Teaching to Exceed the English Language Arts Common Core State Standards Richard Beach, Allen Webb, Amanda Haertling Thein, 2015-12-07 Timely thoughtful and comprehensive this text directly supports pre service and in service teachers in developing curriculum and instruction that both addresses and exceeds the requirements of the Common Core State Standards Adopting a critical inquiry approach it demonstrates how the Standards highest and best intentions for student success can be implemented from a critical culturally relevant perspective firmly grounded in current literacy learning theory and research It provides specific examples of teachers using the critical inquiry curriculum framework of identifying problems and issues adopting alternative perspectives and entertaining change in their classrooms to illustrate how the Standards can not only be addressed but also surpassed through engaging instruction The Second Edition provides new material on adopting a critical inquiry approach to enhance student engagement and critical thinking planning instruction to effectively implement the

CCSS in the classroom fostering critical response to literary and informational texts using YA literature and literature by authors of color integrating drama activities into literature and speaking listening instruction teaching informational explanatory argumentative and narrative writing working with ELL students to address the language Standards using digital tools and apps to respond to and create digital texts employing formative assessment to provide supportive feedback preparing students for the PARCC and Smarter Balanced assessments using the book s wiki site <http://englishccss.pbworks.com> for further resources

Identity-Focused ELA Teaching Richard Beach, Anthony Johnston, Amanda Haertling
Thein, 2015-03-05 Countering the increased standardization of English language arts instruction requires recognizing and fostering students unique identity construction across different social and cultural contexts Drawing on current sociocultural theories of identity construction this book posits that students construct multiple identities through use of five identity practices adopting alternative perspectives exploring connections across people and texts negotiating identities across social worlds developing agency through critical analysis and reflecting on long term identity trajectories Identity Focused ELA Teaching features classroom activities teachers can use to put these practices into action in ways that re center implementing the Common Core State Standards case study profiles of students and classrooms from urban suburban and rural schools adopting these practices and descriptions of how teachers both support students with this instructional approach and share their own identity construction experiences with their students It demonstrates how as students acquire identity focused practices through engagements with literature writing drama and digital texts they gain awareness of the ways exposure to different narratives beliefs and perspectives serves to mediate their own and others identities leading to different ways of being and becoming over time

Collecting for the Curriculum Amy J. Catalano, 2015-09-28 If you re a librarian charged with collecting curriculum materials and children s literature to support the Common Core State Standards then this book the only one that offers explicit advice on collection development in curriculum collections is for you While there are many publications on the Common Core for school librarians and K 12 educators no such literature exists for curriculum librarians at the post secondary level This book fills that gap standing alone as a guide to collection development for curriculum librarians independent of the Common Core State Standards CCSS The book provides instruction and guidance to curriculum librarians who acquire and manage collections so you can develop a collection based on best practices The book begins with a primer on the CCSS and how curriculum librarians can support them Discussion of the Standards is then woven through chapters arranged by content area that share research based practices in curriculum development and instruction to guide you in curriculum selection Material types covered include games textbooks children s literature primary sources counseling and nonfiction Additional chapters cover the management of curriculum collections testing collections and instruction and reference as well as how to support and collect for special needs learners Current practices in collection development for curriculum materials librarians are also reviewed The book closes with a discussion of
