Archaeological Fantasies Garrett G. Fagan,2006 Including case studies this collection of engaging and stimulating essays written by a diverse group of scholars scientists and writers examines the phenomenon of pseudoarchaeology from a variety of perspectives From the Ashes of Angels Andrew Collins,2001-09-01 Provides convincing evidence that angels demons and fallen angels were flesh and blood members of a giant race predating humanity spoken of in the Bible as the Nephilim Indicates that the earthly paradise of Eden was a realm in the mountains of Kurdistan By the author of Gateway to Atlantis Our mythology describes how beings of great beauty and intelligence who served as messengers of gods fell from grace through pride These angels also known as Watchers are spoken of in the Bible and other religious texts as lusting after human women who lay with them and gave birth to giant offspring called the Nephilim These religious sources also record how these beings revealed forbidden arts and sciences to humanity transgressions that led to their destruction in the Great Flood Andrew Collins reveals that these angels demons and fallen angels were flesh and blood members of a race predating our own He offers evidence that they lived in Egypt prior to the ancient Egyptians where they built the Sphinx and other megalithic monuments before leaving the region for what is now eastern Turkey following the cataclysms that accompanied the last Ice Age Here they lived in isolation before gradually establishing contact with the developing human societies of the Mesopotamian plains below Humanity regarded these angels described as tall white haired beings with viperlike faces and burning eyes as gods and their realm the paradise wherein grew the tree of knowledge Andrew Collins demonstrates how the legends behind the fall of the Watchers echo the faded memory of actual historical events and that the legacy they have left humanity is one we can afford to ignore only at our own peril Meine Welt in Bildern. Rhodes, John Parris Springer, 2014-10-01 Through most of the 20th century the distinction between the fictional narrative film and the documentary was vigorously maintained The documentary tradition developed side by side with but in the shadow of the more commercially successful feature film In the latter part of the century however the two forms merged on occasion and mockumentaries fictional works in a documentary format and docudramas reality based works in a fictional format became part of the film and television landscape The 18 essays here examine the relationships between narrative fiction films and documentary filmmaking focusing on how each influenced the other and how the two were merged in such diverse films and shows as Citizen Kane M A S H This Is Spinal Tap and Destination Moon Topics include the docudrama in early cinema the industrial film as faux documentary the fear evoked in 1950s science fiction films the selling of reality in mockumentaries and reality television and documentary forms The essays provide a foundation for significant rethinking of film history and criticism offering the first significant discussion of two emerging and increasingly important genres Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here Catalog of Copyright Entries.
