Cultures of the Death Drive Esther Sánchez-Pardo, 2003-05-01 A study of melancholia sexuality and representation in literary and visual texts that can be read at the crossroads of psychoanalysis and the arts in modernism

Object Relations, The Self and the Group Charles Ashbach, Victor L. Schermer, 2005-08-18 This established text presents a framework for integrating group psychology with psychoanalytic theories of object relations the ego and the self through the perspective of general systems theory It defines and discusses key constructs in each of the fields and illustrates them with practical examples

Death and Delusion Jerry S. Piven, 2006-09-01 This book argues that conventional interpretation of Freudian psychology has not accounted for the death anxiety and its relation to illusions and delusions It contends that there is evidence to support the view that death anxiety is a very normal and central emotional threat human beings deal with by impeding awareness of the threat

Trauma and Forgiveness C. Fred Alford, 2014-01-09 Contrary to the view of trauma popularized by literary theorists Trauma and Forgiveness argues that the traumatized are capable of representing their experience and that we should therefore listen more and theorize less Using stories and case studies including testimonies from Holocaust survivors as well as the victims of ordinary trauma C Fred Alford shows that while the traumatized are generally capable of representing their experience this does little to heal them He draws on the British Object Relations tradition in psychoanalysis to argue that forgiveness which might be expected to help heal the traumatized is generally an attempt to avoid the hard work of mourning losses that can never be made whole Forgiveness is better seen as a virtue in the classical sense a recognition of human vulnerability The book concludes with an extended case study of the essayist Jean Améry and his refusal to forgive

Laughter, Power, and the Unconscious Maria Grazia Turri, Bridget Escolme, 2025-10-31 Laughter Power and the Unconscious offers paradigm breaking insights into the psychological and sociopolitical dimensions of humour and comedy Based on an innovative audience experiment at Shakespeare's Globe the authors develop a revolutionary theory of humour as manic defence challenging Freud's classic formulations while engaging with contemporary humour theories The text explores three key domains firstly it establishes and evaluates the theory in comparison to Freud's work in Jokes and their

Relation to the Unconscious while positioning it within major humour frameworks secondly it demonstrates the theory's application to Renaissance comedy examining characters like Malvolio from Twelfth Night alongside stock figures of cuckolds and madmen in both English theatrical traditions and commedia dell'arte finally it investigates the theory's broader sociopolitical relevance by analysing war related humour and racist jokes while addressing comedy's dual capacity to both challenge and reinforce existing power structures This volume will appeal to the scholars and students of theatre and performance studies psychology literary theory and cultural studies interested in the sociopolitical implications of humour

Second Takes Andrew Repasky McElhinney, 2013-11-05 Second Takes presents the history of English language cinema by focusing on cinematic remakes and on how cinema has been replaced by new forms of media Remakes with their innate plurality offer the most substance for concentrated cultural analysis of how movies reflect and shape American culture Analyzing the archetypes that recur in this culture reveals how movies are an increasingly dangerous surrogate for the actual Close readings are presented of such works as popular favorites as Cronenberg's Crash Disney's The Parent Trap Ferrara's Bad Lieutenant Hitchcock's Psycho Kubrick's A Clockwork Orange Lynch's Twin Peaks the film and Welles' The Magnificent Ambersons while unearthing pictures ripe for rediscovery such as One More Tomorrow Strange Illusion and Andy Warhol's Vinyl Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Trauma and the Supernatural in Psychotherapy Alex Monk, 2023-06-16 Trauma and the Supernatural in Psychotherapy explores how traumatic experience interacts with unconscious phantasy based in folklore the supernatural and the occult Drawing upon psychoanalysis anthropology the arts and esoteric philosophy Alex Monk presents examples from folklore and literature to enrich his case illustrations which offer therapists important clinical perspectives on ways of working with clients who feel cursed and repeatedly manifest self sabotaging states The book examines the challenges that can arise when working with this client population and illustrates how to work through them while navigating potent transferences and projective identifications Monk illustrates the way in which clients with developmental trauma may experience the supernatural and its psychic representatives as persecutory and or a source of empowerment and healing Trauma and the Supernatural in Psychotherapy also considers the historically conflicted relationship between psychoanalysis and the supernatural and proposes treatment perspectives which are not implicitly dependent upon a materialist paradigm This book will be of great interest to psychotherapists and counsellors who have an interest in clinical work concerning the connection of relational trauma to unconscious forms of communication and uncanny phenomena arising between therapist and client IDIOT LOVE and the Elements of Intimacy David Stromberg, 2020-05-05 This book turns our search for intimacy on its head suggesting that our way to creativity in love may be through idiocy The book takes its readers on a journey through the work of Plato and Melanie Klein in theorizing the dynamics of intimacy while exploring some of the paradoxical aspects of love in works by Fyodor Dostoevsky and French filmmaker Catherine Breillat Revisiting core concepts of how we think about relationships the book lays out a model for relational breakdown the idiot lovecycle in which we are constantly in the flux between seeing ourselves and seeing the other Effecting close readings of literary philosophical and psychoanalytical sources the book draws on parallels between these fields of inquiry while tracing their shared intellectual genealogy suggesting that the tension between Narcissus and Cassandra with its inherent conflicts is also the space through which love emerges from intimacy

Psychoanalytic Versions of the Human Condition Paul Marcus, Alan Rosenberg, 1998-08 What is psychoanalysis Whereas there was once a time when proponents of mainstream psychoanalysis could point to the preeminence of Freud's drive theory and the version of the human condition associated with it man as seeking pleasure in an erotically tinged universe contemporary psychoanalysis is a fractured and contentious discipline in which competing theories share little more than the basic concepts of unconscious mental processes repression and transference Taking the complexities ambiguities and contradictions engendered by psychoanalysis over the past several decades as an encouraging point of departure rather than as evidence of the dissolution of the psychoanalytic tradition Psychoanalytic Versions of the Human Condition makes explicit how within each major theory a particular story about the nature of the world and what it means to be human decisively shapes how the clinician conceptualizes individual psychopathology and approaches treatment A chorus of voices that both challenges and reaffirms the theory and practice of psychoanalysis Psychoanalytic Versions of the Human Condition asks urgent questions about the politics of psychoanalytic knowledge and about how the profession is situated and operates in our contemporary culture Whether Freudian Jungian Kleinian Kohutian Lacanian or hybrid the clinician will find this book a useful guide to understanding how each theory's philosophy of life infuses clinical work
