The Ugly Duckling

The duck had a three ducklings. Two came out cute, fluffy and white. The third came out gray and ugly. The ducklings laughed and made fun of the ugly duckling. The mother duck was even mean to it, too. The ugly duckling went away from its family. It found a new farm to live at with a farmer, his wife, and a few geese, but they eventually got mean to the duckling as well. So the ugly duckling continued to leave in search of a family that would accept it. One day, the ugly duckling happened upon a lake with beautiful birds. They were all floating in a pond when the ugly duckling walked over to them. The mother swam to the ugly duckling and invited it into the pond with them. When the duckling walked to the edge of the pond, it looked down and saw its reflection. It was no longer gray and ugly. It was now a beautiful white swan.

The Frog With No Legs

In the pond, there lived frogs, fish, and other reptiles and amphibians. Tarr was a brand new tadpole in the pond. He swam around as quickly as he could but needed a new friend. He swam up to older frogs in the pond and tried talking to them. They all laughed at him and said he couldn't hang out with them because he didn't have any legs. He then swam to a turtle, who also said he was a frog with no legs, so he couldn't keep up with him either. The frog just swam around with the fish in the pond, feeling out of place. After days and days of feeling alone and sad, the frog felt his body start to change. He noticed that he was starting to grow two back legs, which was weird because he felt like he had been a fish. Two more days passed and he sprouted from his legs, too. He swam over to the grown frogs that turned him away the other day and showed off his new legs. They apologized and said he could hang with them now.
