Better But Not Well Better But Not Well:

The Stubborn System of Moral Responsibility Bruce N. Waller, 2015 In this book the author examines the stubborn philosophical belief in moral responsibility surveying the philosophical arguments for it but focusing on the system that supports these arguments powerful social and psychological factors that hold the belief in moral responsibility firmly in place Publisher's description

The Impact of Racism on African American Families Professor Paul C Rosenblatt, 2014-02-28 In spite of the existence of statistics and numerical data on various aspects of African American life including housing earnings assets unemployment household violence teen pregnancy and encounters with the criminal justice system social science literature on how racism affects the everyday interactions of African American families is limited How does racism come home to and affect African American families If a father in an African American family is denied employment on the basis of his race or a wife is demeaned at work by racist slurs how is their family life affected Given the lack of social science literature responding to these questions this volume turns to an alternative source in order to address them literature Engaging with novels written by African American authors it explores their rich depictions of African American family life showing how these can contribute to our sociological knowledge and making the case for the novel as an object and source of social research As such it will appeal to scholars and students of the sociology of the family race and ethnicity cultural studies and literature
