Comparing Across Genre Passages:

Tips & Tricks for Comparing and Contrasting Texts Sandra K. Athans, Robin W. Parente, 2014-07-15 One important part of the Common Core Standards for Reading is the ability to read two or more separate pieces of writing and then find their similarities and differences This volume penned by two teachers provides that important piece of the Common Core Standards by including several lengthy pieces of writing that students can read and enjoy and then study with a new eye for comparing and contrasting using the provided interactive quiz questions and tips from an expert reader The Literature of Love Mary Ward, 2009-05-14 Critical introductions to a range of literary topics and genres The Literature of Love is designed to introduce students to one of the central themes in literature Focusing first on different types and aspects of love physical emotional spiritual it then offers a chronological coverage aiming to illustrate ways in which attitudes to the representation of love in literature have evolved from Chaucer to the present time Other sections of the book examine particular genres such as the love sonnet the love letter and romantic fiction and the differing reception of this literature over time is also considered The book includes extracts from a range of authors Edgar Allan Poe across Disciplines, Genres and Languages Alfonso Amendola, Linda Barone, 2018-01-23 This collection of essays which rediscovers Edgar Allan Poe's not forgotten lore comprises a two headed scholarly body drawing from communication and linguistics and literature although it also includes many other academic offshoots which explore Poe's labyrinthine and variegated imagination The papers are classified according to two main domains namely I Edgar Allan Poe in Language Literature and Translation Studies and II Edgar Allan Poe in Communication and the Arts In short this book combines rigour and modernity and pays homage with a fresh outlook to Poe's extra ordinary originality and brilliant weirdness which prompted renowned authors like James Russell Lowell and Howard P Lovecraft to claim respectively that Mr Poe has that indescribable something which men have agreed to call genius and that Poe's tales possess an almost absolute perfection of artistic form which makes them veritable beacon lights in the province of the short story Poe's weird tales are alive in a manner that few others can ever hope to be The Ancient Art of Persuasion across Genres and Topics, 2019-11-04 Persuasion has long been one of the major fields of interest for researchers across a wide range of disciplines The present volume aims to establish a framework to enhance the understanding of the features manifestations and purposes of persuasion across all Greek and Roman genres and in various institutional contexts The volume considers the impact of persuasion techniques upon the audience and how precisely they help speakers authors achieve their goals It also explores the convergences and divergences in deploying persuasion strategies in different genres such as historiography and oratory and in a variety of topics This discussion contributes towards a more complete understanding of persuasion that will help to advance knowledge of decision making processes in varied institutional contexts in antiquity Black Scholars in White Space Anthony B. Bradley, 2015-01-19 Never before in American history have we seen the number of African Americans teaching at Christian Colleges as we see today Black Scholars in White Space highlights the recent research and scholarly contributions to various academic disciplines by some of America's history making African American scholars working in Christian Higher Education. Many are the first African Americans or only African Americans teaching at their respective institutions. Moreover, never before have this many African American female scholars in Christian Higher Education had their research presented in a single cross disciplinary volume. The scholars in this book, spanning the humanities and social sciences, examine the issues in public policy, church-state relations, health care, women's issues in higher education, theological anthropology, affirmative action, and black history that need to be addressed in America as we move forward in the 21st century. For these reasons and more, Black Scholars in White Space offers timely and historic contributions to the discourse about making the black community a place where men and women thrive and make contributions to the common good.

Sun, Sea, Sex and the Unspoilt Countryside Gloria Cappelli, 2006 Comparative Literature Asun López-Varela Azcárate, 2024-01-17

Comparative Literature: Interdisciplinary Considerations is a wide-ranging exploration of various aspects of comparative literature and cultural phenomena from different angles. The authors delve into intriguing topics such as literary tourism, biofiction, colonial postcolonial literature, suspense in literature, and the interaction between different artistic mediums. For instance, the analysis of Gabriel García Márquez's works sheds light on the genres of magic realism and the Latin American boom, as well as how his literature influences literary tourism experiences. Another example is the study of Anna Enquist's work, which showcases the genre of biofiction and examines the complex messages conveyed through reconstructed voices and alternative perspectives, including the portrayal of Captain Cook's wife. This is compared with historical accounts of the 18th-century Ottoman Empire during Sultan Selim III's reign, as studied by Stanford Shaw in Between Old and New. The book also explores the theme of unease and suspense in Patricia Highsmith's writing, focusing on her iconic character Tom Ripley, known for his psychological depth and morally ambiguous nature. Additionally, discussions on colonial postcolonial literature and the representation of women's restrictions from a historical perspective contribute to a better understanding of power dynamics, gender representation, and non-Western literature. Henri Fauconnier's Malaisie is analyzed in the context of paracolonality, highlighting the transformative potential of Western texts and emphasizing overlooked aspects in discussions of colonial and postcolonial literature. The volume offers valuable insights into the representation of nations and historical figures through Malay and Persian travel narratives, as well as their influence on cultural identity. Moreover, the chapters explore the evolution of literary genres, the interconnectedness of literature with other art forms, and the impact of technological advancements on artistic expression. Overall, this book provides valuable perspectives on the rich tapestry of literature, art, and culture. It encourages scholars to explore diverse cultural expressions and fosters interdisciplinary dialogue within the field of comparative literature.

Caribbean-English Passages Tobias Döring, 2003-08-29 Tobias Döring uses Postcolonialism as a backdrop to examine and question the traditional genres of travel writing, nature poetry, adventure tales, autobiography, and the epic assessing their relevance to and modification by the Caribbean experience Caribbean English Passages opens an innovative and cross cultural perspective in which familiar oppositions of colonial white versus postcolonial black writing are deconstructed English identity is thereby questioned by this colonial contact and Caribbean English writing radically redraws the map of world literature This book is essential reading for students of Postcolonial Literature at both undergraduate and postgraduate level
