Ferenc Morton Szasz: A Celebration and Selected Writings Mark T. Banker, 2018-09-17 Ferenc Morton

Szasz was a lifelong student who became a professor of history at the University of New Mexico. As a one year appointment at the Albuquerque campus evolved into a forty year career, Szasz glimpsed the predictable unpredictability that he would eventually discern as one of history's most enduring and elusive traits. The connections and consequences along the way forged a truly exceptional life and career. A master of the United States history survey, Szasz enthralled and inspired tens of thousands of students with energy, enthusiasm, provocative insights and good will. Ambitious undergraduates regularly vied with graduate students for coveted seats in his upper level courses where he offered insights into World War II, American religious history and popular culture. Szasz's interests, he insisted, were the ideas of the people and how they shift over time. In an era when historical scholarship became increasingly specialized, he pursued an eclectic array of research interests and challenged his doctoral students to do the same. The ten selections of Szasz's writings that are the primary content of this volume balance insights into history's great moments with attention to events and details often overlooked by more conventional historians. Szasz's crisp, accessible prose reveals both the unique and universal in the human experience and offers heartfelt glimpses into humanity's paradoxical promises and perils. Back cover

In den letzten Jahren werden u. a. angestoßen durch transhumanistische Diskurse und einschlägige Publikationen wie Insect Media Jussi Parikka oder Das Internet der Tiere Alexander Pschera Tiere und Medien zunehmend auf produktive Weise zusammengedacht. Tiere sind dabei nicht auf die Rolle eines kulturwissenschaftlich beschreibbaren Motivs beschränkt, sondern sie treten in vielfältiger Weise als Mediennutzer in Erscheinung, etwa in der Animal Computer Interaction, die sich zunehmend als eigene Disziplin gegenüber der Human Computer Interaction positioniert. Medien schaffen eine neue Form der Verbindung zu Tieren und können teilweise sogar für die Tiere selbst von Nutzen sein. In dieser Ausgabe von Tierstudien wird deshalb der Animal Turn in den Medienwissenschaften beleuchtet und an konkreten Fallbeispielen aus anderen Fachgebieten gezeigt, auf welche Weise und zu welchem Zweck Tiere als Medien bzw. Vermittler fungieren oder eingesetzt werden können.
