Between Law And Custom Between Law And Custom:

Law, Custom, and Statute in the Muslim World Rôn Šaham, 2007 This collective volume deals with the main components in the laws of Islamic societies past and present sharia custom and statute Covers a wide range of geographical areas from the Balkans to Yemen and from Iraq to the Maghrib Back cover The Study of Folk Law in Hungary Szabina Bognár, 2025 Szabina Bognár's book is about the history of an interdisciplinary field of research in Hungary that falls within the purview of ethnography law history and sociology and which has a bewilderingly diverse range of names study of folk law collection of legal customs research into legal folk customs legal ethnography legal ethnology legal anthropology etc Based on a wide range of sources rich archival material researchers legacies and publications encompassing several scientific fields it reviews research programs in Hungary from the early 20th century collections on inheritance law to the present day with the aim of understanding the normative systems of smaller communities The summary of research history not only attempts to evaluate the results of a long standing research tradition but also clarifies terminological issues and presents international parallels The author lists the obstacles to institutionalisation shows when and how politics influenced research conducted for various reasons and describes the careers of researchers in 20th century Hungary Law, Custom and Property Rights Among the Ma/Nyima of the Nuba Mountains in the Sudan Hunud Abia Kadouf, 2013-06 This book is based on an extensive field work in which the author tried to study the customary law of property of an African agrarian tribal community of ma also known as Nyima of the Nuba Mountains in the northern Sudan The writer has tried to explain the nature of property holding in the light of the people's philosophy evidenced in their social structure and their traditional beliefs Special attention is paid to the traditional structure of political leadership in this highly segmented society that was prone not only to inter tribal wars but was also in a constant fission and fusion among themselves when not at war with other neighboring tribes In discussing jurisdictional issues and traditional settlement mechanisms based partly on law and custom both adopted by this egalitarian society the study is made currently relevant by keen observation on the effect of modernity on traditional ethics and morality of the ma society that was once described by some authors as being impervious to foreign influence Furthermore the reception and assimilation of the state law together with the Shari'ah laws in various areas such as that relating to property devolution family institution and burial rites is treated as being of great significance in the overall development of the tribal customary laws Like any other Nuba tribe the consciousness of the ma people of their ethos of identity marks their ferociously guarded customs and traditions prevalent up to date The book is not only a precious academic endeavor full of keen observations in depth study and analysis of tribal customary laws of property but is also a memoir for the author to commemorate formidable tribal group of the ma people in the Nuba Mountains of the Sudan

Questions of Tradition Mark Salber Phillips, Mark Phillips, Gordon J. Schochet, 2004-01-01 Tradition is a central concern for a wide range of academic disciplines interested in problems of transmitting culture across generations Yet the concept itself has received remarkably little analysis A substantial literature has grown up around the notion of invented tradition but no clear concept of tradition is to be found in these writings since the very notion of invented tradition presupposes a prior concept of tradition and is empty without one this debunking usage has done as much to obscure the idea as to clarify it In the absence of a shared concept the various disciplines have created their own vocabularies to address the subject Useful as they are these specialized vocabularies of which the best known include hybridity canonicity diaspora paradigm and contact zones separate the disciplines and therefore necessarily create only a collection of parochial and disjointed approaches Until now there has been no concerted attempt to put the various disciplines in conversation with one another around the problem of tradition Combining discussions of the idea of tradition by major scholars from a variety of disciplines with synoptic synthesizing essays Questions of Tradition will initiate a renewal of interest in this vital subject A Legal History of
