethical evaluation of nature itself Is Nature Ever Evil re ignites crucial questions of hope responsibility and possibility in nature Our Bodies Are Selves Philip Hefner, Ann Pederson, Susan Barreto, 2015-08-11 Our Bodies Are Selves is a look at what it means to be human in a world where medical technology and emerging ethical insight force us to rethink the boundaries of humanity spirit and man machine This book gives us a fresh look at how our expanding biological views of ourselves and our shared evolutionary history shows us a picture that may not always illumine who and where we are as Christians Offering up Christian theological views of embodiment the authors give everyday examples of lives of love faith and bodily realities that offer the potential to create new definitions of what it means to be a faith community in an increasingly technological age of medicine

Apologetic for Filioque in Medieval Theology Dennis Ngien, 2005 This study examines the defence of the filioque clause by four medieval theologians in the Catholic Church and seeks to show why it mattered so much to them The book opens with a history of the filioque to provide the essential background Ngien then carefully sets each theologian's rational defence within the broader context making this book much more than a discussion of the one contentious clause but also a general introduction to medieval conceptions of the Trinity BOOK JACKET Speculum Sermonis Georgiana Donavin, Cary J. Nederman, Richard J. Utz, 2004 The medieval sermon provides the focus for the first volume of Disputatio because it often expresses the concerns of various intellectual milieux such as the university Church or court and attempts to convey those concerns to other parts of medieval society Speculum Sermonis is an anthology of essays about medieval sermons in the Christian East and West It aims to reveal precisely how sermons inform different disciplines for instance social and Church history literature musicology and how the methodologies of different disciplines inform sermons Sermons can for instance provide evidence for a reconstruction of medieval liturgy reciprocally the field of liturgiology investigates sermons as one aspect of Church performance The volume's title image of the mirror and the reference to medieval specula convey the idea of multiple reflections the sermons on culture and the disciplines on sermons Because the contributors to Speculum Sermonis come from a variety of fields the essays here collectively provide a rich historical and contemporary academic context for reading the medieval sermon In addition to essays from across the fields a number of which establish conclusions transcending disciplinary boundaries Speculum Sermonis includes an introduction defending interdisciplinary study of sermons and an authoritative bibliography covering both primary and secondary resources for medieval sermons A unique feature of the volume is the inclusion of response papers to the essays in each of the sections in the spirit of the book series title Disputatio Christianity and Ecological Theology E. M. Conradie, 2006-10-01 There has been a proliferation of publications in the field of Christian ecological theology over the last three decades or so These include a number of recent edited volumes each covering a range of topics and consolidating many of the emerging insights in ecological theology The call for Christian churches to respond to the environmental crisis has been reiterated numerous times in this vast corpus of literature also in South Africa The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology Joshua R.

Farris, Charles Taliaferro, 2016-03-09 In recent scholarship there is an emerging interest in the integration of philosophy and theology Philosophers and theologians address the relationship between body and soul and its implications for theological anthropology In so doing philosopher theologians interact with cognitive science biological evolution psychology and sociology Reflecting these exciting new developments The Ashgate Research Companion to Theological Anthropology is a resource for philosophers and theologians students and scholars interested in the constructive critical exploration of a theology of human persons Throughout this collection of newly authored contributions key themes are addressed human agency and grace the soul sin and salvation Christology glory feminism the theology of human nature and other major themes in theological anthropology in historic as well as contemporary contexts Perspectives on Science and Christian Faith

, 2007 A Primer in Ecotheology Celia E. Deane-Drummond, 2017-09-22 This book serves as an introduction to the burgeoning field of ecotheology illustrating both its variety and its commonality across different Christian theological divides Some of the questions addressed in this short book include the following How can the Bible still make sense in the context of climate change and biodiversity loss Who on earth is Jesus Christ and what does he mean for us in today's world How can Christians be faithful to their traditions while responding to pressing calls to be engaged in environmental activism What is the relationship between theory and practice and local as well as global demands and how is this relationship expressed in different ecclesial settings How can we encourage each other to develop a sense of the earth as divine gift Written in clear accessible style this book walks readers through difficult concepts and shows the way different sources in Christian theology have responded to one of the most significant cultural issues of our time God at Play Daniel Soars, 2025-07-01 The first

comparative treatment of the topic of l l in Hindu and Christian traditions this volume explores what it means to consider divine and human action under the categories of play wit drama grace and compassion God at Play presents a theological exploration of the multifaceted motif of l l across diverse Hindu and Christian landscapes and its wide ranging connections to divine and human creativity Given its ubiquity in Hindu theologies and life forms l l offers a rich comparative framework for exploring certain ways of understanding divine and human action as expressed in Hindu and Christian sacred texts philosophical theology and ritual practices Though l l is often interpreted simply as play the essays in this volume reflect a far richer semantic and conceptual field ranging from spontaneity and gratuitousness through joy and humor to mercy and compassion By focusing on the different contexts in which l l is found in Hindu traditions and resisting any uniform translation of the term the contributors to this volume avoid the risk of using predominantly western or Christian categories to understand the Hindu other The volume thus explores how l l functions in a variety of distinctive philosophical theological and devotional ways across Hindu traditions and listens for echoes in Christian understandings of the gratuitousness of the created order in relation to God God at Play is a genuine experiment in deep learning across traditions Each chapter reflects on what is learned by taking l l as the category of comparison and invites the reader to think about what these conversations add confirm or change in relation to earlier twentieth century scholarship on play not least in terms of what difference it might make to understand human life as an imitation and a participation in the divine life of a playful deity Interface

Between Igbo Theology and Christianity Akuma-Kalu Njoku, Elochukwu Uzukwu, 2014-10-21 Interface between Igbo Theology and Christianity is a timely book that provides new scholarly thinking concerning the convergence of Christianity and Igbo Traditional Religion taking place in the Igbo culture area This book a fruit of multidisciplinary conversation among Igbo scholars and Igboophiles offers concepts themes issues and case studies with deep ethnographic details some of which do not exist anywhere else in print It is a major statement of how modern Igbo scholars social scientists philosophers theologians liturgists and active pastors and parish priests understand the intersection of Igbo Traditional Religion and Christianity in postcolonial Nigeria The editors and authors of the chapters of this book draw from their wealth of experience to offer to students scholars researchers community based organizations and NGOs and practitioners in interfaith dialogue a must have manual to engage in and develop mutual respect and trust among Christian denominations and between them and Igbo Traditional Religion This book will serve as a blueprint for a deep dialogue among the Igbo in both city and rural settings in the context of clan and community life context and in the Christian parish setting The book will certainly appeal to numerous communities in Africa wishing to share similar local experiences and collective memories but which do not have the channels to talk about themselves in scholarly writing Medieval Science, Technology, and Medicine Thomas F.
