of Figures and Tables References and Resources Index Navigating The Digital Shift: Implementation Strategies for Blended and Online Learning John Bailey, Carri Schneider, Tom Vander Ark, 2013-10-09 Our nation's schools stand at an important inflection point in the history of education. Taken together, the implementation of common college and career standards, the shift to next generation assessments, the availability of affordable devices, and the growing number of high quality digital instructional tools create an unprecedented opportunity to fundamentally shift the education system to personalize learning around the individual needs of every student. Digital Learning Now (DLN), a national initiative under the Foundation for Excellence in Education (ExcellinEd) in association with Getting Smart, brings Navigating the Digital Shift: Implementation Strategies for Blended and Online Learning to readers interested in exploring the implementation challenges at the intersection of these shifts. Co-authored by John Bailey, Carri Schneider, and Tom Vander Ark, Navigating the Digital Shift offers updated versions of the eight papers originally released in the DLN Smart Series, including contributions from 11 additional co-authors representing leading organizations such as Public Impact, the International Association for K-12 Online Learning (iNACOL), and The Learning Accelerator. Topics include blended learning implementation, teaching conditions and careers, competency-based learning, student data, online learning myths, and student-based funding. Jeb Bush, Governor of Florida from 1999-2007 and Chairman of ExcellinEd, contends that the book provides policymakers and education leaders the tools they need to use digital learning as a catalyst for improved student achievement. AASA 2013 Superintendent of the Year, Dr. Mark Edwards, believes the collection provides meaningful, practical, and poignant advice, as well as commentary regarding the move to college and career-ready standards associated with the shift to personal online learning and digital resources. Rhode Island's Commissioner of Elementary and Secondary Education, Deborah Gist, describes the book as an invaluable resource that will help educators reimagine what our schools can look like and what our students can accomplish. Get Set, Go! Thomas R. Guskey, 2020-03-06 Make school a better experience for students by ensuring grading and reporting practices are honest, accurate, meaningful, and fair. A companion to the best-selling and award-winning On Your Mark, this practical guide details how to successfully lead lasting grading reform. Dr. Thomas R. Guskey simplifies the transition by guiding educators through six essential steps: from developing a coalition devoted to change to creating a systematic plan. Use this resource to develop a new system of grading in your school or district. Become familiar with the process of implementing a rigorous new system of reporting that aligns with the goals of standards-based grading. Acquire numerous tools and strategies that will assist in the process of implementing a new grading system. Study the six steps that are essential to any successful attempt to reform grading, as well as how to succeed in each. Learn how to form a change action plan that covers the entire system of implementation and improves the student experience. Contents: About the Author, Introduction, Chapter 1: Learn From Failures, Chapter 2: Form a Coalition for Change, Chapter 3: Understand the Change Process, Chapter 4: Clarify the Purpose of Grading and Reporting, Chapter 5: Report Multiple Grades for Cognitive Outcomes.

Cohen,2023-08-18 School reforms are almost always born out of big dreams and a well meaning desire to change the status quo the American education system as we know it was the product of such a reform But between the lawmakers who spearhead these changes and the students whose education is at stake there are countless teachers principals administrators and local politicians and correspondingly countless ways that things can go sideways In Reforming the Reform political scientist Susan Moffitt education scholar Michaela O Neill and the late policy and education scholar David K Cohen take on a wide ranging examination of the nitty gritty of school reform They focus especially on mezzo level actors but the countless school superintendents principals and teachers figuring out how to apply a new policy in the unique context of their district or school They conducted more than 250 interviews with mezzo level administrators in Tennessee and California chosen as contrasts for their different political makeup and centralization of the education system between 2016 and 2020 ending their data collection as schools were going virtual at the beginning of the pandemic They also collected survey data from across the US Finally they turned to archival data dating to the earliest American educational reform the creation of a centralized national education policy Taken together this data demonstrates an impressive ambition to identify common problems that arise when a general policy is implemented in a local context The framework provides a general explanation for problems
